

Wedding Planned

MISS LAURENE MILLER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller, is engaged to Robert M. Harper of Cottage Grove.

The wedding is planned for late August.

Hail the advent of each dangerous day. And meet the great adventure with a song. —Maurice Baring

DORENA LADY DOING FASHION ILLUSTRATIONS
Mrs. Helen Tryk who lives out at Dorena is now doing fashion illustration for a Eugene store. Her work is used to illustrate written material concerning store items. Included are sketches of dresses, jewelry, accessories, hats—all types of ready-to-wear. Mrs. Tryk had done similar work several years ago.

LOCAL PDG MEMBERS ATTEND FEDERATED MEET

Those attending the district meeting Friday, April 23, of Federated Gardens from the PDG club were Mrs. A. I. McLean, local chairman of junior gardens; Mrs. R. C. Bowser, local conservation chairman; Mrs. S. L. Gollard, district chairman of botanical gardens; Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Alfred Wulff and Mrs. C. L. Hansen.

JERRY TENNIS TO WED GIRL IN ENGLAND

Word has been received of the engagement announcement of A/C Jerry C. Tennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tennis of this city, to Miss Thelma Wilde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilde of Liverpool, England. A/C Tennis is now serving in the USAF and is stationed at Burtonwood Air Force base.

VIOLET LOUISE EASTBURN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eastburn announce the engagement of two of their daughters, Violet Louise and Evelyn Esther.

Violet is the fiancée of Ernest Samuel Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Martin, and Evelyn will marry Pte. Kenneth Everett Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Davis. The three families are residents of the Blue Mountain area. All four young people are active members of the Young People's group of the Blue Mountain Assembly of God.

Violet Eastburn and Ernest Martin have set their wedding date June 18 at the Blue Mountain Assembly of God Church. Evelyn Eastburn and Pte. Davis have not set a wedding date. He is stationed at present at Eielson AFB, Alaska.

Editor's note: This is a corrected article of last week's issue in which we stated the girls were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eastburn.

N. of W. Meet, Plan Social Meeting

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met Tuesday evening in the IOOF hall with Lorraine Miller, guardian neighbor, presiding. Committees were appointed for the social meeting which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Teich. Mildred Teich and Adelia Hatch will serve refreshments.

The next business meeting will be June 1 with Gladys Hatch and Ruby Wall as hostesses.

Herman Miller resigned his office as attendant as he is moving to California. Ruby Wall was elected to fill the office, and Ed Teich was elected manager for the ensuing term.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mary Duffy and Martha Cooley. Fannie Leabo had charge of the program which consisted of singing by the Jasper Jills.

By Mrs. Esther Trunnell LATHAM — Mrs. Gilbert Yearous entertained Thursday afternoon with a "pink and blue" shower in honor of Mrs. Alon Lee Williams. A beautiful stork graced the gift table.

After a travel game, Mrs. Williams opened the gifts brought by the following guests: Mrs. Ruth Schwarzer, mother of Mrs. Williams; Mmes. Lee Williams, Roscoe Yearous, Gerald Beers, James Quigley, Paul Levings, John Trunnell, Harry McDole, C. S. Plaster, Lester Yearous, Everett Yearous and Hugh Trunnell. Also present were nine children.

Four Local RNA Members Attend State Convention

June Bird, Julia Bartels, Agnes Henderer and Nellie Blackmore attended the 16th state convention of Royal Neighbors of America held recently in Eugene.

Under school of instruction the Cottage Grove members exemplified the draping of the charter. They also attended the banquet in the Masonic hall and open meeting in the evening which included drill and a program.

Installation was held for the new state officers the second evening. Besides the installation ceremony, the evening's entertainment included drills, skits and presentation of gifts.

It was decided to have the next state convention in 1958 at LaGrande.

Local Ladies Attend Academy of Friendship Initiated Into Order

Three local ladies were initiated into the Academy of Friendship of the Women of the Moose Sunday, May 2, at Astoria. The Cottage Grove initiates were Louise Anderson, Louise Starr and Violet McInnes. Hilda Walther is the local Academy of Friendship chairman and accompanied the group to Astoria. Also attending was Irma Cooper, Gladys Miller and daughter went as far as Portland with the ladies.

The local Women of the Moose will meet May 6 and will hold initiation.

JUNIOR CLUB FORMED

A Junior Garden club has been organized with about 13 members ranging in age from 11 to 16 years. This group was formed under the supervision of Mrs. A. I. McLean, member of the PDG club, with Gay Beck as president; Darline Hubbard, vice president and Susan Gregg, secretary.

The club held a sale recently and realized $59 which they will use to purchase a rose bush for each girl and some bulbs for fall planting. The girls plan to meet once each month.

Audiometric Recheck Benefits Children

School children in south Lane county who have a known hearing loss have had the benefit of a recheck audiometric test during the months of March and April of this year.

A mass ear-testing program of elementary school children was conducted during December and January of 1952-53. This mass testing is done every three years. During the intervening years the test is done only on specially referred boys and girls suspected of not hearing well and on those known to have a hearing loss. Such children are referred to their family doctor for examination.

SAFETYWAY EMPLOYEES ATTEND BANQUET

Fifteen employees of the local Safetyway store attended the annual store election of officer's banquet in Eugene Tuesday night. Walter Shackelford was a candidate for office.

Visiting the local store Wednesday were Jerry Stafford, new retail operations manager for the Portland division, Harold Johnson, district manager from Salem; and George Mauchan, division manager from Portland.

New Sentinel Writer Collects Teapots, Tea

The Sentinel's new correspondent out at Dorena, Mrs. Ruth St. Clair, has been a resident of the community since 1941. Mrs. St. Clair came to Dorena from Eugene.

She keeps quite busy. In addition to her regular duties as postmaster at Dorena, she also collects teapots and rare tea and likes to garden, crochet and sew. When she finds a spare moment, she enjoys reading, fiction and non-fiction. Mrs. St. Clair prefers historical fiction.

And, around to enliven the days are her three pets, two cats named "Fussy" and "Tippy," and one dog, "Riley," whom Mrs. St. Clair refers to as "the fightingest dog in town." "Riley" is a combination of terrier and bull. He is 12 years old.

One day he was startled to overhear the children agreeing considerably. Let's have Grandpa tell the story of the three bears—that's his favorite story.
