Mrs. Glenn Pirtle Conducts BPW Installation of New Officers 7th

Mrs. Glenn Pirtle of Eugene, state first vice president of Business and Professional Women's club, conducted formal installation for new officers of the Cottage Grove club Monday night, June 7, in the parlor of the Methodist church.

The installation followed an 8 o'clock dinner. Those installed were Mrs. George Krauss, president; Mrs. Marvin Addy, first vice president; Mrs. Nelson Zeller, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur V. Hile, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. O. E. Lee, treasurer. Miss Gertrude Elliott, second vice president, was not present.

Prior to the service, Mrs. H. B. Robbins, outgoing president, honored all of the year's officers and committee chairmen by presenting them gifts. Officers in turn gave Mrs. Robbins a remembrance. Mrs. Robbins received the past president's guard, and Mrs. Krauss the president's pin.

Club History Given

Mrs. Lenora Pyburn, junior past president, gave a short history of the club, which started here in 1941 under sponsorship of the Eugene club. Past presidents who were present, were honored with corsages, and included Miss Lotie Lee Lamb, now of Eugene and formerly of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Edna Piller and Mrs. Morton Welden. Letters were read from other past presidents who could not attend, and the club sent flowers to Mrs. H. B. Breddlove, charter president, who is confined to her home.

Helen Kilpatrick, president of the Eugene club, was also a guest and commended the club on its growth and community activities.

Providing music for the occasion was Mrs. Robert Beach, who sang two numbers, "Love Came Calling" and "Loye's Old Sweet Song," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Evelyn Leathers.

Initiation Set

Following the ceremonies, announcement was made that the Cottage Grove initiation team, headed by Miss Della Gallo, would go to Yoncalla Thursday night, June 10, to initiate new members of the club there.

The club was invited to attend installation of officers at the Reedsport-Gardiner club June 15, when Mrs. Pyburn, as outgoing southwest district conference chairman, will conduct the service. Mrs. Pyburn will also attend the national biennial convention at St. Louis, Missouri, the week of June 26 as an alternate delegate from the Oregon Federation.

Jayceettes Give $100 To Swimming Pool Fund

The Jayceettes held their first meeting of the month June 2 at the Cottage Grove Golf clubhouse. Guests present were Mrs. Cliff Babcock, Mrs. Dean Kelley and Mrs. Eston Wicks.

The main topic of discussion during the evening concerned the project for the Swimming Pool fund, which ended May 29, when the winner of the beautiful cedar chest was announced. Mrs. Homer Ward. As a result of this project, the Jayceettes were able to donate $100 to the Swimming Pool fund. The chest had been on display at Maguire's Furniture Store for several weeks.

The next Jayceette meeting will be June 16 at the library.

All musical people seem to be happy; it is to them the engrossing pursuit.

Stock and Peonies Deck Church June 5 For Double Ring Wedding Ceremony

Baskets of white stock and pink peonies decorated the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Neila Richardson and Duane Obenchain, when over 200 guests were present. Candelabra and lighted tapers were on the altar for the double ring ceremony performed by F. Sherwood Smith, minister of the church. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Lorane Route, Cottage Grove, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Obenchain, Boise, Idaho.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white satin, fashioned with a full skirt and short train and fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline and self covered buttons extending the length of the bodice in back and closed the long fitted sleeves. A seed pearl tiara held the fingertip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white staphanotis centered with an orchid corsage. The bride's gown was made by Mrs. Mark Obenchain, Boise, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Richardson, another sister of the bride, and Miss Harriet Daggett of Mitchell, Neb., whose gowns were identical in style to that of the matron of honor's. The color of Miss Richardson's gown was light orchid and she carried a colonial bouquet of orchid and pink sweet peas, while Miss Mitchell wore a pink gown and carried pink sweet peas and white rosebuds. Flower girl was Andrea Powell, seven-year-old cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorwin Powell of Myrtle Creek. Her gown was floor-length of light orchid taffeta and she wore a corset of sweet peas in her hair. Rose petals were carried in her basket which had been made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ed Powell.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue linen dress with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother chose a light blue nylon dress with white accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Candlelighters were the bride's sister, Miss Naomi Richardson, and cousin, Miss Barbara McReynolds. They wore waltz-length gowns with lace jackets. Miss Richardson in aqua and Miss McReynolds in yellow.

Best man was Mark Obenchain, Boise, brother of the bridegroom.

and ushers were Raphael Aubrey and Ed Klor of Eugene.

Ralph Aubrey sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. F. Sherwood Smith, who played the wedding marches.

Reception In Church Parlor

The reception was held in the church parlor which was decorated with baskets of pink rhododendron. Mrs. Dorwin Powell and Mrs. Dean Powell of Myrtle Creek, aunts of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Kenneth Ottinger and Mrs. George Crosby poured coffee and Mrs. James Hemenway and Mrs. Raymond Thies presided at the punch bowl. Garnet Beach had charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Boise, they will spend a short time at Sun Valley, Idaho. For their wedding trip, the bride wore a navy blue suit, white accessories and the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet. Their future home will be at 5706 Linwood Drive, Boise.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school with the class of '52 and has attended Boise Bible College the past two years. The bridegroom is a student at Boise Bible College and student minister at New Plymouth, near Boise.

The bridegroom's father was unable to attend the wedding due to recent surgery.
