Mrs. Beryl Drury Makes Her Official Visit to Rebekahs

CRESWELL—Mrs. Beryl Drury of Coburg, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, made her official visit to Honor Rebekah Lodge December 22. She was accompanied by the noble grand of Diamond Rebekah Lodge of Coburg, Mrs. Florence Snyder. Mrs. L. C. Satter, local district deputy, was presented with the president and each received a gift, as did other visitors for the evening, including Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. Elmo of the Cottage Grove Lodge.

Meetings of the season were read from out-of-town members, Chester Hewitt of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Skaggs of Eugene; Mrs. Anna Mae Masters of Bend, and Mrs. Millicent Ellis of Springfield.

An invitation was read to visit the Junction City Lodge December 23, also to join the Giffry Lodge IOOF in an installation of officers with those of the Cottage Grove Rebekah and IOOF Lodges at Cottage Grove January 15. Thanks were also received for the help of the Rebekahs at the IOOF homecoming supper.

The committee in charge of the recent food and gift sale reported the receipts as $54.00.

Following a candlelight obligation ceremony, Mrs. Drury spoke briefly, stressing her slogans and emblems for the year and the contributions for the IOOF Home in Portland. A miniature Christmas tree bore wrapped silver to buy pieces for her sterling silver chest. Carols were sung by all. A lighted tree added much to the occasion. Mrs. J. V. Birdsong presided at the meeting.

Presbyterian Choir Presents Christmas Cantata Dec. 26th

CRESWELL—With a background scene of the Bethlehem hills, the senior choir of the Presbyterian Church presented the cantata, "Even Unto Bethlehem" in a candlelight service Sunday evening. The lighted tree and candles burning in each window added much to the impressiveness of the occasion. Mrs. G. E. Emerson was the director, with Mrs. A. W. Bartel pianist and Miss Mary Ann Zinkler playing a violin obligato.

Mrs. Eva Turpin Dies in Sleep On December 28

CRESWELL—Mrs. Eva Turpin of Portland who had spent the Christmas holidays with her sister, Mrs. Louise Law on north Pacific Highway, passed away in her sleep Sunday morning, December 28, 1954, at the age of 71 years. She was the daughter of Oregon pioneers, William and Anna Spaulding, and was born on the donation claim at Lancaster. There were five sons and two daughters in the family with Mrs. Law, now the only surviving relative.

The body was taken to the Mills Chapel at Cottage Grove and will be sent to Portland for interment.

Christmas Party For Home Ec Club

CRESWELL—The Christmas party of the Home Economics club was held December 21 at the Creswell Grange hall. The tables for the no-hostess dinner at noon were gay with Yuletide decorations. A lighted tree greeted the members in the clubhouse where Mrs. V. E. Groubeck presided at the business meeting. Mrs. M. O. Fields was a guest.

Mrs. F. E. Vick was installed as chairman of the club for 1955 by Mrs. Karl Duyck, past chairman. Mrs. Groubeck, retiring chairman, thanked all for their cooperation during the past year. She was presented with a gift by the club.

Plans were made to fill cheer boxes for shut-in members and for the treats at the December 23 Grange meeting. According to the record, the members attending each meeting during the past year were: Mrs. Mmes. Duyck, E. F. Malone, Groubeck and C. I. Kent. Mrs. Murrel Olsen, program chairman, presented the following numbers: Vocal solo, Mrs. E. D. Groubeck; vocal duet, Mrs. Groubeck and Mrs. Mae Main; the Christmas Story as read by Mrs. Fields; vocal duet, Mrs. Henry Berge and Mrs. Main; The Substitute Reindeer, Mrs. Malone; vocal solo, Mrs. Kent; poem, Mrs. Joe Guth; Christmas in Other Lands, Mrs. Blanche Gwyther; carols sung by all.

Hostesses and committees for 1955 will be announced soon.

High School Band Plays Christmas Carols

CRESWELL—Folks of the downtown area were given a real treat December 23, when the band from the high school under the direction of Mrs. Alberta Hougardy played carols and other numbers on the city plaza. Rounds of applause cheered them on and several of the merchants responded with treats.

This group with a large chorus, has been most generous with its music at the various concerts given at the school and their interpretations were indicative of much work on the part of both students and instructor. The special interest given by Mrs. Hougardy was greatly appreciated by all patrons of the district and she will be missed very much in her leaving to make her home in California.

Youth Group Plans Watch Night Services

CRESWELL—Mrs. V. C. Steinhour's Intermediate Youth group of the Christian Church have been invited to a watch night party at the Presbyterian Church Friday evening. The Young People's group and their advisor, Jim Smith, will be guests of the Methodist Youth Fellowship also Friday evening. The Fidelis class will hold a watch night party New Years eve at the Claude Kirkendall home.
