Mexico Theme Junior Senior Banquet April 30

CRESWELL—"Mexico" was the theme of the junior-senior banquet Friday, April 30, at the Del Rey Cafe in Eugene and the decorations had a Mexican accent. One hundred guests were present including members of the two classes, school directors and teachers with their wives and husbands.

Warren Walker was master of ceremonies. Ray Hawk, dean of men at the University of Oregon, was guest speaker. The welcome was given by Laurel McCluskey and the response by Bryce Olsen.

Around Town...

Word comes from Merrill Zilkowski, a former resident of Creswell, now in training at Fort Benning, Ga., has suffered a broken collar bone in a fall while taking part in athletics at the base.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, local poultry raisers, attended a dinner and a poultry forum at the Eugene Hotel Tuesday evening. Miles Marquart, who suffered a stroke a few weeks ago, is able to be about again and has been down town.

The Creswell firemen answered a call to the Harvey Birch place in the Hilldale addition south of town Monday evening. A fire of undetermined origin burned the garage and woodshed and a number of tools. With a stiff wind blowing toward the house, it too would no doubt have burned if the fire truck had not been called. The men were on the job nearly two hours.

Last minute plans are being made for the annual Lions Jamboree at the Creswell school gymnasium Saturday, May 7, at 8 p.m. The club hopes to raise enough funds to carry on worth while projects in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Beneda visited Mrs. Gail Uhlin, a niece, at Caldwell, Idaho, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Reynolds returned Wednesday from a weeks visit with a son and family at Wenatchee, Wash. They attended the annual Cherry Festival while there. Mrs. J. V. Birdsong was in charge of their Super Keen store during their absence.

Mrs. Loyd Wheeler is helping cook at the Creswell grade school while Mrs. J. A. Coleman is visiting a son and family in California.

Dr. Jessie Smith, science department secretarial of the University of Oregon, spoke to the business students at the Creswell Union high school one day last week.

The Home Economics club will entertain at a demonstration party at the Creswell Grange hall Thursday, May 6.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Kinnaman and family and Mrs. A. E. Rhodes of North Hollywood, Calif., were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Rhodes at a family get-together on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Valley and baby son of Lebanon were dinner guests at the P. W. Kinnaman home Friday. The Valleys were childhood friends of the Kinnamans. They also called at the Cecil Rhodes home to see the new twins and at the A. C. Rhodes home.

Local VFW Post Will Host District Meeting May 7

CRESWELL—Creswell Post 4039 Veterans of Foreign Wars and their Auxiliary will be hosts to a district convention at Creswell Friday of this week, May 7. A potluck supper in charge of Mrs. T. W. Walkup and Mrs. E. O. Smith will be served at 6:30 in the VFW hall. The men will then retire to the high school auditorium for their session while the ladies will hold their meeting in the VFW hall. The Auxiliary welcome committee consists of Mrs. T. W. Walkup, Mrs. Hays Burke and Mrs. W. C. Adams.

Mrs. Rose Orr of Oakridge is district president and W. C. Adams of Creswell is district Commander. Officers for the new year will be elected at the meeting. The district includes Cottage Grove, Springfield, Marcola, Eugene, Oakridge and Creswell.

Creswell Lad Given Cherished Book By Chas. Lindbergh

CRESWELL—Larry Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lawrence and a senior in the Creswell Union high school, received a graduation gift Monday that he will cherish for years to come, that of an autographed copy of "The Spirit of St. Louis" from the author, Charles A. Lindbergh. Mr. Lindbergh also added "In memory of the days spent with Larry's mother and dad."

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence lived at St. Louis, Mo., some 29 years ago and rented apartments in their home to airplane pilots, one of whom was Charles A. Lindbergh. He was a quiet well-mannered chap, according to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, and much of his time when not at work at the air base, was spent in studying in his room.

Mr. Lawrence was an airplane mechanic and worked on the Lindbergh machine at Lambert Field many times.

The book was mailed from Lindbergh's home at Darien, Conn.

Plans for Creswell Baseball Benefit

CRESWELL—Plans are underway for a Creswell baseball benefit at the Creswell field Saturday, May 15. A softball game will be held at 12:30 between the eighth grade and high school freshmen teams. This will be followed by a baseball game between the Creswell high school team and the Springfield high school team.

Tickets are 50c for adults and 25c for students. The receipts will go into the Creswell Community Service Board fund to be used for some local project.

Mrs. R. C. Parson's young peoples' class of the Christian Church School will have a potluck supper at the church Saturday evening, May 8, and arrange the carriages for the mothers at the services May 9.

Glen Olsen and cousin, Bryce Olsen, attended the funeral in Eugene Saturday of Robert Davis, who was killed last week in an accident at the Eugene Vocational School. He was to have been married May 2. Glen Olsen was a classmate of Robert in the EVS.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer of Camas Valley, Oreg., visited last week at the Knute Holt home on their way to a visit with relatives in Minnesota.

Visitors Tuesday evening of last week at the Knute Holt home were Mrs. J. H. Brown of Agate Beach, Oreg., and Mrs. Bernice Brown of Bandon.

Teachers' club meets Friday, May 7, at the Creswell grade school. Officers for the next year will be elected. Mrs. Frank Redding will present a program. To serve refreshments are Mrs. R. H. Campbell and Mrs. F. G. Harrold. The teachers will be honored.

Patrons of Creswell grade school District 40 are reminded of the special election at the Creswell school May 7 from 2 to 8 p.m. to act on the proposal of using the small balance in the building fund to recall outstanding bonds, thus saving the district $1,440. This, in turn would be invested in government bonds until needed. Also, that a sinking fund be established for building purposes in the future.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Goulding and family of Corvallis were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murel Olsen and family Sunday.

The Geoffrey Walsh family returned last week from a three-weeks visit with relatives in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Ona Johnson of Parma, Idaho, visited her brother-in-law, G. E. Everson last week at the F. A. Everson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hartman Jr. (Davis Robinson), Creswell couple, wed at the local Church of God on Easter Sunday. They will make their home in Creswell.

CRESWELL—Miss Mavis Runnion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Runnion of Creswell, Route 1, became the bride of Clyde Hartman Jr. at 3 p.m. Easter Sunday at the Cottage Grove Church of God, the pastor Rev. H. D. Barkman officiating. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hartman Sr. of Creswell, Route 1.

Mr. Runnion escorted his daughter to the altar. Her ballerina length dress was of white nylon net over satin with a lace bodice. Her veil was banded with white satin and held in place with a Juliette cap. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses tied with wide white satin ribbon.

Miss Janice Runnion attended her sister as bridesmaid. She wore nylon net over satin with a bolero of pink. Her flowers were pink carnations arranged in a nosegay and tied with a pink satin ribbon.

Linda Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Graves of Cottage Grove, was flower girl. Taper-lights were Patsy Graves and Patricia Lewman. Martin Schapp, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Footed urns of Calla lilies and Easter lilies decorated the rostrum. Violin solos were played by Dick Dixon, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Dixon. Mrs. Dixon also sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Martin Schapp, sister of the groom, serving the wedding cake, and Miss Judy Graham of Creswell presiding at the punch bowl. Presenting the guest book were the Misses Graves and Lewman. Hostess for the wedding was Mrs. Aubrey Strong.

The bride is a sophomore in the Creswell Union high school and the groom is a junior. Both plan to continue their schoolwork. They are making their home in Creswell.
