

CITY BRIEFS

Visiting at the Louis Thiede home Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clint Ocumpaugh and Milton, Mrs. Lula Perkins and Phyllis Perkins. The occasion was Mrs. Thiede's birthday anniversary.

Dallas Keesaman was admitted to Eugene Hospital and Clinic Friday for several weeks of treatment for ruptured disk in his spine as a result of a former auto accident.

Mrs. Al MacKenzie of Haines, Alaska, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. May Barton, the past month, left for her home Sunday. Mrs. MacKenzie's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Way of Eugene, and her niece, Mrs. Ray Winters and family, also of Eugene, had Sunday dinner with Mrs. MacKenzie and mother.

Mrs. Gene Durham and son, John, of Spokane are visiting with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Durham. They are awaiting orders to join her husband, Lt. Gene Durham, at Chateaufort, France. Lt. Durham is stationed there with the Air Force.

E. F. Woodrume entered the Veterans Hospital at Portland last week. Before he left, numbers of friends and veterans called and the calls were appreciated by him. His address is Ward 5-A, Veterans Hospital, Portland, for those who care to write.

Mrs. Eva Miller returned from visiting friends and relatives in the East January 17. Mrs. Miller left Cottage Grove December 24. She made brief visits with her mother, Mrs. L. E. Smith, in Omaha, Ill., friends in St. Louis, Mo., and Denver, Colo., and her daughter in Boulder, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Minkler and family had visitors last Thursday and Friday from Yakima. They were Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Mortland who were returning from a trip to California. At the same time Mr. and Mrs. Ed Manning from Lake Stevens, Wash., visited the Minklers.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schaak from Billings, Mont., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert E. Garvin of Lorane Route last week. The two couples had not seen each other for 20 years.

H. B. Robbins, who suffered a slight stroke on the 14th, is much improved. Mrs. Robbins reported Wednesday morning. Mr. Robbins has been confined to his home since his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Teel returned Thursday from a month's vacation spent in southern California. They visited in Pasadena, where the hills were covered with snow and went over into Mexico for a short visit.

A. J. Kief, who has been employed on the construction of the Dalles dam came over last week and will remain here until the weather improves. He reported Saturday there was five or six inches of snow in the Dalles country.

Robert Tank, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Tank plans to leave this week end for McMinnville, where he will enroll in Linfield college.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Anna Houser were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Eaton of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Miller attended a banquet in Portland Saturday evening, January 23, at Berg's Chalet, given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Beamon of Los Angeles. Mrs. Beamon formerly sang with Metropolitan Opera, and entertained the group with several solos, accompanying herself on her accordion. The Millers returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Perry spent several days last week at Tacoma, Wash., with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Minney. Captain Harold Minney is serving with the Army in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crosby and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Eastburn returned home last Friday from San Jose, Calif., where they attended a teachers' training course at San Jose Bible College.

for Sunday school teachers. Crosby is the new Sunday school superintendent at the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ. This course was under the direction of Guy Leavitt, an expert in the field of training.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Buck and daughters, Bonita and Linda, are motoring from Casablanca to Paris, France, according to word received in Springfield by Mrs. Buck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Allen. Mr. Buck, with the U. S. Engineers, has been transferred from Casablanca to another project near Paris. He had been stationed at Casablanca since December 1, 1952, his family joined him last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Moen of Gardiner called at the home of Mrs. Lula Perkins Sunday. Mrs. Perkins and the Moens were friends in Minnesota. Also calling Sunday at the Perkins home were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Yearous and daughter, Delores.
