MR. AND MRS. DON CAMPBELL (Miss Nola Caverhill), who exchanged wedding vows June 12 at First Baptist Church, Ontario, Oregon. Both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell formerly taught in the local high school. They will reside in Redmond where he is on the high school staff.

Nola Caverhill, Don Campbell Wed June 12, First Baptist Church, Ontario

The First Baptist Church of Ontario, Oregon, was decorated with large baskets of lavender and white gladioli and lighted tapers in candelabra, the afternoon of June 12 for the wedding of Miss Nola Caverhill and Don Campbell. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. L. Kuper, minister of the church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Caverhill of Vale and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell of Arlington. Both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell formerly taught in the local high school.

Mrs. Al Quast of Ontario, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Betty Peterson, Portland, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer." Taper lighters were Miss Janet Langrell, Boise, and Mrs. Tom Taylor, John Day.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was of white nylon lace over traditional white tulle with open satin panel in front and a train. The bodice was fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and buttons down the front. Her fingertip veil was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a white ribbon with shower of Stephanotis.

Loyes Henningsgaard Flower Girl
Mrs. Orval Caverhill of Denver, Colo., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Roger Butler, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Howard Turner, Vale, were bridesmaids. All wore identical gowns of ballerina-length, the matron-of-honor's being deep lavender taffeta with tulle overskirt. Her flowers were lavender and yellow gladioli. The bridesmaids wore light lavender dresses, tulle overskirts, and they carried bouquets of yellow gladioli. Miss Loyes Henningsgaard, Cottage Grove, was flower girl.

Mothers of both the bride and bridegroom chose navy blue dresses, blue and white accessories and

Grand Officers Visit Chapter of Eastern Star

At the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star last Thursday night, Mrs. Lelia Wimberly, Roseburg, past grand matron of Oregon, was introduced, escorted to the East and given grand honors. Also introduced and escorted to the East was Miss Grace Robertson, Roseburg, grand representative of British Columbia in Oregon. Both were given a hearty welcome and responded with excellent talks later in the evening.

Initiation was held for Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robertson and Lawrence Porter, after which reports from Grand Chapter were given by Marie Malcolm, conductress; DeLoris Porter, associate conductress, and Jan Nelson, associate matron. Louise Hansen, who has been to Baltimore to the Daughters of Nile Supreme Session, gave a very interesting report on her trip.

At a late hour, refreshments were served by the committee: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ponton, Mmes. Leo Rickard, Earl Stanley, Uriel Winders and Laverne Pitcher.

This is the last meeting of the Star until September 2.

The Constellation club annual picnic was announced for June 24 at the home of Mrs. George Witters, 636 South Second Street. All OES members are invited and asked to bring a covered dish and table service. Coffee and cream will be furnished.

The OES-Masonic annual picnic will be held July 25 at Rugada. All Masons, Star members, families and guests are invited to attend.

Free enterprise is a natural result of the American form of government, which says in so many words that the more men do for themselves, and the less government does for them, the better off we all will be. —Felix Morley.

Civil defense is not an "umbrella" defense. It will not save everyone and everything. Civilians should have personal civil defense plans.

S. Lane Women Attend Lab School

Five women from south Lane county are attending the Methodist Sunday School Teachers Lab School in Salem this week. The school started Sunday and ends tomorrow. It is a lab for teachers in the church's Sunday schools throughout the state.

Those at the school will conduct regular classes and also observe the teaching of youngsters by other instructors. The school is sponsored by the Methodist Church, Oregon Conference Board of Education.

Representatives from here are Mrs. Marion Johnson and daughter Myrtle and Mmes. Francis Ruel, Harrison Wyant and Wayne Monroe.

Memorial Service Held For Departed Members

The local Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges held a very impressive joint memorial service the evening of June 17 for departed members of the past year.

Appropriate songs were sung by Esther Trunnell, accompanied by Ethel Saunders. Others taking part in the service were: Odd Fellows Bert Hath, Charles True, Rodney Safley, Roy Lyon, Bob St. Elmo, Amos Ketcherside, Jack Godard and Noble Grand N. G. (Tony) Tonole. Rebekahs participating were: Lauretta Safley, Goldie True, Melvye St. Elmo, Dorothy Lyon, Florence Houshelli, Gladys Hatch Yvonne Prescott and Noble Grand Ida Taylor. A memorial talk was given by Frank McGuire.

The evening closed with refreshments served by the Odd Fellows.

Hoyers Attend Reunions, Anniversary in Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer returned Saturday from a trip to Battle Creek, Iowa. They arrived in Battle Creek on June 11, and attended the funeral of Mr. Hoyer's cousin, Mrs. Charles Pilcher, that afternoon.

The same evening they attended the annual alumni association banquet of the high school. It was the 40th reunion of Mr. Hoyer's class and the 37th of Mrs. Hoyer's class.

On the 13th, they were present at the 75th anniversary of the organization of the First Presbyterian Church of Battle Creek, of which Mrs. Hoyer's parents and grandparents were charter members, and Mrs. Hoyer's mother was the first president of the Ladies Aid Society. A pageant was given honoring the founders of the church and all of the costumes worn were those actually worn in the early 1880's.

While in Battle Creek they visited in the homes of her brother and sister, James A. Warnock and Mrs. Katharine Breckenridge.

W HOLD SOCIAL MEET VOTE ON NEW MEMBERS

Members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft were entertained socially at the home of Mrs. O. M. Blackmore with Mrs. Lee Duffy as cohostess.

A short business meeting was held to vote on 12 members coming in by transfer. The meeting was followed by an evening of bridge. Delicious refreshments of strawberry pie were served by the hostesses.

The next regular meeting will be held July 20 instead of July 6 due to the holidays at the earlier date.
