MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. SMITH (Miss Kathleen Doleman), who were married June 3 at the Seventh-day Adventist Church with the bride's cousin, Elder D. D. Doleman, performing the ceremony. The couple will spend the summer in South Carolina.

Cousin of Bride Officiates at Rites At Seventh-Day Adventist Church June 3

Bouquets of pink and white gladiolus, tapers in candelabra arranged in a semi-circle and ivy on the rostrum decorated the Seventh-day Adventist Church the evening of June 3 for the wedding of Miss Kathleen Doleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Doleman, Cottage Grove, and John H. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Greenville, S. C. D. Doleman, Elder of the Eugene Seventh-day Adventist Church and cousin of the bride, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was of egg shell satin fashioned with a long train, long sleeves and trimmed with embroidered neckline and band at waistline. Her cap and fingertip veil edged with lace were of net.

She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Sisters of Pair Attendants
Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Boring of Forest Grove. Her gown was of dark orchid taffeta with overskirt of net. She carried a nosegay of yellow and orchid carnations. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Bivens, Greenville, S. C., sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dee Webb of Roseburg. They were dressed alike in light orchid taffeta and carried nosegays of yellow and orchid carnations.

Ted Yuen of Chicago was best man and Robert Bivens, Greenville, S. C., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ed Komoniski, Fairfield, Calif., were ushers. Jack Doleman, brother of the bride, and Ray Erwin of Pleasant Hill were candlelighters.

The bride's mother wore a light gray nylon dress with pink accessories and Mrs. Smith chose navy blue and white accessories for her son's wedding.

Don Shogren sang "At Dawning" preceding the ceremony and "Together Life's Pathway We Tread" as the consecration solo, accompanied by Donna Leach of Forest Grove. The bridegroom played violin solo "I Love You Truly."

The reception was held in the Methodist Church parlor. Bethene Neufeld and Anita Runyan served the wedding cake, while Ardis VanBlaricom and Jean Kelly presided at the punch bowl.

Couple Leave For South
The bride wore an orchid suit with tan accessories on their trip south to visit places of interest enroute to South Carolina where they will spend the summer. Next fall they will go to Chicago where Mr. Smith will continue school in Illinois Optometry School.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Walla Walla College and she attended Emanuel Missionary of Berrien Springs, Mich., and he Illinois Optometry School.

Coming from out-of-town for the wedding were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Greenville, S. C.; his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bivens, also of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Boring and family, Forest Grove; Ted Yuen, Chicago; Ed Komoniski, Fairfield, Calif.; Mrs. John Cooley, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Doleman, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Erwin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boring and Mrs. Gertrude Boring, all of Pleasant Hill.

Church Groups Install Officers; Couples Wed 50 Years to be Honored

Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met June 10, in the church parlor. Hostesses were Mrs. Harold Sparkes, Mrs. Donald McClanahan and Mrs. Glen Westfall. Mrs. Robert Moody led the devotion and Mrs. Vernon Coop the lesson, the subject being "Students in Today's World."

An impressive candlelight installation service was conducted by Mrs. William Strausberger, for the newly elected officers of World Friendship Girls. Norma Jo Johnson, president and Ruth Way, secretary.

Several Woman's Society officers not present at installation in May were installed by the president, Mrs. Lee Cooley.

Mrs. John Leonard announced that a reception honoring all couples in Cottage Grove married 50 years or more will be held at the church Sunday, June 27.

The July meeting will be a picnic, the place to be announced later.

The greatest things are accomplished by individual men.

Aid Meets with Mrs. E. G. Sherrill June 8

The members of the Ladies Aid of the Walker Union church met at the home of Mrs. E. G. Sherrill, in Delight Valley, Wednesday, June 9 with Mesdames Mabel Jackson, Glen Platner, Clarence Sexton, Lester Porter, Donal Connor and Hamilton answering roll call. Guests for the day included Mrs. Long of Walker, Shirley, Jean Ellen and Carrie Lou Sherrill and Charles Sexton.

Election of officers was held with Mrs. Platner, Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Sexton being re-elected as president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Following the business meeting, a relief quilt was tied out. Financing for the quilts being made is handled through sales of greeting cards.

GRAND PATRIARCH TO VISIT LOCAL IOOF ENCAMPMENT

On June 24, the local IOOF Encampment and Auxiliary will be honored by an official visit from Herbert Munsell, Grand Patriarch of the Encampment of Oregon. It is hoped all members will be present for this meeting.

Scene of the story, "Dracula," is laid in Rumania.

Past Noble Grands Honored at Meet

At the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge on June 9, the past noble grands were honor guests with 36 answering roll call. Letters were read by the secretary from several who were unable to attend and short talks were given by seven past noble grands from out-of-town who were present for the occasion.

The local lodge was instituted in January, 1887. Mae Hart, who was initiated in 1893, is the oldest initiate member living. She is now a member of a Portland lodge. Elizabeth Fullmer, initiated in 1906, and Aunt Cad Wallace in 1908, are the oldest initiates living in Cottage Grove. The oldest Odd Fellow initiate still living is Shelby Teeters, who joined the lodge in 1908. He is living at Hillsboro. Hugh Trunnell, initiated in 1912, is the next oldest, and lives here.

Adelia Hatch, vice grand, and Ida Taylor, noble grand, read clever skits announcing the program, including a song by Esther Trunnell, accompanied by Hilda Vermilyer, and a skit by past noble grands, Eleanor Puderbaugh, Lucy Bennett, Gladys Hatch and Myrtle Kent.
