Silk Creek Voters Register at Nealey's; Club Elects Officers

By Mrs. Dale McCoy
Phone 1176J3

SILK CREEK—Silk Creek precinct voters can register at Nealey's store which is five miles from town on the Lorane road.

There was a large attendance at the all-day meeting of the Neighbors Friendship club in the 4-H club building last Thursday. Several of the men were there for the potluck dinner at noon. Following the dinner the local 4-H club leader, C. J. Robinson, gave an interesting talk on 4-H club work. He said, among other things, that the club's purpose was not to make skilled craftsmen of the boys and girls, but to build good character and to help them grow up to be good citizens. He stated that the club house was not only used for their regular 4-H club meetings but the boys often used it several times a week as a fixit shop to repair their bicycles, etc.

In the afternoon there was a bridal shower for Mrs. Marion Hathaway. She received many lovely and useful gifts.

Officers Elected

Election of officers was held at the close of the business meeting. New officers for the next six months are: Mrs. Jim Morgan, president; Mrs. James Espy, vice president; Mrs. Dale McCoy, secretary and Mrs. R. E. Poynter, assistant secretary.

The club quilt was put in the frames and tied out. The next meeting will be April 15 at the home of Mrs. Dale McCoy with Mrs. Frank Richardson as cohostess.

Jim Morgan made a business trip to Portland Wednesday evening of last week, returning Thursday.

Mrs. Clell L. Nealley was in the Cottage Grove hospital one day for X-rays.

Wayne Smith returned to his home at Gold Beach Thursday after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith.

Mrs. Betty McConnaghy of Eugene visited Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Clell L. Nealley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Doolittle of Dorena were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McMurrick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cline of Arcata, Calif., spent two days at the home of Mrs. Cline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and family. Their little son Ronnie returned home with them after having spent several weeks visiting his grandparents here.

Visiting two days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duncan and family were Duncan's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Duncan, of San Diego, Calif. Howard is having a 30-day leave from the Navy and will leave soon for overseas duty.

Mrs. Edith Whipps of Grants Pass visited one day recently with Mrs. C. M. Dunham.

Sgt. and Mrs. Russell Knights and son Sydney of Winlock, Wash., visited recently at the home of Mrs. Knight's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Espy. Sgt. Knight has recently returned from almost two years of army duty in Korea. He is now on his way to Texas for duty there.

Undergoes Foot Surgery

Larry Nabakowski of Cottage Grove underwent foot surgery at the Cottage Grove hospital Saturday morning. He expects to be in the hospital several days. Larry was a former resident of this community and attended the Silk Creek school.

Week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McMurrick and family were McMurrick's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William McMurrick and Ethel and David Parsons is the new president; another sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peterson, all of Albany.

Mrs. Clarence Duncan entertained at a demonstration party at her home on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Luncheon was served to 17 ladies and several children.

The Silk Creek school pupils are now having a full hour for lunch instead of the half hour they had during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Cowan and Mrs. Oler Brackett drove to Fall Creek on Monday of last week and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cowan and family. Their grandson, Bruce, came home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peterson and JoAnn were Saturday night dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Greenough in Eugene. They enjoyed the evening watching television.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ketchum of Eugene were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wheeler.

Leo Muno Expected Home

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Muno received word from their son, Leo Muno, M.M.3, that his ship is scheduled to dock at San Diego, Calif., April 25. Leo has been in Japan, China, and Korea for the past year.

Judy Allen was confined to her home three days last week with the flu.

Saturday dinner and afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Darnell were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Conklin of Deerhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Kenning Fischer and daughter Linda of Fortuna, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Runyon of Creswell, Delbert Garvin and son Gary of Divide and Glen Reisweg of Comstock.

Home Extension Unit Views Demonstration; Friends Honor Beckers

By Mrs. Ruby Meacham
Phone 998R4

CURTIN—The Pass Creek Unit of the Home Extension met Wednesday at the North Douglas grange hall with eight members present. Mrs. Elaine Cline gave a demonstration of walls, woodwork and floor finishes and care. Chairman Betty Thompson appointed committees for a carnival to be held Saturday night, May 1, at the grange hall.

Those appointed were: Bingo, Genevieve Gordineer; Dart Game, Clara Black; Fish Pond, Mildred Rohrer; refreshments, Elaine Cline; pop and candy, Priscilla Walker; used funny books, Florence Deeds; Publicity, Opal Nelson.

Present for the meeting were Betty Thompson, Florence Deeds, Genevieve Gordineer, Naomi Jacob, Clara Black, Priscilla Walker, Elaine Cline, Opal Nelson and Mildred Rohrer. Date of the April meeting is changed, members to be notified later.

Neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Becker gave them a surprise house warming party Saturday evening. Beckers have just completed their new home next to their other house and moved into it last week. There were about 25 guests who presented the Beckers with a lovely set of dishes.

Grange Meets

The North Douglas Grange held its regular meeting Friday evening with Master Alvin Allen in charge. During the lecturer's hour, H. E. chairman Mabel Sowles asked for a few minutes for a skit. A wheelbarrow was wheeled in by Gene Meacham with Jimmy Nelson riding inside dressed as a baby. It was brought over to lecturer Opal Nelson, who was then presented with a load of baby gifts.

After the meeting the gifts were opened by the honoree, Opal Nelson. Everyone who brought baby pictures of themselves, had them numbered and everyone guessed on who was who. Dorothy Sands guessed all of the pictures correctly. It was also decided for each family to give 50 cents to buy records for the teenagers dance club. Hamburgers, pie and coffee were sold before and after the meeting.

The teen-agers' square dance club held a dance at the grange hall Saturday night. Members of the Hebron Grange were invited with quite a few attending. The dance club decorated the hall, and served pop corn, sandwiches, cookies, cool drinks and coffee to their guests. Dale Harris brought his record player and mike along and did the calling for the square dances. Hebron has invited the club to come up there next time.

Daughter Born to Stigers

Mr. and Mrs. John Stigers are the proud parents of a new baby girl, born March 24 at the Cottage Grove hospital. The baby weighed eight pounds and seven ounces, and has been named Cynthia Rance.

The 4-H Forestry group had planned on planting trees around the school last Saturday, but due to the hard rain it was postponed. If weather allows, they will plant them next Saturday.

Sunday dinner guests at the James Nelson home were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Drake and Mr. and Mrs. Keeran. Mr. and Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Keeran are teachers at the Curtin school.

O, beware, my lord, of jealousy:
It is the green-eyed monster which doth mock
The meat it feeds on.
