Reception Sunday Honors Couples Wed 50-61 Years

Members of the Adelpia Circle of the Methodist Church entertained couples married 50 years and over Sunday afternoon at the church with a program followed by refreshments. This is the second annual event with relatives and friends attending. There were nine couples and Mrs. Charles Teeters, whose husband was unable to attend, with years of married life ranging from 50 years to 61 years. This date was also the 49th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Monroe.

The program was presented in the nave which had been decorated with tall baskets of pink peonies and mock orange blossoms. Mrs. Boyd Allen, organist, played several selections and accompanied Bill Veatch, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," and Mrs. Warren Ness as she sang "O Promise Me" and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream."

The invocation was given by the Rev. Sydney Gaither, who also introduced the honor guests and gave a reading "When the Minister Calls."

Mrs. Charles Teeters had been married the longest, 61 years, and was presented a bouquet, while Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mackey received a potted plant for the couple present that had been married the longest, 58 years. The most recently married couple was Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Trembley, who were married 50 years ago last January. They also were presented a plant.

Cookies and punch were served in Friendship hall where a lace tablecloth adorned the refreshment table. A golden wedding clock made of flowers centered the table with pink tapers in crystal candlesticks on either side. Mrs. Jim Hendricks presided at the punch bowl.

Couples honored and their wedding date and place of marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. Mollie Miller, Cottage Grove, November 25, 1903; Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton, Iowa, February 8, 1899; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mackey, Eugene, December 25, 1896; Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bales, Dorena, April 25, 1900; Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Land, Illinois, November 18, 1903; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Horn, Walker, January 19, 1902; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Land, Illinois, March 19, 1899; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fisher, Eugene, June 10, 1900 and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Trembley, North Dakota, January 9, 1904. Also Mrs. Charles Teeters, who was married at Dorena, January 25, 1893.

Young Matron Honored With Pink, Blue Shower

Mrs. Carl Rich was the inspiration for a baby shower June 18 when Mrs. Cecil Wood, Mrs. H. D. Lusk and Mrs. Lavern Hess entertained for her at the Hess home.

Appropriate games furnished the evening's entertainment, and the honor guest was showered with many dainty gifts.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Jim Dowis, Don Wickendoll, Bruce Cochran, Vernoo Coop, Pete Ritter, Wally Morelock, Dick Cherry, Bob Githens, Marvin Schaffer, Vern Kanel, Gordon Eiving, Neal Hammond, Carl Rich and the hostesses.

Several gifts were sent by those unable to attend.

Loretta White, Ray Anthony Wed

An early June bride was Miss Loretta White, who was married at a nuptial Mass, to Raymond Anthony Galvin in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Eugene. The ceremony was read by the Rev. William McLeod. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Ida May White of Creswell and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Galvin, Eugene.

White candles burned on the altar, and pink and yellow snapdragons with carnations and stephanotis were floral decorations in the church.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, Owen Wilson of Medford. Her gown was of white imported Chantilly lace, which formed the bodice and overskirt with a skirt and train of satin. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a white orchid on a white prayerbook.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bernie Shaffner of Portland, in yellow dotted nylon, and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Bricher, Cottage Grove, and Miss Mary Ann Laherty, Eugene, both in pink dotted nylon. Each attendant carried pink and yellow carnations.

Best man was Justin Brabham, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jerome Poisan and Bernie Galvin.

A garden reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Galvin. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. James Hall, Eugene, who cut the cake; Mrs. Gerald Turpin, Creswell, served punch. In charge of gifts were Mrs. Orville White, Cottage Grove and Mrs. Wayne VanBurger of Coquille.

After a wedding trip to California, the couple will live in Eugene. The bride was queen of last year's local rodeo.

DAKOTANS WILL PICNIC
The annual picnic of the states of Dakota will be held at Jantzen Beach park, Portland, July 11. All former residents are urged to come and meet former Dakota friends. A potluck luncheon will be served and a good program is planned for entertainment.

MR. AND MRS. MARTIES EDWARD HAMILTON (Miss Margaret Louise Hemenway), who were married Sunday, June 27, before a rose trimmed lattice on the patio at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. A. Hemenway and the late W. A. Hemenway.

Miss Margaret Hemenway is June Bride On Patio Overlooking Family Garden

Miss Margaret Louise Hemenway became the bride of Marties Edward Hamilton, Sunday, June 27, on the patio overlooking the garden of the bride's family country home at Cottage Grove. Miss Hemenway is the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Hemenway and the late W. A. Hemenway, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, Victoria, B. C., recent visitors here. The Rev. Claude O'Brien of Springfield read the service at three o'clock in the afternoon before a rose trimmed lattice and tall baskets of summer flowers.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of dark blue nylon sheer. Flowers for her hair and corsage were deep pink roses and stephanotis. Her necklace and earrings were South American handcut star crystals, gifts of the bridegroom. Tucked under her bracelet was the point lace handkerchief her mother had carried at her wedding 50 years ago.

Miss Marjorie Hemenway, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was light blue embroidered nylon and her flowers were pink rosebuds. James Hemenway, brother of the bride, was best man for Mr. Hamilton.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk crepe dress with corsage of mixed flowers.

Prof. Maud Woodyard played the wedding march.

Informal Reception

An informal reception followed the ceremony which was also at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hemenway. Mrs. William F. Norris, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake, while Mrs. Read Hemenway was in charge of the table, and Mrs. James Hemenway and Mrs. Guy Holiday poured. Miss Maluta Read, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For a short wedding trip, the bride chose an aqua dress and short pink wool coat with matching hat and her wedding corsage.

Mrs. Hamilton is well known and highly regarded as superin-

Portland Girl Weds Guy Hancock

On June 13 immediately following the morning service at the St. John's Christian Church, Portland, Miss Janet Lee Martin became the bride of Guy H. Hancock. The Rev. Jess W. Johnson performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur D. Martin, Portland, and mother of the bridegroom is Mrs. Arthur Bales, Dorena.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace over satin with fitted bodice and a full floor-length skirt of nylon tulle over satin with lace inserts. Her illusion veil was held by a matching cap of lace over satin. She carried a handkerchief of linen with a border of fine knitting, also a white Bible and white orchid with shower of white baby rosebuds.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Dale Schmid, sister of the bride, wore pink nylon tulle over pink satin with hed hand of tulle. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and sweet peas. The groom was attended by his brother, Elwood Hancock.

Before the ceremony, Lyle Messinger sang "Because."

After the reception at the bride's home, they left for a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C. The bride wore a blue linen suit with white accessories and white stole. They are living in Bremerton, Wash., where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Navy.
