MR. AND MRS. HAROLD H. MATTOON (Joan Alice Metcalf) were united in marriage at an afternoon ceremony Sunday, January 16, at the First Presbyterian Church. After a wedding trip to the southern Oregon coast, they will reside in Eugene.

Heather, Carnations Deck Church Sun. For Mattoon-Metcalf Wedding Rites

Woodwardia fern and tall copper urns of pink carnations and heather decorated the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, January 16, for the wedding of Miss Joan Metcalf and Harold H. Mattoon. The beautiful heather was shipped from Redwood City, Calif., by the bride's brother, Harry D. Metcalf, especially for the wedding, and was raised on his ranch. The Rev. D. Hugh Peniston, pastor of the church, performed the double-ring ceremony before a large group of relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry K. Metcalf and the late Mr. Metcalf, while parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Ruth Board, Longview, Wash., and Hurley A. Mattoon of Drain.

Bride Given Away By Brother
The bride's eldest brother, Donald G. Metcalf, Seattle, gave her in marriage. She wore a white ballerina-length gown with bodice of imported jeweled bow-knot pattern lace with low rounded neckline and long sleeves that were pointed at the wrists. Her bouffant skirt was of silk with appliqued lace. Her pearls and earrings were of pearls and diamonds.

Reception Fetes Couple Sunday at Robbins Home

About 25 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hilliker gathered at the home of Mrs. H. B. Robbins Sunday afternoon for a reception honoring the couple. Mrs. Robbins was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Bud Drinkard.

A lace tablecloth graced the refreshment table which was centered with a decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature blonde bride couple. Crystal candelabra with white tapers and a bowl of pink roses, white stock and white carnations were also table decorations. Mrs. Robbins cut and served the cake after the couple had cut the first piece, and Mrs. Drinkard poured. The couple received many lovely gifts.

Out of town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schultz and Mrs. Lawrence Hottel of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Piller, Kirby, Oregon.

NEW W. ANNOUNCE MEET

Neighbors of Woodcraft met Tuesday night for a social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartels, with Mrs. Bert Hatch assisting. After refreshments, the evening was spent in playing bridge.

The next regular meeting will be February 1, at which time initiation will be held. All members are requested to wear formals.

LOCAL MATRON HONORED AT SURPRISE SHOWER

A surprise stork shower and bride party was given in honor of Mrs. James Roles January 17 at the home of Mrs. Ralph DeJarnett. Mrs. DeJarnett and Mrs. Stan Daugherty were cohostesses. The evening was spent playing bridge. Refreshments were served after the honor guest opened her gifts. Those present besides the honor guest and the hostesses were Meses Ray Funk, Kenneth Omlid, Ray Spaulding, Willie Morelock and Richard Cherry.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY JAN. 28

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Stacks are invited to their home Friday, January 28, when they will observe their golden wedding anniversary. Open house will be held for them between the hours of 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Stacks, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Blair.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stacks is on the Delight Valley road, north of Cook's Store.

PROGRAM OF MUSIC PRESENTED BY GROUP

Beta Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its first meeting of 1955 at the home of Mrs. Tom Wright on January 12. Mrs. George Drury gave a very interesting talk on music and presented as her guest speaker, John Dunn, band director of Jefferson school. Mr. Dunn gave many interesting points on children taking music.

A short business meeting was held with Miss Lois Wright acting as president in the absence of Jane Farnen.

The next meeting will be guest night on January 26 at the home of Mrs. Howard Gilbert.

Rings were gifts of the bridegroom. A wreath of shirred illusion, mock orange blossoms and pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of Eucharist lilies and pink Elf roses. Mrs. Robert Powell, Eugene, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a ruby crystal dress with low rounded neckline and shirred shoulders forming the short sleeves and flared skirt. Her bouquet was of garnet roses and heather in sunburst effect.

Dr. Stanley G. Allison, Tacoma, Wash., was best man and ushers were A. R. Halter, R. Dear Thomas, both of Portland, and James M. Edwards, Cottage Grove.

The bride's mother was attired in a royal blue acetate afternoon dress while the bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue silk crepe. Each one wore an orchid corsage. Bill Featch Solist.

Mrs. H. A. Hagen, church organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Bill Veatch as he sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The reception table in the church reception room was centered by heather candelabra, belonging to Mrs. W. A. Edwards. Mrs. Faye H. Stewart, sister of the bride, cut the cake; Mrs. B. K. Lawson Sr., poured, while Mrs. W. A. Edwards presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. F. O. Boruth was in charge of the guest book.

For going away on their wedding trip to the southern Oregon coast, the bride wore a blue, green and black plaid Fogarty princess style wool dress with navy accessories and a long gold-colored coat.

Couple To Live In Eugene
The couple will live in Eugene where Mr. Mattoon is general agent for the Pacific Cottage Life Insurance Co., of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Mattoon graduated from the local high school in '48 and attended Oregon College of Education. For the past few years she has been employed at the Cottage Grove branch, First National Bank of Portland. He graduated from Oakridge high school and spent four years in the U. S. Navy.

Those from out-of-town attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Merrick E. Metcalf and Mrs. B. K. Lawson Sr., of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lilly, Salem; Dr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Allison, Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Metcalf, Seattle.

The Curse of an Aching Heart

You made me what I am to-day. I hope you're satisfied. And though you're not true, May God bless you. That's the curse of an aching heart.

LIFE SPAN INCREASES

The span of life in our country still is increasing. Latest figures of the U. S. Public Health Service show that the average length of life hereabouts has reached a record high of 68.5 years — a gain of nearly four years in the past 10. Average lifetime expected for women at birth today is 71.8 years; for men, 65.9 years.

Lorane Rebekahs Urged to Attend Seating Drills

Mrs. R. G. Conner Phone 140M

LORANE — Convention plans were discussed by the Rebekah Lodge meeting Monday evening. Due to the electrical failure the entire lodge session was conducted by candlelight.

Members are especially urged to attend the next two meetings so the drill for seating convention officers may be perfected. At least 18 members are needed for the drill and the district convention is usually held in March. A valentine exchange will be held at the next meeting. Each member is to bring a valentine.

At the cookie contest, Mrs. W. H. Mitchell's Date Pinwheels were selected to enter in the Fisher Flour Mills contest. Up-to-date club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. G. Conner. The afternoon was spent in working on dish towels for the Ladies Aid. New officers were elected for the year. Mrs. Horace Taylor was elected president, Mrs. R. G. Conner, vice president and Mrs. A. R. Barker, secretary — treasurer. Mrs. Taylor appointed Meses Leslie Ashely and Dora Allen on the sunshine and membership committee.

Refreshments were served to seven members by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore left last week for Truth or Consequences, New Mexico for several weeks. They planned to stop in California and visit relatives on the way down.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Addison of Brownsville spent the week end with B. C. Addison.

Parent Teachers club will meet Friday January 21 at 8 p.m. Mothers of the fifth and sixth grades are to bring cookies. Coffee and punch will be served by the P.T.C. A film "Forests for the Future" will be shown. It is a picture on conservation and forest replacement made by the Crown Zellerbach Corp.

Containers for the March of Dimes contributions have been placed in both stores, the Post Office and in the schools. School children were also given cards to take home and return filled.

James Sulter has returned from a business trip to New Mexico. Mrs. Dora Allen stayed with Mrs. Sulter and children while he was gone.

Mrs. R. G. Conner is taking the Home Extension Shirmaking workshop in Cottage Grove. The course will take a day each week for three weeks to complete.

Sunday's snow storm turned the ground quite white for a while. Most of the snow was gone except in the higher hills by Monday evening.

Large Crowd At Lorane Grange Meeting Jan. 11

By Mrs. R. G. Conner Phone 140M

LORANE GRANGE — One hundred per cent of the officers were present at the January 11 grange meeting at Lorane. A good crowd was in attendance from the rest of the membership also. Pins for attendance at 20 meetings during the past year were awarded to Mrs. Arthur Kragerbrink, Mrs. Eldon Thompson, James Kotre and Bob Philson. Other pins may be awarded still, as the yearly attendance count was begun in March.

The Pomona work recommendations were read by Mrs. Oren Jacobson. The visitation schedule was presented also. Lorane will be the guest of Colburg-Westpoint Grange and will in turn entertain Elmira Grange.

James Kotre, a member of the legislative committee, gave a report on the proposed methods of raising money by members of the State Legislature.

Another member of the agriculture meeting, Leslie Ashley, reported that the first of a series of four Better Farming meetings was held January 12 in Cottage Grove. The next meeting in the series will be held in the Council room of the Cottage Grove City Hall at 8 p.m., January 26.

Mrs. Lincoln Diness, chairman of HEC, read a letter of thanks from the Eugene Hospital School for the Christmas contribution. In the attendance contest, the side led by co-chairman Insley-Seales and Mrs. Robert Tow, were ahead. There will be three more meetings before the contest closes.

Refreshment committee for the January 25 meeting will be Meses, and Meses, Svend Lobeck, C. B. Mitchell and Dennis Mitchell.

Master Bob Philson reported on a possible picnic spot, but no action was taken.

Building committee chairman, Arthur Kragerbrink, reported that new tables are now being constructed and there will be plenty of work for all who can attend on the two planned work days, January 20 and February 2. The later date will take the place of the regular HEC meeting.

Visitors for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Halderon of Central Grange. They were present to instruct the new officers and give help with planning the program for the year.
