Blue Mountain Assembly of God Scene of Wedding

A heart-shaped floral arrangement of daffodils, lily-of-the-valley and ferns formed the background for the wedding of Miss Evelyn Esther Eastburn and Kenneth Everett Davis Saturday night, March 26, at the Blue Mountain Assembly of God at Walden. Other decorations were daffodils, pussywillows and lighted tapers in candelabra. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald L. Anderson at eight o'clock before a large group of relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Eastburn and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Davis, all of Cottage Grove.

The bride's floor-length gown was of white net over white satin fashioned with full skirt, high neck line and long pointed sleeves. Her lace-trimmed train fell from a pearl-trimmed tiara. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and pink Elf rosebuds. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Ernest S. Martin, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Loyd and Mrs. Geneva Davis. Culp Creek, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. All wore floor-length gowns of net over taffeta, the honor attendant in lavender and the bridesmaids in tea rose and pink. They carried nosegays of pastel colored carnations.

Nela Gerri Davis was flower girl and carried a basket of petals, while Rodney Leroy Davis Jr. was ringbearer. They are niece and nephew of the bridegroom. Candlelighters were Connie Wright and Catherine Hicks. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Harold G. Davis, and ushers were Richard G. Eastburn, brother of the bride, and Ernest S. Martin, brother-in-law. The bride's mother wore an aqua-colored dress and the bridegroom's mother wore yellow. Each had a pink orchid corsage.

Mrs. Calvin Davis played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. G. W. Hocker, who sang "Because" and the Rev. Donald Anderson, who sang "The Lord's Prayer." The reception was held in the church parlor where Mrs. Luther Bettis cut the cake; Joyce Sherrouse poured and those assisting in serving were Mina Hill, Beverly Harris and Carol Hocker. For a wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a beige suit. They are at home on Route 1. The bridegroom spent two years in the Army and is presently employed by Skelton Lumber Co.

Couple United At Myrtle Creek Methodist Church

Mrs. Evelyn Regina Lair of Canyonville and Chester Willis of Cottage Grove were united in marriage March 26 at the Myrtle Creek Methodist Church with Rev. Brown officiating. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 p.m. The bride was attired in a navy blue tailored suit with red and white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Audrey Spicer of Riddle was maid of honor. She wore a rose-colored linen suit, white accessories and a gardenia corsage. James Murphy of Eugene was best man.

"Because" was special music before the ceremony. The reception was held in the church by M. U. T. C. of the Methodist Church. Cake, coffee and punch were served.

For a wedding trip, the couple visited the bride's sister in Tacoma. After June 1 Mr. and Mrs. Willis will make their home in Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Willis is a graduate of Southern Oregon College of Education and is presently teaching at Riddle. Willis attended Oregon State college and Eugene Business college and is a bookkeeper at Kinwood Machine Co.

UTOPIA CLUB MEETS

Members of the Utopia club met at the home of Mrs. Nelson Durham on March 17. Table decorations and refreshments were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. A guest of the club was Mrs. Maud Griggs Nort of Eugene. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Griggs on April 21.

Reflections . . .

Easter

Nineteen hundred and fifty-four years ago Christ dragged his cross through the streets of Golgotha. A few men would have carried his burden; the soldiers angrily drove them away. A few thought it a hilarious occasion, jeered this frail man on his way to Crucifixion. Imagine the consternation when this frail man was entombed and on the third day the stones were rolled away, his tomb was empty. The hilarious roisters fell down in fright, cried, "He is risen." The men who believed in His immortality, who would have carried his burden, have lived through the centuries and are among the immortals.

So many times we have the opportunity to help a fellow-man carry his burden. A kind word, a smile, handshake, or just listen is a tonic that eases heavy burdens.

Easter is the beginning of new life. Celebrate this joyous occasion in your church with song, prayer and love.

NEVER BEFORE SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE

The prescription you buy today might seem expensive, even though six hundred years ago even a king's ransom couldn't have bought it — because it didn't exist. But when you consider how much pain, how many days, weeks, months, even years taken-for-granted drugs cut off of illness time . . . then a modern prescription becomes a terrific bargain! Next time your doctor prescribes such a bargain, bring it to us for accurate, competent compounding.
