Neighbors' Action Aids Cancer Fight

Hello Neighbor:
The cancer death rate among women has dropped 10 per cent in the last decade. That's good news. Participation in Neighbor-to-Neighbor Week for the American Cancer Society in Cottage Grove, which is this week, is a good way to help bring about a greater decline.

Some 15,000 women died of uterine cancer last year—but 8,600 of them could have been saved through earlier detection. A trip to a doctor twice a year by women over 35 for a simple examination would eliminate that needless loss. When you help the ASC you are helping women everywhere to this knowledge and helping science in its effort to eliminate death from uterine cancer altogether.

MAKE YOUR CONTRIBUTION. KEEP THE NEIGHBOR-TO-NEIGHBOR ENVELOPE MOVING AROUND THE BLOCK. PASS IT ON TO YOUR NEIGHBOR.
