

SOCIETY

Phone 555 or 556

Coast Fork Encampment, Auxiliary Install Officers Jointly With Eugene

Coast Fork Encampment and Auxiliary of Cottage Grove held joint installation of new officers with Winawaha Encampment and Auxiliary of Eugene Saturday night at the IOOF hall, Cottage Grove.

Installing officers were: Jack Godard, deputy grand patriarch; Lauretta Safley, special deputy to the grand patriarch; Charles Minturn and Mina Fish of Winawaha lodges, were deputy grand junior wardens. The other grand officers were also from Winawaha lodges. Officers installed for the local Encampment were: Roy Lyon, chief patriarch; Jack Terrell, senior warden; Fred Erwin, high priest; A. T. Tonole, inside sentinel; Bert Hatch, first watch; Rodney Safley, second watch; Harold Martin, first G. T.; Manuel Thrush, second G. T.; Robert St. Elmo, scribe, and Lavern Armitage, third watch.

Auxiliary officers installed: Melvie St. Elmo, chief matriarch; Carolyn Sessions, senior warden; Emma Erwin, high priestess; Gladys Hatch, junior warden; Eva Aubrey, inside sentinel; Myrtle Terrell, second watch; Maxine Sannar, guide; Luella Thrush, scribe; Beulah Martin, treasurer, and Goldie True, third watch.

Refreshments were served in the dining room at the close of the installation by Coast Fork lodges.

The first meeting with the new officers presiding will be January 13 at 8 p.m.

Court Little Flower Plans Party, Help Polio Drive

Members of Court Little Flower No. 3464, Catholic Daughters of America, held their monthly meeting Monday night in the parochial school building.

Plans were made for a card party to be held on January 22, with Mrs. Russell Smith as chairman.

It was reported that more women were needed to help with the March of Dimes booth this month, and several women volunteered to spend an afternoon at the booth.

Mrs. Arnold Gates gave a report on a retreat that several of the women made in August at the retreat house of the Sisters of St. Francis in Portland. Mrs. John Dunn described the day of recollection held Sunday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school for the women of the parish. Approximately 50 women attended.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Russell Smith, Mrs. Al Rosenthal and Mrs. Bob Boyce.

Yvonna Chaffee Is January Bride

Miss Yvonna Marie Chaffee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chaffee, Cottage Grove, became the bride of Raymond Charles Arthur, son of A. D. Arthur, Disston, at a double-ring ceremony Saturday, January 8, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was read by Judge William G. East of Eugene at two o'clock in the afternoon before the fireplace. The mantel floral decoration was a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums, stock and heather and tapers.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore an ankle-length dress of white lace over white satin. It was fashioned with Peter Pan collar and scalloped hemline. Her fingertip veil of nylon net fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. Her cascade bouquet was of white carnations and red roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Gay and bridesmaid was Miss Myrtle Johnson, both in identical gowns of delicate blue taffeta with matching headresses. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations with pale blue streamers.

Jack Gay was best man and Lyle Chaffee, brother of the bride, was usher and lighted the tapers.

The bride's mother wore a blue tailored dress with red carnation corsage.

Wedding music was played on the Hammond organ by Mrs. Norman Abeene, "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Leonard Nossman, accompanied by.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. B. E. Augustine, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Guy Layton, Salem, aunt of the groom, cutting the square three-tiered cake. Mrs. Donald Spored, Springfield, poured coffee, while Mrs. Robert Lawson, Eugene, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. G. J. Hartman assisted in serving. Miss LaVelle Schilling passed the guest book and Mrs. James Goethy, Springfield, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur went to the coast for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a gray suit with red rosebud corsage and red accessories. They are now at home at Disston.

Both are graduates of the local high school, she with the class of '54 and he with the class of '52. She has been attending Eugene Business College since graduating and is employed as a logger.

Worthy Matron, Patron Honored by Officers 6th

Worthy matron and worthy patron of the Order of Eastern Star, Louise Hansen and Louis Caldwell, were honored with an addendum by their officers, courtesy girls and choir last Thursday night at the regular meeting of the Star. Each was presented with a gift by their officers.

Both Mrs. Hansen and Caldwell gave talks and thanked their officers for the pleasant year. Several other members also gave short talks after which chapter closed and refreshments were served by Messrs. and Meses. Sam Veitch, Littleton, Larson and Vinal Randall Sr., also Mrs. Margaret Dugan.

Public installation of new officers has been announced for Saturday night, January 15, in the Masonic temple. The next regular meeting with the new officers presiding will be January 20.

The hall was beautifully decorated with greenery and red berries.

Nathalie Service Guild Holds Meet, Bible Study

Mrs. Daniel Olsen and Mrs. Bert Land were hostesses to members of the Nathalie Wesleyan Service Guild at the Methodist Church Thursday night. They served a dessert course preceding the business meeting and program.

Mrs. Mark Morgan, president, was in charge of the business session. It was announced that the Guild is having an umbrella stand made to be used in the narthex. Members decided to take a shutin member of the church to remember on special occasions.

Miss Melissa Clark presented the worship service and Mrs. Olsen the program which dealt on the influence on children in the home by parents from the study book "Except the Lord Keep the City." She was assisted by Mrs. Lulu Perkins, Mrs. Albert Adkins and Miss Marjorie Arnold. Mrs. Tom Gallo led the discussion on "The Bible and the First World State," in the series "Know Your Bible," by Roy L. Smith.

Guests were Mrs. Victor Leigh and Miss Harriett Frances Oie. Hostesses for the February meeting will be Mrs. Perkins and Miss Arnold, while Mrs. Leigh will present the worship service.

Lutheran Ladies Aid Appoints Committees 6th

The Lutheran Ladies Aid met January 6 with 15 members and two visitors present.

New committee members were appointed for the year as follows: Christian service, Mrs. Hegard; Christian knowledge, Mrs. Robert Kunz; altar and chancel, Mrs. August Strohmeyer and Mrs. Ray Darden; sick, Mrs. Harold Brandness and Mrs. Carl Drew; kitchen, Mrs. Arnold Benson and Mrs. Gary Nord, and reporter, Mrs. Garland Hartman.

The annual potluck supper will be held at the church at 4:30 on Sunday, January 16, instead of the 14th as previously planned. Members and friends are invited.

The next meeting will be February 3 with Mrs. Henry Arp and Mrs. Florence Warner as hostesses.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Couple Jan. 4

Mrs. Lois Blackwill, Cottage Grove, and Roy Riggs, Goshen, exchanged wedding vows Tuesday evening, January 4, in the parlor of the Methodist Church. The Rev. Sydney Gaither performed the double-ring ceremony at seven o'clock in the presence of the immediate families of the couple. Baskets of holly and poinsettia blooms and potted plants of poinsettias decorated the parlor.

LoAnn and Kay Blackwill, daughters of the bride, lighted the tapers. Each had a corsage of pink carnations like their mother's, and wore sheer white blouses and red skirts. Jerry Harrison sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Monroe, who also played the wedding music.

The bride wore a blue wool dress and corsage of pink carnations. Her attendant, Mrs. Evaline Carver, wore a beige wool dress and pink carnation corsage. Richard Curran acted as best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mosby Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Riggs are residing at 1131 East Madison. He is employed at Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., while she is an employee of Safeway Store.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND CHARLES ARTHUR (Miss Yvonna Marie Chaffee) married at a double ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chaffee, January 8. They will make their home at Disston.

Lane County OEA (Continued from Page One)

School, Mrs. Cora Dalley, teacher at Adams School and member of the OEA Representative Council from Lane County; Edwin Ditto, Superintendent of the Creswell High School; Larry Chapman, Cottage Grove High School board member; and Reverend D. Hugh Peniston, minister of the Cottage Grove Presbyterian Church.

Lois Rice, Vice President and Publicity Chairman of SLCCTA, announced that the next meeting will be at Latham School, March 9, when election of officers for next year will take place.

Entertainment was provided by the CGHS Music Department with Curtis Harris playing a baritone solo and Elaine Donner singing several numbers. Both were accompanied at the piano by Ann Chapman, Member of the CGHS Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America aided in serving the dinner.

Bohemia Council (Continued from Page One)

The following officers will serve the council for 1955: Taylor Young, district chairman; Forrest Woods, district vice chairman; Bruce Lansbery, advance chairman; Charles Shirley, Bill Helliwell, committee members.

Fred Kelly, camping chairman; committee members: Bill Workman, R. S. Fitzgerald, Earl Stanley and Charles Roberts.

Frank Diverse, health and safety chairman; committee members: Dr. J. H. Abbott, William Clauson.

Elmer Mapes, leadership training chairman; committee members: T. W. Ellis and Norman Compton.

Raymond Andersen, organization chairman; Bill Githens, Ben Gawley, Dwight Near, committee members.

Carlton Woodard, activities chairman; Dick Chambers, Everett Howell, Bill Helliwell and Ed Hoover, committee members.

Ivan Hoyer, public relations chairman; Albert Martin, Ramon Miller, committee members.

There is a time of speaking and a time of being still. —William Caxton

Ella Beers will be at the A & B Beauty Shop on Wednesday and Friday starting Jan. 5. A & B Beauty 215 No. 9th

Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? —Old Testament

Shell Furnace Oil Users Get FOA-5X Protection Without Extra Charge

Shell Furnace Oil is the only heating oil with the ingredient FOA-5X.

FOA-5X protects your burner by keeping the filter screen clean all winter long—prevents shutdowns due to the formation of sludge.

12 years of Shell research have gone into the development of FOA-5X. 3 additional years were spent testing it in thousands of homes. In every case the result was the same: not a single case of burner failure due to a clogged filter screen was reported.

For carefree heat all season, switch to Shell Furnace Oil with FOA-5X. It eliminates a major cause of burner service calls, costs no more than ordinary heating oils. Call today. We'll make arrangements.

W. B. ROUSSEAU SHELL OIL DISTRIBUTOR PHONE 250

FOE Auxiliary Receives Members

By Mrs. Walter N. Dovens Nona J. Kelly, Madam president, presided over the regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the F.O.E. No. 2091, on January 3.

Applications were read and elected to membership from Bernice Nevens, Alice Foster, Ora Sherwood and Edna England. Initiation will be held for them at the next regular meeting on January 17.

Members interested in chartering a bus for the annual visit to Eugene Auxiliary on Tuesday, January 25, please bring your dollar for your reservation at the January 17 meeting.

Mildred Powell asked members to turn out on Wednesday afternoon for fancy drill practice.

H.C.G. club will hold its next meeting at the home of Arlene Brown, on January 14. This will be a white elephant auction.

Royal Neighbors Install New Officers for 1955

Mabel Miles, district deputy, and Gladys Pfouts were introduced and given grand honors Tuesday night at the installation of new officers of the Royal Neighbors.

Vice Oracle Mary Lou Johnson presided over the meeting. Mabel Miles was installing officer and Mae Tennis, ceremonial marshal. The installing officer was presented a gift from the camp.

The following officers were installed for 1955: Elsie DeYoung, oracle; June Bird, past oracle; Cora Berger, receiver; Nellie Blackmore, recorder; Emma Trembley, chancellor; Myrtle Neet, marshal; Fern Anderson, assistant marshal; Ethel Thomas, inside sentinel; Bertha McQueen, outside sentinel; Annie Gates, drill captain; Mildred Stanley, mace; Julia Bartels, unselfishness; Mae Tennis, endurance; Esther Gates, courage; Gladys Pfouts, faith, and Julia Bartels, manager for three years.

The evening closed with refreshments served by Cora Berger and Nellie Blackmore.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coiner announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjory Lois, to Robert Wolf of Santa Ana, Calif.

Miss Coiner graduated from the local high school with the class of '47 and also from the Lewis & Clark college. She is now employed at the Orange county hospital, Orange, Calif. Wolf served in the Air Corps and is also employed at the Orange county hospital.

No wedding date has been set.

"THE CHAGRES" REVIEWED BY TUESDAY EVENING CLUB

Mrs. S. L. Mackin reported on the book "The Chagres" by John Easter Minter at the Tuesday Evening club held at the library, a very interesting book on the main river of the Panama Canal. Mrs. Lee Young reviewed "The Song of Ruth," by Frank G. Slaughter. The club voted to contribute $10 to the March of Dimes.

Amoebae at the start Were not complex They tore themselves apart And started Sex. —Arthur Guiterman

Newlyweds Honored At Party by Coworkers

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hilliker (Mrs. Edna Piller) were honored Friday night at a party by the employees of Pacific Power and Light Co., where both are employed, at the Delight Valley home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sedergren. Miss Tyke Brady was hostess to the group of approximately 30 guests.

During the evening colored slides of previous get-togethers of the same group were shown by Bill Pruitt, and a gift was presented to the honored couple. The refreshment table was striking with a pink nylon tablecloth and a centerpiece of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Hilliker cut the initial piece of the two-tiered wedding cake, the remainder being cut and served by Miss Brady. Mrs. Jack Henderer was at the coffee urn and Sheila Sedergren poured punch. Several lighted tapers were about the rooms and on the refreshment table.

The couple was married December 31 at Sparks, Nev., at the Methodist Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Peters.

CHRISTMAS CARDS WANTED FOR FAIRVIEW HOME

The Women of the Moose held initiation on January 6 for Patty Cochran. The program presented was under the Child Care chairman, Evelyn Harper. Members were asked to bring their Christmas cards to send to the Fairview Home at Salem.

It was announced that at the Christmas program, food and money were received to fill baskets for local needy families, with Ethel Thomas, social service, in charge.

Eight members went to Roseburg recently when Irene Routledge, deputy grand recruit, was honored. They were Hilda Walther, Louise Anderson, June Hoyer, Marie Lemert, Ida Taylor, Alma Armstrong, Gladys Miller and Grace Jenkins.

There are only about four hundred people in New York Society. —Ward McAllister

Informal Reception For Dr. M. O. Wilson At Richards Home Jan. 5

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Richards were hosts at an informal reception on January 5, at their home on South Sixth Street, honoring Dr. Meredith O. Wilson, President of the University of Oregon. Dr. Wilson received a number of callers from 6 to 6:45 p.m. on that day, preceding the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet, at which he was chief speaker.

Birth Announcements —The Sentinel

So They Say

WE BUTTED IN

because he couldn't resist singing the praises of ED'S where TV and Radio repair work is reasonable as well as reliable.

Get relief for UPSET BURNING PROTESTING stomach!

(when acid due to over-eating and other minor diet errors)

with BISMA-REX

Neutralizes excess acidity... soothes irritated stomach membranes.

89c

Powder 4 1/2 oz.

(Phil) Varley's Rexall Drugs (Formerly Kem's) 6th & Main Phone 82 YOUR Rexall DRUG STORE

Let 182 mean flowers to you

WORKMANS Sunnyside Greenhouses

1704 West Main Cottage Grove, Oregon

EVERY SPARTON SET IS "Custom-Built"

Because Sparton Builds For Quality—Not Quantity—No Mass Produced Set Can Match These Custom-Built Sparton Features:

1. Unlike most TV manufacturers, Sparton makes 70% of its own parts instead of buying them.
2. Sparton owns its own furniture factory—custom-builds its cabinets like your own fine furniture is built.
3. Every Sparton connection is hand-soldered—obviously impossible in mass produced sets.
4. All Sparton TV sets are completely assembled in Sparton plants.
5. Every Sparton set is individually inspected as it comes off the line. There is no spot checking as in mass production factories.

Sparton sells direct to the dealer. This eliminates the middleman markup and gives you a finer set at no extra cost.

SPARTON ENGINEERING FIRSTS

We are justifiably proud of our engineering know-how. Here is but a partial list of important Sparton firsts:

FIRST—All electric radio set

FIRST—Radio tuning eye

FIRST—Push button tuning

FIRST—Fully automatic brightness control for television

FIRST—With locked-in TV Color Control

We sell the best and service the rest.

Wicks Electric

48 No. 9th Phone 337

Sparton TV—from the oldest name in radio—the finest name in television!

Wedding Announcements The Sentinel

SPECIALS

THEME HOSIERY

First Quality

51 Ga.—15 Den. 45 Ga.—40 Den.
51 Ga.—15 Den. 45 Ga.—40 Den.

Broken Sizes 89c

White cotton and rayon blouses $1.49
Raincoats — 5 only $13.00

Velma's SMART SHOP

Next to the Old Bank Bldg. Ph. 14
We close at 7 p.m. on Fridays

Sale ON

10pc. Starter Sets

Three Patterns to choose from

IVY — APPLE — DESERT ROSE

Regular $16.95 — NOW $14.95

GROVE HARDWARE

MARSHALL WELLS STORE

506 Main Phone