Mount View Extension Unit Studies Lesson on Scotland at Meet April 9

By Mrs. Walter N. Downes
The Mount View Extension Unit held its regular meeting at the Dorena Grange hall April 9.

Due to the illness of chairman Frances Evenson, the meeting was presided over by Alice Peihl, vice chairman.

The lesson on "Scotland" was given by Bessie Gillispie and Evelyn Cline and a Scottish dessert called "Trifle" was part of the luncheon. A display table of Scottish plaid articles, bagpipes and pictures was enjoyed by all present.

A letter was read from Constance Blaine, who is now county agent of Dend Oreille county, with her office at Newport, Wash., which is in northwestern Washington.

Hostesses at Spring Festival
The spring festival will be held at the new Eugene high school, Saturday, April 24, and Mount View club members are to be the hostesses, and they are asked to be there promptly at 9 a.m.

The Mount View unit will have a display called the "Easter Bunny," and will display its candle and aluminum tray making.

It was voted to give a half scholarship in 4-H club work to some one in the community.

The landscape tour for this part of the county will be held May 7.

Officers Elected
The following officers were elected for the coming year: Chairman, Evelyn Cline; vice chairman, Vera Shreve and secretary-treasurer, Dorothy Burge. Installation will be held at the next meeting, May 14.

The lesson for May 14 will be "Care of Metals" and will be given by Dorothy Hinds and Marjorie Powers. This will be a potluck dinner, so anyone not knowing what to bring please contact Marjorie Powers at phone 1211R3.

Also be sure to bring silver, brass, copper, etc., that needs cleaning.

Hostesses at the April 9 meeting were Bessie Gillispie, Phyllis Lighter, Emma Sears and Meda Downes.

Mmes. Puckett, Lillian Poynter and Mildred Foster were visitors.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES HAVE CLEAN-UP DAY

Circles 1, 2 and 3 of the Presbyterian Women's Association met April 14 at the church for a clean-up day. No business meetings were held, but the devotionals from the Book of Acts were given by Mrs. Hugh Peniston of Circle 1 and the lesson was presented by Mrs. Norman Richards of Circle 3.

Catholic Daughters State Convention In Eugene 23-25

The Oregon State convention of the Catholic Daughters of America will be held in Eugene April 23, 24 and 25, with meetings being held at the Eugene hotel, W. of W. hall and St. Francis high school. Eugene and Cottage Grove Courts will be cohostesses for the affair which will attract approximately 300 delegates, state officers and members. It is expected that 15 Cottage Grove ladies will be initiated during the convention.

Registration will be Friday afternoon at Eugene hotel. The evening will be devoted to initiation at the W. of W. hall, Eighth and Lincoln streets. Following the initiation the Cottage Grove Court will give a demonstration of installation of officers with Mrs. Russell Smith in charge. The evening will close with a reception and refreshments served at the Eugene hotel.

Saturday morning and afternoon sessions will be for business and reports from delegates.

Saturday night Bishop Francis P. Leipzig of Baker will be the guest speaker at the Eugene hotel in the Colonoide Room.

Sunday at 8 a.m. there will be a special Mass at St. Francis high school. The Very Reverend Edmund Murnane will be celebrant at Mass. This will be followed by breakfast at the Eugene hotel at which time Father Carl Mai of Cottage Grove will be one of the speakers, as well as attend the other services. Mrs. R. L. Sedergren, local court's first grand regent, is chairman and toastmistress for the Sunday breakfast.

Sunday morning there will be a business session and election of state officers for the ensuing two years.

Women of Moose To Honor Academy Of Friendship April 25

The Women of the Moose will meet Sunday to honor the academy of friendship. The local lodge will also honor the visit of Vera Smith, grand deputy regent of Eugene.

Refreshments will be served following the initiation and games will be played. Admission will be 50 cents per person and guests are welcome. Lunch will be served at 6 p.m.
