Syllabus Exams, Auditions Given Piano Pupils 15th

Mrs. Amy Lee Arney was in Cottage Grove Tuesday, June 15, to give Syllabus examinations and auditions to a group of Mrs. H. A. Hagen's piano students, Ivona Randall and Bonnie Weinkauf took the fourth and Carol Tanole the fifth pre-high school examination. Ann Chapman took the examination for the freshman year of high school and Charles Coston the examination for the junior year of high school. Carol Nolt had an audition with Mrs. Arney.

The Syllabus examinations are held with the approval of the state board of education, and consist of five pre-high school examinations outlining a steady growth toward high school entrance. High school credit is given for private music study with teachers accredited by the state board of education. Four high school examinations are based on requirements laid down by the National Association of Schools of Music. These high school examinations, in turn, lead to college entrance, and meet the requirements of the University of Oregon for their B.M. degree.

Mrs. Arney is Associate Professor of Music at Linfield College, where she is head of the piano department.

Mrs. Hagen attended a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Arney which was given at the home of Mrs. Betty Cleveland, Eugene piano teacher.

Reception Honors Newlyweds Sunday At Bride's Home

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Woodard entertained a large group of relatives and friends Sunday afternoon honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keith Ellingson, newlyweds, who were married May 11 at Vancouver, Wash. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ellingson of Mapleton. Both young people attended the University of Oregon where he plans to complete his education.

For the reception, the bride wore a pale pink cotton lace street-length dress with matching shoes and corsage of Cecil Brunner roses, lily-of-the-valley and for-get-me-nots.

The refreshment table was centered with a large wedding cake which was unusually striking in its decorations of real Cecil Brunner roses, lily-of-the-valley and blue for-get-me-nots with bowls of the same flowers on either side of the cake. Copper bowls of pink cream were about the living room, while bright colored geraniums adorned the patio, and brilliantly blooming rhododendrons and geraniums added beauty to the natural setting of trees in the Woodard yard.

Mrs. William H. Earl and Mrs. W. E. Lebow cut the wedding cake and assisting at the punch bowls were Mrs. William E. Cardinal, Mrs. Robert Mills, Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. Carlton Woodard and Mrs. Walter Woodard. Miss Sandra Carlson and Miss Mary
