County Extension Agent Visits Group; Local Unit to Display at Festival

By Mrs. Walter Downes
Miss Constance Blaine, county extension agent, was a special guest of the Mount View Extension Unit at its regular meeting Friday, January 8, at the Dorena grange hall.

The lesson on "Interior Wall Finishes" was given by Wilma Downes and Barbara Wolcott. Each member was given a small board with two pieces of plaster board attached and they filled the crack with spatchel and then covered it with perfa-tape with instruction on filling the crack and smoothing the joint in preparation before putting on the different types of finishes. Wallpaper and other types of finishes for boards were also given.

Spring Festival April 24
The spring festival will be held April 24 at the new Eugene high school. Our exhibit of trays, glow candles and centerpieces was discussed. The exhibits will be judged and the winning one to be displayed in the stores.

Ladies Encampment Presents Regalia To the Encampment
Coast Fork Ladies Encampment of IOOF presented new cord regalia to the Encampment Thursday evening with a very impressive candlelight dedication ceremony.

Ten ladies dressed in pastel formal entered the hall with the lighted candles and regalia and formed a cross in middle of floor. At this time "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Jerry Harrison, accompanied at piano by Mrs. Boyd Allen. Then while Lauretta Safley, chief matriarch, read the meaning of each emblem on the regalia they were presented by the ladies to that officer, "I Believe" was then sung by Jerry Harrison.

Paul Miller, chief patriarch, then thanked the Auxiliary on behalf of the Encampment as this had come as a complete surprise to the men. The ladies had worked since May to raise enough money for this project.

Twelve Encampment members and nine Auxiliary members from Eugene were visitors.

Refreshments were served by Coast Fork later in the evening.

Wedding Anniversary Observed Saturday Nite
Several friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George Binder gathered at the Rod and Gun club Saturday night to honor them on their wedding anniversary.

Couples included Messrs. and Mrs. Norman Lewis, Lester Gates, Richard Olson, Samuel Tucker, Fred Kelly, Tommy Howard, Frank Miller, Lloyd Swanson, Joe Forrest and Charles Roberts. Also Bill Montgomery, Terry Binder and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hart of Gold Beach, cousins of Mr. Binder, and the honored guests.

After an evening of dancing a midnight supper was served.

Helen Cochrane, chairman of the legislative committee, gave a report on "What is a good citizen." Two things were emphasized: 1. That good citizenship begins in the home; and, 2. You should vote regardless of your party. At the next meeting she will report on primary elections.

Hostesses for our next meeting February 12 are Lee Armstrong, Frances Evenson, Evelyn Cline and Mary Ann Smith.

Vera Shreve and Meda Downes will go to Eugene January 14 for the lesson on "Main Dish Meals," which will be the lesson at the next regular meeting, February 12.

BPO ELKS BACK POLIO DRIVE—Debby Daines, March of Dimes poster boy, gets pledge from Earl E. James, Grand Exalted Ruler of Elks, enlisting Order's 1,110,000 members in campaign for $75 million war chest to conquer polio. James visited Debby at Idaho Elks Convalescent Home in Boise, Idaho, where 4-year-old polio victim has spent most of his life. Local Elks are holding dance Saturday night for Elks and their guests, proceeds of which will go towards CG area March of Dimes drive which is being sponsored by BFW.

CG Area Elks to Hold Dance Saturday Proceeds to Help March of Dimes

BPOE members in the Cottage Grove area are planning to assist in the March of Dimes drive by giving a dance for Elks and their guests Saturday, January 23. The dance will be held at the Elks club and will begin at 9 p.m. Part of the proceeds will go towards the current Polio Foundation drive. Music will be furnished by Billy Hamilton's orchestra.

"While we have always wholeheartedly supported the March of Dimes, this year we have incentives to give it our greatest cooperation," Exalted Ruler Orlo Bagley said. "More money is needed this year in order to complete tests of a trial vaccine that will prevent polio, the long-sought goal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis that now seems near. Another reason is that Debby Daines, the 1954 March of Dimes poster boy has been a patient in the Idaho Elks Convalescent Home at Boise for most of his four years, and we look upon him as 'our boy'."

"Our Grand Exalted Ruler, Earl James, has promised Debby that 1,110,000 Elks throughout the country will do their utmost to
