Degrees Given by Dorena Grange; Scholarships Go to Two Students

By Mrs. Walter N. Downes
DORENA GRANGE — Robert Way was given the obligation for the third and fourth degrees at the regular meeting of the Dorena Grange, held April 15, by Master Alpha Pletcher.
 HEC chairman, Stella Noeth, reminds the ladies of the Home Economics club of the visit on April 27 to Mohawk - McKenzie HEC and members are urged to arrive there not later than 11:30 a.m.
 The floor show is scheduled for April 30 at 8 p.m. and each grange lady is asked to bring one pie and at least one half dozen sandwiches, to be sold after the floor show.

Rural Life Sunday 22nd
 Rural Life Sunday or Church Sunday for the Grange will be at the local hall on Sunday, May 22. More details later.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Lenie Holderson, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harris of Hebron, and Al Peake of Santa Clara Grange.

Al Peake Speaker
 Mr. Peake, the speaker of the evening, is with the license department of the Secretary of state office in Eugene. He told how records are kept of motorist accidents, and when the record has begun to get bad, the cards are analyzed and the individual is called in for consultation. He described the machines they used for eye checks, and when locating trouble, sends the applicant to their own eye specialist for treatment.
 Mr. Peake also held a question and answer period. The entire lecturer's hour was given to safety on the highways. It was as follows: Ten highway safety commands; Birds of the Highway; skit - "No Trains Today"; skit - "The Human Ford" and a reading "Ten Little Motorists."

Two Half Scholarships Given
 The two Grange half scholarships are to be given to Carl Hudson and Jeanette Carlisle.
 Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wicks were elected delegates to state convention to be held at Klamath Falls in June.
 All members who are chairmen of the Community Service committees, are asked to meet at the hall on Sunday, May 1, at 3 p.m. They are Byron Houck, Phil Lake, Mary Snauer, Brayton Carlisle, Theima Wicks, Agnes Plaisted and Meda Downes.
 Serving committee for the May 6 meeting will be: Messrs. and Mrs. Jess Michael, William Rowlette and Ernest Mathews.
 Clean up committee will be: The Glen Gillespie, Byron Houck and Ted Hudson families.

FAITHS AID NEEDED

Overseas relief organizations of America's three great religious faiths — Protestant, Catholic and Jewish — currently are engaged in their annual appeals for funds to support world-wide programs of aid to the hungry, homeless and destitute abroad. It is estimated that upwards of $300,000,000 in food, clothing, medicine, etc., will be distributed abroad this year thru the religious faiths organizations.

D. Martin Named Representative To So. Lane Fair

By Mrs. Gale Roby
LONDON GRANGE — A special meeting of London Grange was held April 7 to elect P. M. Campbell as a representative member on the South Lane Fair board in Cottage Grove. Mr. Campbell, however, because of other activities, resigned the office at the April 15 grange meeting. Dean Martin was appointed to take his place. Meetings are held the first Monday of each month in Cottage Grove.

Obligations in the third and fourth degrees were given at the April 15 meeting by Master Wayne Berggren for Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cox. A reminder of an 8 p.m. meeting time started April 1, for the summer months. Archie Powell reported for the building committee that the wet weather was hampering building work on the new grange hall. The grange voted to accept certificates to be issued by the grange in denominations of $1 to $5 to be sold to members or interested community individuals, for the purpose of raising funds for building the new hall. Certificates are to be redeemable at a later time as grange funds become available. Grange incorporation papers were on hand as reported by Master Berggren.

A good turn out of members was asked for the next London Grange meeting, May 6, when there will be a visitation from Willakenzie Grange. The meeting will be held at London school gym.
 The chapter of the grange, P. M. Campbell, will be in charge of the lecturer's program at the May 20 meeting.
 A correspondence from Hebron Grange invited the London grange to attend a benefit box social and dance for the Marvin Miller family at Hebron hall, April 29.
 Eight members of the Home Economics club of London Grange attended a visitation to Central Grange April 12 where they put on the program.

A 4-H night was held at the April 15 London Grange meeting when club leaders and 4-H club members representing the four 4-H sewing clubs at London school attended. Veteran 4-H leader, Mrs. Joanne Morton, who has 21 years of 4-H work to her credit, spoke on 4-H work from a leader's standpoint and of parents cooperative understanding and home assistance if necessary. Speaking of the more than 80 4-H clubs in the Cottage Grove area, Mrs. Morton told of the values of the 4-H work, especially what the child learns by finishing a job, and learning group cooperation to work together and experiences in leadership.

Sewing 4, with Mrs. Morton, leader, was represented by Joanne Roby who exhibited a completed article. Sue Kosey modeled a skirt and apron she had made in Sewing 3, with Mrs. Kosey, leader. Mrs. James Black, leader for Sewing 1, had David Brewer represent his club and exhibit his completed work.

Hebron Grange Elects Two New Officers 16th

By Mrs. Gale Roby
HEBRON GRANGE — Last potluck supper for the spring quarter was held April 16, preceding the meeting of Hebron Grange.

An election for the offices of assistant and lady assistant stewards was held with Dennis Chapman and Mabel Kief elected. They were immediately installed by Master Roy Geer and took their new offices.
 A grange community project suggested by HEC chairman, Mrs. Fred Harris, to put sign posts at intersecting roads for names of residents, to be sponsored by the grange, was turned over to the building committee for investigation. Jack Godard is chairman. Tommy Clark offered a donation of lumber needed. The grange voted to enter the community project National contest.

Fire meetings for April 18 at Silk Creek and April 25 at Hebron were reminded by Mrs. Dale Harris.

A visitor was Mrs. Gladys Berg of London Grange. Clare Chapman sent thanks for flowers and cards during his recent hospitalization for surgery. He is recovering at home. Mrs. Geanie Murry is home at the Chet Gilham home from a recent operation at Cottage Grove hospital. There was word that Mrs. Ben Chilson's brother had passed away.
 Reporting for the Youth, Mabel Kief told of Youth plans for a carnival, as well as entry in the Centennial parade. Carnival tickets will be on sale at the next Youth meeting, May 14.

HEC Activity
 Nine members of Hebron HEC attended the visitation to Walterville Grange HEC, April 13. A program was given with Mrs. Jack Godard in charge.
 April 26, 15 HEC members from Junction City will accept Hebron's HEC invitation for visitation at an all day meeting at the grange hall. A planned chicken and noodle noon meal is being arranged by Mrs. Marvin Miller, assisted by Mrs. Marvin Miller and Mrs. Gale Roby.

Members of the Hebron HEC are to bring pot holders, each one gift wrapped, to be presented to the visitors. A food shower for the Marvin Miller family will be given with roll call to be answered with package of commercially canned food.
 Serving and cleaning committee for May includes Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stewart, Mrs. Kenneth McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Roby. Next meeting is May 7.

Spencer Creek HEC Visits Lorane

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
LORANE GRANGE — Thirteen ladies from Spencer Creek Home Economics club met with Lorane HEC for a smorgasbord luncheon recently. Other visitors were Mrs. Ralph Witcher, who is Pomona HEC chairman and Mrs. Jule Lorane both from the Junction City Grange. Twelve ladies from Lorane were present.

After the business meeting in the afternoon, the Spencer Creek ladies provided the program. They provided materials and held an Easter bonnet contest with the best hats being made by Mrs. Ralph Witcher and Mrs. Archie McCrae.
 Mrs. L. N. Ashley had her large collection of crocheted pot holders on display. Mrs. Ned Pasco displayed her man's sport shirt that is to be entered in the HEC contest. Mrs. Pasco is also going to enter a pair of kitchen curtains in the contest.

Reports Given
 At the regular Grange meeting Tuesday evening, a number of agricultural reports were given. H. H. Taylor has literature for those who wish to sign up to receive weekly agricultural reports. L. S. Ashley asked everyone to read the article on the Holl's Canyon Dam in the Grange bulletin. Herbert Miller reported on a meeting he had attended on the treatment of parasites in dairy cattle.

Archie McCrae, education chairman, invited all grangers to attend the freshman-sophomore play to be given at the high school Friday evening and the amateur hour on April 29. The grange is entering a skit in the amateur event.

Refreshment committee for the next meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Ashley, Mrs. Patricia Castro, and Mrs. L. S. Dey.
 Arthur Kragenbrink announced that he has completed the roadside signs which he was making for the Grange. They will be erected later.

Kitchen Completed
 The new man's room has now been completed with the last coat of paint and curtains made by Mrs. Ned Pasco. A new sink and drain-board were also installed, making it much more modern and attractive.

As Mrs. Oren Jacobson was ill, Mrs. H. H. Taylor presented the program she had prepared. The Easter story was read from the Bible and the group sang "In the Garden."
 In the Easter hat parade the hats made by the ladies were modeled by the men. Ladies winning prizes for their hats were Mrs. Jack Nelson and Mrs. Archie McCrae. Winners among the male models were J. E. Crawford, who was visiting from Medford, and H. H. Taylor.

On Wednesday evening, Lorane Grange honored the grade school basketball and volleyball teams with a party. Mrs. Stanley Purdy was in charge of games. Mrs. Robert Tew was general chairman of the party. The youngsters were served pronto pups at the close of the evening.

Bob Bauder Qualifies For Regional Leaders' Club Meet in Frisco

Bob Bauder has recently received word from the home office of the State Farm Insurance Companies in Bloomington, Ill., that he has qualified to attend the Regional Leaders' club convention in San Francisco, Calif., May 16 through 18.

Mr. Bauder qualified for this honor as a result of outstanding service in State Farm's multiple lines of insurance—Auto, Life and Fire. At the convention in San Francisco, Mr. Bauder will be honored with other State Farm Leaders, who have, through extensive training and activity in the insurance profession, qualified as Career Agents.
