School Children's Birth Certificates Urged Gotten Soon

Parents of children needing birth certificates for admission to school for the first time this September were asked Wednesday by the state board of health to obtain them before the fall rush starts.

Deane L. Huxtable, state registrar, said that the number of requests for birth certificates for admission purposes within the next two months is expected to be among the heaviest in Oregon's history, and he warned that "last minute" applications may be delayed.

Huxtable emphasized that not all schools require birth certificates for admission. In the event a certificate is needed, parents should apply to the vital statistics section, state board of health, 1400 S. W. 5th Avenue, Portland 1, giving the name of the child, place and date of birth and full names of parents. A charge of $1.00 is made for each copy of a birth certificate, which should be enclosed with the request.

Cordon Proposes Markers Honoring Missing in Action

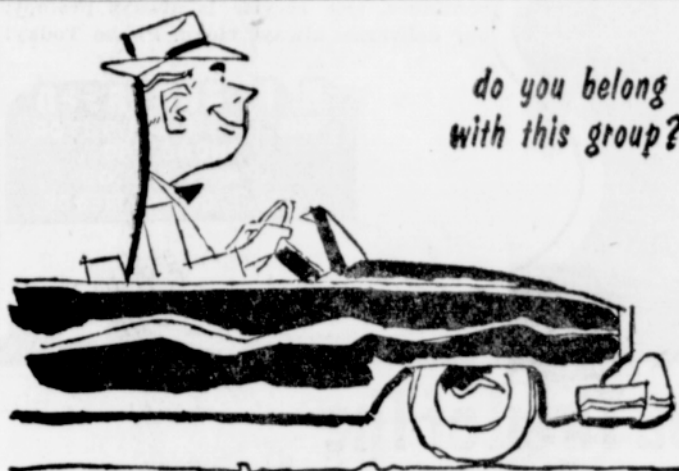

WASHINGTON — Senator Guy Cordon has brought to the Senate floor proposed legislation which would provide for the erection in national cemeteries of appropriate markers to honor the memory of members of the armed services missing in action.

The bill, which has the backing of the American Legion, would give to men missing in action recognition equal to that given men who died in action and whose bodies were recovered.

Under the terms of the bill, appropriate areas of all national cemeteries would be set aside for the erection of markers to men missing in action.

The measure came to the floor with a favorable recommendation from the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, of which the senior Oregon senator is chairman.

ABOVE MAP shows the route of the old and new highway 99 from Eugene to Grants Pass. The sections from Eugene to Roseburg will be completed by 1955, and other sections will be completed in following years. Notations on map show the scheduled dates when various sections should be completed. Every city along the new highway will be bypassed to relieve traffic jams.

NEWS & NOTES

Park Picnic Aug. 5 By London WCTU

By Mrs. Gale Roby
Phone 792R1

LONDON — Six adults and eight children represented the London WCTU at a picnic in the Cottage Grove park, August 5, together with the Cottage Grove WCTU unit. Devotionals were given by Mrs. Ollie Powell of London and Mrs. Clara Foster of the London unit gave a resume of work activity for the past year on the afternoon programs that included singing by the group and a speaker from the ministerial organization, H. D. Barkman, of the Cottage Grove Church of God. The Cottage Grove and London units are cooperating for a display booth at the South Lane Fair. Sponsors for the booth will be accepted, to finance the project started by a collection made at the picnic.

Going together like Christmas and Santa Claus was sunshine, swimming and watermelon last week for Farris Lusk, when she gave a swimming party for six of her girl friends in the river near her home. Mrs. Gene Lusk was chaperone and helped serve the watermelon.

George Hinkle and Reub Heinrich spent two nights last week fighting fire on the Siuslaw.

Mrs. O. E. Craig is expecting a visit from her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hayes, Judith Ann and David of Paul Meadows, Florida, who are to start this week to drive to Oregon. Mrs. Craig is hoping they may make their home here.

The Jack Wendlings are having a whirl of visiting here on furlough from Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills of Blackbutte entertained at dinner August 4, for Mr. and Mrs. Wendling and Marquerite. Other guests included Mrs. Rose Taylor and Bruce, Jack Mills and Larry Brissett. Mr. Wendling once worked at the Blackbutte mines.

Collection Service Office Moves to New Location

The Grove Collection Service now located at 38 North Sixth Street will be in new quarters by August 9, according to Mrs. Mildred Kangas, manager.

The new location will be in the Stewart building, 731 Main street, over Pioneer Hardware.

Larger quarters are needed than the present location provides and Mrs. Kangas hopes this will be a handier arrangement in affecting collections in that it will be closer cooperation between collection service and legal angles involved.
