

Lorane Rebekahs Hold Installation Of Officers Jan. 3

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
Phone 14031

LORANE — Lorane Rebekah Lodge held installation of officers at the last regular meeting, January 3. Installing officers were: District Deputy President Mrs. Jack Terrell and staff, Mrs. Glen Myers will serve as Noble grand the next year. Other officers installed were: Vice grand, Mrs. Claude Payne; secretary, Mrs. Everett Malcom; treasurer, Mrs. Myrtle Terrell; financial secretary, Mrs. W. H. Mitchell.

Appointive officers installed were: Warden, Mrs. J. N. Johnson; conductor, Mrs. Louie Torrellas; inside guardian, Mrs. Chester Purdy; outside guardian, Mrs. Rodney Dillon; RSWG, Mrs. Vern Armitage; LSVG, Mrs. F. M. Nouse; RSVG, Mrs. Lloyd Counts; LSVG, Mrs. Joe Swenny; chaplain, Mrs. Bridgie Masey; color bearer, Mrs. Jack Purdy, and musician, Mrs. Harry Jahnke.

Mrs. Myers appointed several committee chairmen for the year. The financial committee will consist of Mrs. F. G. Sessions, Mrs. Floyd Holland and Mrs. Lloyd Holland. Mrs. Lloyd Counts is sub-committee chairman and Mrs. Chester Purdy shower chairman. Mrs. Russell Alford will be in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Vern Armitage and Mrs. Bridgie Masey, entertainment. On the decorating committee are Mrs. W. H. Mitchell, Mrs. Everett Malcom, Mrs. Dennis Mitchell and Mrs. Jack Terrell.

Mrs. Terrell is also good of the order chairman; Mrs. R. G. Conner in charge of publicity, and Mrs. Claude Payne is drill captain.

Cookie Party Planned

Instead of having the regular potluck supper at the next meeting, a cookie party is planned. Each member is to bring a dozen of her favorite cookies with the recipe and the one judged best will be sent to the Fisher Flour Company to be entered in a contest. Each entrant should be accompanied by the coupon on the top of the flour sack, for which the lodge will receive extra credit.

Joy In The Kitchen 4-H cooking club had fun making hamburgers and hot chocolate at their lesson Friday afternoon with leaders Mrs. Dora Allen and Mrs. George Insley in charge. Judith Taylor's grandmother, Mrs. William Buffington, was a guest.

In the Just So, Sew 4-H clothing club, the Just So girls worked on finishing their needlecases and some cut out their pin cushions. The Sew Its Fun group worked at fringing their scarves and worked on potholders. No one could sew as Mrs. Conner's machine was temporarily out of order. The Charming Yours girls cut out and basted another garment protector.

Lorane Downs Lowell

Lorane girls defeated Lowell at volleyball Saturday evening. This was the first time Lowell girls had been defeated this year. In the basketball game, the Lorane boys lost their home bid fought game. They also lost to McKenzie high school Friday evening.

Hazel Williamson is able to return to school after spending the past few weeks at home with a badly sprained and dislocated ankle. She uses a wheel chair and crutches to get around.

Mrs. Chester Purdy spent the weekend with her daughter and family in Albany, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Groshong.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cooper are the parents of a new baby son, John Wesley, born January 4. Their first grade daughter, Vicki, is very excited over her new baby brother.

Mrs. Hazel Scruggs of Sutherland and Mrs. Alice Conner of Cottage Grove spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. R. G. Conner.

Ugo-Igo club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. G. Conner. Election of officers will be held and the program for the year planned.

Funeral services were held in Everett, Wash., Tuesday afternoon for Victor Rogers, brother of the late Rodney Schurger.

Rogers lost his life mysteriously as he was returning to the States from Tuna fishing in Alaskan waters. When his boat was overdue in port, the Coast Guard was called out and found the abandoned boat safely anchored in a cove with the deck strewn with spent shells.

Body Found

The skull was missing along with Rogers. His body was found four days later on a beach. He was wearing a life jacket and an autopsy showed he had died of exposure.

Canadian Mounties are investigating the death. Rogers had visited a number of times in Lorane and was planning to come again to see his nephew Jay Schurger as soon as he returned from this trip.

Lorane Ladies Aid held their annual election of officers at the Wednesday afternoon meeting. Mrs. Robert Wegand was elected president, Mrs. Leonard Webber, vice president and Mrs. Oscar McAlister secretary - treasurer. Mrs. Rose Hayes will serve as chairman of the sunshine committee for the year. Other committee chairmen will be named at a later meeting.

The quilt in the frame was finished and the group will now work on two Sunbonnet Girl quilts belonging to Hazel and Pauline Williamson.

Installation Held

Mrs. Eugene Campbell and new baby daughter are expected home this week from Cottage Grove hospital and will be cared for by Mrs. P. M. Campbell. The new baby has been named Marietta, for her maternal great-grandmother, and was born January 5.

Mrs. Howard Simons and new baby son, born January 8, at Cottage Grove Hospital are expected home this week. Mrs. Simons' mother, Mrs. Pearl Fruit of Cottage Grove is caring for the Simons' year old daughter Marilyn.

The Sunday school department of Hebron church elected new officers recently with Mrs. Archie Powell, superintendent; Mrs. Dean Martin, pianist; Mrs. P. M. Campbell, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller and two daughters returned home Sunday night from several days spent with relatives in Eugene and Jasper, and a trip to Portland on business. Mrs. Floyd Miller cared for the Marvin Miller girls at Jasper during their Portland trip.

Word from Mrs. Glen Stimmel and three daughters in Hawaii tells relatives here that they will have to wait at least six weeks for a house in Guam to join Mr. Stimmel who was transferred recently with the navy.

Mrs. Beth Kells visited briefly here last week on her way from Weed, Calif., to Portland to visit a sister who is ill.

London WCTU

Six members of London WCTU met January 7 at the home of Mrs. Arden Powell who was in charge of the program on legislation. Mrs. C. L. Powell was in charge of devotions. It was explained that the new legislation must be started each year in the U. S. Congress in the fight by WCTU organizations against liquor advertisements as in the Bryson-Langor bill. Electronic color in TV advertising is an added menace. It was also learned that at present there is no special juvenile judge for commitments to Skipworth juvenile home at Springfield.

A Christmas food box was filled and presented a needy resident in the community.

A completed quilt was also sent to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. Christmas cards were sent all local boys in the service. A letter from the Juvenile Home at Springfield told that visitors were welcome. A Stanley party was announced for January 18, 1 p.m. in Cottage Grove at the home of Mrs. Carroll Witherspoon at 1415 E. Main in Cottage Grove, a follow up from the London WCTU demonstration party.

The next WCTU meeting is February 3, the Wednesday week day changed to Thursday. Meeting place, Mrs. Cliff Foster's home.

SUPPORT THE MARCH OF DIMES!

REFLECTIONS
Be Thrifty
To mark the anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, Jan. 17, we have a Thrift Week. I doubt the veracity of this statement but it is claimed, "Franklin wouldn't dot an I, to save ink." The moral is obvious; Few of us can save much, but all of us can save little.

Thrift extends beyond the horizon of the coin; we could save a little by grinding corn with pestle and hollow stone; we save more by buying our flour in bags; we could use a washboard and tub, a machine does it quicker, better; keys, cogs and wheels add figures, wire carries messages, checks pay bills, sewing machines sew faster, oil propels our wagons, all of which saves time, money and great chunks of ourselves.

The thrifty person saves pennies, and dimes; he's prudent, alert, farseeing, some call him lucky; he's the one who has when others have-not.
