Those enjoying the wrestling matches on TV were: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Roby and Alvin, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Northway and Fred and Ronnie and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerick. Mrs. Brendon served cake and coffee at a late hour.

Alvin Kief spent the week end with his wife and family. Mr. Kief is working on The Dalles dam.

Callers Sunday at the Lester Rearrick home were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Rearrick and daughter of Cottage Grove Mr. and Mrs. Ace Zorn and two boys of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hanks and Steve of Blue Mt. and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sloan and Ethel of London. The men helped Mr. Rearrick cut wood.

Snow Causes Havoc With Telephone And Power Lines

By Jeanette Kelly Phone 1167K1

DORENA—A good beginning for this week's column would be the weather as it is the most talked of subject in any community recently. Approximately six inches of snow covered the ground in this vicinity Sunday morning and certainly wrought havoc with first the telephone lines then REA power lines which still were not giving service to all residents even Monday afternoon. Crews from both companies were on the job trying to complete repairs as fast as possible.

Ladies of the Home Economics club of the Dorena grange will serve a ham dinner at the Row River community hall between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock January 26. Grange ladies are asked to furnish pies. Stella Noeth and Meda Downers will pick them up if you please notify them. The dinner is open to the public and the price per meal will be $1.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Herard are the proud parents of a baby girl at the Cottage Grove Hospital January 16, 1954. The little lady has been named Sheila Lee.

Tommy Munroe returned to his home Monday of this week from the Cottage Grove hospital where he had spent nearly two weeks suffering with meningitis. He will have to remain in bed at home two weeks, but hopes to return to high school at mid-term. Tommy and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Munroe, wish to thank everyone for their thoughtfulness during his illness.

The girls volleyball team was victorious in the game with the London girls. The week preceding the game against the Latham girls was also won. Good work girls. The boys basketball team wasn't so successful as the girls but we hope they will have better luck next time.

Row River Community club met Wednesday, January 13, at the home of Mrs. Wayne Vaughn with a large attendance. The afternoon was spent with sewing and a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wicks entertained the following guests at a luncheon Thursday in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Wayne Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Vaughn and Mrs. Ruth Cartwright.

Mrs. Lee Thomason returned to her home here Saturday evening after spending two weeks in California where she visited relatives.

Wayne Vaughn is taking treatments for a back ailment at a Eugene clinic.

Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wicks showed their slides of their trip to Alaska last summer to the Ryell family and the Darrel and Eddie Gartout families.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wicks entertained Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pitcher and three children of Junction City Sunday evening in the height of style (by candle light) not exactly by choice but because of the power outage.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wicks, who only recently returned from Hawaii, were at the grange hall greeting old friends preceding the regular meeting of the grange Friday night, January 15.

Mrs. Jessie Vining and Pheobe are moving to Cottage Grove to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Houck and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larsen attended the Chamber of Commerce banquet at the high school Monday night.

Ivel Humphrey returned the latter part of last week from Florida where he attended a convention concerning the REA.

Joyce Kelly and Kenny Bush of Cottage Grove spent Sunday at Sutherlin where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hart and family.

The Sunshine Circle of the Row River Valley Church was scheduled to meet at the church all day Wednesday, January 20, to clean the building.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cartwright entertained a group of friends at their home Saturday night, January 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Plowman of Florence spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Plowman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Steele. The Plowmans attended the party at the Cartwright home also.

Mrs. Fred Streibe is seriously ill at the Cottage Grove Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelly spent the week end in Hillsboro at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gilligan. The Kellys encountered snow just south of Salem and spent Friday night in Salem where there was approximately six inches of snow Saturday morning. Sunday morning they arose to find between eight and ten inches of snow on the ground. Many orchard trees were broken down in that vicinity by the weight of the snow as was the power and telephone lines.

No school was held Monday at either Dorena or Culp Creek because the power was off and the furnace could not operate. Maybe things will be back to normal in a few days—we hope.

John Bash Leaves For Austria 16th

By Ruby Benston Phone 28F4

SAGINAW—Pvt. John Bash telephoned his fiancée, Miss Geraldine Haynes, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Bash, from New Jersey Friday evening. John left the next day by ship for Italy and from there he will go to Austria, where he will be stationed for nine months.
