150 Attend Church of Christ Rally With Inspirational Program Saturday

The "Sad-Sack" rally sponsored by the High School group of the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ last Saturday afternoon and evening developed into a very happy affair, with an attendance of 150. Delegations attended from Drain, Wells Creek, Oakland, Lorane, Elmira, Santa Clara, Hebron, Lebanon and the Eugene South Side Church.

Local and visiting young people conducted the entire afternoon session. Rex Beach led the Worry Bird Clinic, beginning with a Scripture reading in the "Reversed Version" by Malcolm Clark. The three Worry Birds who told their troubles in poetry were from Santa Clara.

Following this dismal tale was the Optimist club from Eugene South Side Church, represented by Dale Marshall, Arlene Sayles and Rex Bradley.

Garnet and Rex Beach sang "Count Your Worries" preceding the Worry Clinic. A duet, "The Grumblers' Song," was presented by Naomi Richardson and Nita Hinman.

Paul Patten then requested the congregation to go to the basement where he conducted a "Bring Your Light" meeting. He was assisted by Larry Aldrich, Barbara Woodard and Arlin Rothauge. Larry illustrated the "flash-in-the-pan" Christian with a flash bulb. Barbara used a string of tree lights to illustrate various Christian lights—the various bulbs representing Christian parents, Bible School teachers, the minister, youth leaders and everyday working Christians. When one "bulb" went out, the string would not light the room. Arlin Rothauge of Lorane capably presented the complete Christian life, using a Coleman lantern as the light. All parts are necessary to really have a burning light.

Nancy Aubrey then led the group in some games, giving the chance for fellowship and meeting visitors from out-of-town groups. A potluck supper was served.

Ed Henry Special Speaker

Before the evening session, a Dragnet skit was presented entitled, "The Case of the Missing Freshman," by ten Cottage Grove young people.

Ed Henry, a returned missionary from Alaska, was the evening speaker. The special music of the evening was presented by Smiths "at home and abroad." Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith from Drain sang a duet. Mr. Smith is the associate pastor in the Drain Church of Christ. The "at home" Smiths who sang a trio are the ladies of the local parsonage: Mrs. F. S. Smith, Sherry Smith (11 years of age) and Rhea (8).

F. S. Smith led the evening song service, with Mrs. Smith playing the piano and Nancy Aubrey playing the organ. In the afternoon session, Garnet Beach led the song service, with Mrs. Dick Smith playing the piano and Miss Arlene Sayles the organ. Various special musical numbers were enjoyed in the afternoon from the visiting churches.

Most of the attending churches cooperate in operating the Grove Christian Camp during July of each year, affording instruction and recreation for four age groups (adults, high school students, intermediate and junior) for a period of one week each. This camp is open to any young people or adults wishing to attend.
