LORANE—Sorry, but the type-writer must have stuttered last week. The Junior-Senior play to be given in the high school auditorium May 1, is "Pals First" and not "Cals First" as was first stated. The three-act comedy-mystery will be directed by Miss Jeanette Stone. It was written by Lee Wilson Dodd.

The cast includes Bob Sayles, Jack Cox, Jim Johnson, Annabell Singhose, Claudette Payne, Wayne with the class routine. The rural pupils will be guests of the high school at a luncheon in the high school cafeteria and attend a baseball game in the afternoon.

V. B. Hoyer and son, Ivan Hoyer, attended a dinner meeting of the Society of Public Accountants held at the Del Rey Cafe in Eugene on Monday.

Coder, Leonard Singhose, Bob Nichols, Don Mason and Miss Stone.

April 30 has been set as the date for the pre-school clinic to be held at Lorane grade school. All parents who have children who will enter school next fall are invited to attend with their child.

The County Health Nurse will be present to explain all the health requirements for children entering school and Mrs. Patricia Castro will tell the parents what a child is expected to know before he enters school and give an outline of the work he will do the first year in school.

This will also give the children a chance to familiarize themselves with the new school and playground.

On May 7 a combination May Day-Mothers Day program will be presented by Lorane grade school.

A program will be given by the lower grades in the morning in the high school auditorium beginning at 10 a.m. In the afternoon games will be held on the grade school playgrounds and a Mother's tea will be held for parents in the school cafeteria by the teachers.

Parents may have their lunch in the school cafeteria if they will notify the school ahead of time. The charge will be 25c.

Amateur Hour

Nineteen acts entered the annual Amateur Hour sponsored by the Lorane Parent Teachers Club Friday, April 23. The program was divided into three groups, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades; 4th, 5th, and 6th grades; and 7th, 8th, and miscellaneous.

In the first group of the three middle grades Arlene Smith and Sherman Lowe were first place winners singing "It's My Lazy Day" and "Lazy Bones." Shirley Gillespie was second with a tap dance to the tune of "Choo Choo Train." Other numbers in this group were tap dances by Patty Jacobson and Trena Armitage, accordion solos by Judy Conner, Lynn and Roberta Wegard, reading by Johnny Bell Johnson, piano solo by Hazel Williamson, and a tap dance by Peggy Leach.

In the second group composed of the first three grades, Doretta Castro singing and tapping to "Beautiful Dreamer" was first place winner, and Reggie Gates singing "Cassion Song" and "Marines Hymn" was second. Joy Suttap tapped to "Here Comes Peter Cottontail." Pauline Williamson played a Tonette solo, and Nova Lynn Wyman did a tap dance.

Connie Wyman won first place in the third group with a tap dance to "Buttons and Bows." Karen Lobok and Sharon Kotre played a piano duet "The Glow-worm" to win second place. The hit of the evening was the rendition of "Feudin', Fussin' and a Fightin'" by Miss Jeanette Stone, but it, with readings by Miss Elda Lowman and Harvey Moothart was not in competition with the grade school pupils.

Harvey Moothart and Miss Stone acted as Master of Ceremonies with a number of clever incidents used between acts. Miss Stone was extremely amusing with her TV commercials between groups.

Lesson on Scotland

Home Extension club met at the IOOF hall Thursday for a lesson on Scotland by Mmes. Jack Terrell and Gene Burns. The group enjoyed two movies, "Crofters" showing the daily life of the Scottish Highlanders, and "Roaming Through Scotland" which showed places of interest all over the land. Later Mrs. Burns gave a short talk on the Scottish industries and life not shown in the films.

Some Scottish dishes were served at lunch. The group was divided into two parts and the half who were not on the serving committee this month each paid 25c for their luncheon. Next month the other group will pay to raise money for the Unit.

Election of officers for next year was held. Mrs. W. J. Leach was elected chairman, Mrs. Ross Dey, vice-chairman, and Mrs. R. G. Conner, secretary and treasurer. They will be installed at the next meeting.

The money making hat raised $1.20 and was won by Mrs. R. G. Conner who added more decorations before it was taken to Spring Festival for exhibit there. $5.15 was also raised by a White Elephant auction and the dinner.

The May meeting will be held in the grange hall and will be an agent meeting on "What To Do Till the Doctor Comes."

Lorane IOOF lodge received two new members by transfer at their meeting April 21. They were F. M. Nease and Joe Swinney. The group plans to go to Florence Wednesday, April 28 to visit the lodge there. Everyone who can go are asked to be at the IOOF hall in time to reach Florence by 8 p.m.

Lloyd Counts took four Explorer Scouts to Eugene Saturday for the Scout Shoot at McArthur Court. Albert Armitage, Jerry Dillon, Boyd Mitchell and Nathan Sessions took part.

club met with Ned Pasco Saturday afternoon. Judy Conner, Jack Woolery, and Billy Sayles gave reports on the Poultry School they attended in Eugene recently.

On April 28 the second grade pupils will go to Cottage Grove for the first of their Peto shots. Honor roll for Lorane high school for the past semester was Arlin Rothauge, Claudette Payne, Richard Payne, Gail Forrest and Leonard Singhose. Receiving honorable mention were Scott Builderback, Dale Simpson, Daniel Thompson and Annabell Singhose.

Lorane high school was third place runner in an invitational track meet among seven B League schools last Wednesday. Bob Sayles won first in tossing the javelin. They will attend the Springfield League track meet in Springfield this week.

On Friday the high school beat Crow at baseball and the Lorane girls won the softball game. They will close the season by playing Triangle Lake this week.

Lorane grade school will play a baseball game with Veneta on May 4. On May 12 the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades will enter the county track meet. Coach Gates is trying to find an event for each pupil to enter.

session. Mrs. F. G. Sessions attended the afternoon session and brought the exhibit home. The local Unit exhibited their aluminum trays and the money making hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell of Elkton visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell Sunday.

Attend Rodeo

Stanley and Manley Purdy and Lewis Torricellas attended a rodeo in Prosser, Washington, over the week end to advertise the Purdy Rodeo which is to be given in June this year.

Week end visitors at the Lynn Wyman home were Mrs. Wyman's sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. L. R. McBride and three sons of Baker, and her niece and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Walton and daughter of Oakridge. Saturday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stiff and children of Creswell. On Sunday the group met at the Keith Stiff home near Creswell for a family reunion. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stiff of Creswell and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bacheider and son of Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Alford and family spent the week end with his brother, Russell Alford and family. The Alfords live at South Beach near Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Crook and their daughter, Miss Elsie Jeffers of Redmond spent the week end at the Chester Purdy home with their daughter, Mrs. Marion Purdy. This was the first time they had seen their new grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Groshong and Sons of Albany also spent the week end with the Purdys.

Mrs. Alice Conner of Cottage Grove spent the week end at the R. G. Conner home.

Mrs. Taylor Circle is able to be home from the hospital.
