

MR. AND MRS. V. THOMAS CHAMBERS (Grace Ann Jackson) will spend the summer at the Chambers ranch near Lorane. In the fall, they will resume studies at Oregon State College.

T. Chambers Weds Grace Ann Jackson In Candlelight Ceremony June 20

A recent June bride was Miss Grace Ann Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson of Eugene, who was married at United Lutheran Church to V. Thomas Chambers. He is the son of Mrs. Victor Chambers of Cottage Grove and the late Mr. Chambers. His grandfather, the late J. H. Chambers of Cottage Grove, was long a prominent figure in the lumber industry of the state and particularly Lane County.

The Rev. Charles Epple officiated at the 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony Sunday, June 20. Mrs. O. P. Nordling was the organist and accompanied Jerry Reynolds who sang "Thine Alone." The Lord's Prayer and "I Love Thee," Delphiniums, blue daisies, Mrs. Philip Glass, the bride's sister, was matron of honor.

Ems-Baalen Rites Performed in Texas

A single ring ceremony performed by Rev. R. B. Sweet united Miss Donna Gale Ems and Chase Van Baalen in marriage June 20 in the study of the University Avenue Church of Christ, Austin, Texas. The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Edna B. Ems, 404 Second Street, Cottage Grove, is a graduate of the local high school and also the University of Texas school of pharmacy. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mervin A. Diach of Birmingham, Alabama. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama, has a degree from the University of Detroit, and is a graduate student at the University of Texas in zoology.

For the wedding the bride wore an afternoon dress of white lace and a corsage of red roses. She carried a white Bible. After dinner at the Alamo Hotel, the couple left for the West Coast where they spent a few days. They are now at home at 3900 Bailey Lane, Austin, Texas.

Women's Club Federation Features Political Panel

Lane County Federation of Women's clubs will hear a full program Friday beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the Eugene City club, 450 East 14th Avenue. Clubs are urged to bring friends and prospective members and are expected to give attendance estimates to Mrs. Harry Lichty 4-7306 early Thursday. Members of the City club will serve lunch at noon. Special recognition will be made of Hilldale club of Creswell members of which will be present for the first time. Mrs. A. E. Elliott, president, will be welcomed to the board of Federation by Mrs. Lloyd Fuller, president of the Federation.

Robert Frazier, political editor of the Register Guard, will moderate a panel of politics with the two chairmen and two vice chairmen of both parties outlining their platforms, and pointing out the potential possibilities of the November ballot.

Each club in the Federation is asked to take a written report of their donations to the Children's Farm Home, the names and addresses of their current officers and be prepared to give a brief history of their club.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Hanson of Astoria and Miss Billie Hargraves of Portland, sorority sisters of the bride. The three wore identical floor-length dresses of white cotton lace and net with wide pleated cummerbunds of light blue satin. They carried bouquets of blue daisies and wore matching headpieces of the same flowers.

Richard Chambers, the groom's brother, was best man, and ushers were Charles Jackson, Dale Peterson, Richard Isabelle, and Dennis Mitchell. Arthur Simpson was the candlelighter.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony. Mrs. Arthur Simpson cut the cake, assisted by Miss Janet Lehen and Miss Patricia Moran. Mrs. J. C. Jackson, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. Richard Chambers served punch. Miss Ann Blackwell had the guest book.

For a trip to the Oregon coast, California and Nevada, the bride wore a beige coat dress of shantung trimmed with white faille and wore white hat and gloves with black patent shoes and purse.

The couple plans to spend the summer months on the Chambers' ranch near Lorane and will resume studies at Oregon State College in the fall. Mrs. Chambers is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Mr. Chambers belongs to Lambda Chi Alpha.
