"How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings" (Psalms 36:7) will be the Golden Text for a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love," which will be read in all Christian Science churches January 30. Emphasis will be placed upon God's universal availability to meet the needs of humanity. Citing a passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 12), the First Reader "In divine Science, where prayers are mental, all may avail themselves of God as 'a very present help in trouble.' Love is impartial and universal in its adaption and bestowals. It is the open fount which cries, 'Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters.' "

Creswell Phone Co. Holds Its Annual Meeting Jan. 24th

CRESWELL—The annual meeting of the Creswell Consolidated Telephone Co., was held at the Creswell Grange hall Monday evening with a large attendance of members present. Carlyle Scarbrough presided at the meeting. The annual monthly minutes were read by Robert Sly and the financial report was given by the manager, Mrs. Basil Smith. Scarbrough, W. C. Adams and Sly were the retiring directors. H. N. Traxler was elected director for three years, L. R. Carpenter for three years, G. H. Mawson for two years and W. D. Tiedje for two years to fill the unexpired term of W. W. Smith, who has moved from this community.

A discussion was held relative to the amount of money required to convert the present system to that of dial, also the proposition of selling out. D. O. Hood of Medfoard, president of the Columbus Utilities, was present and quoted prices and explained the procedures if the Creswell company sold to the firm he represented. No action was taken since in order to sell, two thirds of the membership of 375 members must be present at a meeting and vote to do so. However, a motion was made and adopted to send notices to all of the members to come to a meeting within 90 days, the definite date to be decided on by the board, when a vote will be taken as to what best to do.
