Reflections . . .
Prayer Room Ready

For the first time in our history there is a sanctuary in Washington, D.C. where lawmakers may go to lift up their thoughts to their God. These sagacious men from every part of our county find silence, peace and divine guidance in their Prayer Room.

We are welcome in any church in Cottage Grove. When trouble mounts, the way seems blocked, go to your Church, life up your voice, your heart, to God. Troubles vanish. Road-blocks tumble. The way is clear.

We little realize the pitch in which we're living; talk is endless over telephone, radio, T.V., socially. Newspaper headlines are frightening. Sirens scream, brakes screech. Every part of our being cries out for a moment of silence, a place where we may commune with God, find solace, strength, direction to a richer, more beautiful life. We find it in the sanctuary of a church.
