Boots and Sandals Club Sponsoring Lynn Barnard for Queen Candidate

Boots and Sandals Square Dance club has been very busy the past two weeks, getting ready for the Centennial. The club has chosen Lynn Barnard, 17, and a senior at Cottage Grove high school to represent the club as queen candidate. Lynn is the daughter of Howard and Maxine Barnard. Boots and Sandals will hold a box social Friday, May 20, to raise money for advertising. There will be round dancing in school afterwards. All beginning dancers are invited to attend. This will be held at Mt. View school.

Boots and Sandals members traveled to Clear Lake school as guests of the Circle Eight dancers. This was a hard times dance and two of Cottage Grove members, Dale Baker and Fitz Fitzgerald, won first and second prizes for best costumes. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Boots and Sandals will go to Waverlyville Friday, May 13, as guests of Tuffy Walling's group. Everyone is to bring either sandwiches or dessert.

Those celebrating birthdays from the club the past week were Doris Olson, Mickey Partney and Norma and Norman Myers a wedding anniversary. Dick and Barbara Tubman have been transferred to Grants Pass Forest Service. Club members are sorry to see them leave but wish them lots of luck on their new job.

Several club members have been ill the past week. Eloise Carr is home with a back injury, Milton Levings had an operation on his ankle and George and Ila Sibley have both been home ill with the flu.

Work on the square dance barn is progressing very well. Don Schacht has been supervising the tearing down of a building on Washington street for the lumber that can be salvaged for the barn. We hope that this can be finished this weekend. All square dancers that can, should be at the building Saturday afternoon.

DISTRICT DEPUTY VISITS LOCAL ROYAL NEIGHBORS

Mabel Miles, Salem, district deputy of Royal Neighbors, was a guest at the meeting of the local lodge Tuesday night in the Eagles hall. A potluck supper preceded the regular meeting.

Elsie DeYoung, oracle, presided over the business meeting. A skit was presented by Agnes Henderson and Gladys Pfouts.

May 19 at 2 p.m. there will be a membership meeting, but there will not be a meeting the 24th.

Mother's Day Program Presented FOE Ladies

By Mrs. Walter N. Dowens

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the F.O.E. No. 2091, was held on May 2 and was a special Mother's Day meeting. Each member was to bring her mother or some other guest. A program was held and each lady guest received a handkerchief, when seated at the tables, which were beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

All past madam presidents were in charge of the Mother's tea. The next meeting will be May 16, and will be the 27th anniversary of the Auxiliary. Eugene and Junction City Auxiliaries are invited guests, and all past presidents and charter members will be honored.

There will be a table of articles to sell, and if you have not contributed, you are urged to do so. Edna England and Georgia McMillan will be in charge of the table. Joint installation of officers for the Aerie and Auxiliary will be held Wednesday, June 8. Practice night for installation will be Monday, June 6.

Ethel Thomas and Meda Dowens were elected delegates to state convention at Roseburg on June 23, 24 and 25.

Style Show, Party Slated by Emblem Club Members

Emblem club members are planning a style show, card party and refreshments next Wednesday night, May 18, in the Elks temple. Chairmen committees for the affair are: Mrs. Palmer Johnson, card party; Mrs. Bob Mills, decorations; Mrs. Bob Nelson, commentator for the style show, and refreshments, Juanita Hensley and Mrs. Dave Slaton.

Stores whose clothing will be modeled at the style show are: Penney's, Petersen's, Norris Dress Shop, Perry's, Smart Shop, Scotts and Hoover's Shoe Store.

At the May 4 meeting, initiation was held for seven candidates: Mmes. Ralph DeJarnett, C. S. Roberts, Aldon Copple, Joe Bricher, Lois Wright, Ben McCall and O. M. Patten.

MAYOR AND MRS. JESS HILL celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday at open house when many of their friends and relatives called to congratulate them.—Phil Higdon Photo.

Mayor, Mrs. Hill Married 25 Years, Observe Occasion

Seventy-five friends and relatives called at the Jess Hill home Sunday to express best wishes to Mayor and Mrs. Hill on their 25th wedding anniversary.

Ladies who presided at the tea table during the afternoon were: Mrs. Harold Tryk, Mrs. Merle Moore, Mrs. Ed Finnerty and Mrs. Ivan Abene. Miss Phyllis Higdon, niece of the Hills, had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests who were present for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hill and daughters, Debra and Lynn, and Walter Hill of Ashland and Bert Hill of Talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill were married at Potwin, Kan., in 1930. They have one daughter, Anne, a junior at the University of Oregon.

The Hills came from Kansas to Ashland where they resided one year and then moved to Cottage Grove eight years ago, first locating on a ranch near London.

For the past five years, Mayor Hill has been in the real estate business. He served on the city council until his election as mayor last November.

Mrs. Gil Gardner Heads Court Little Flower

Mrs. Gil Gardner was elected Grand Regent of Court Little Flower, Catholic Daughters of America, at a meeting held May 9.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Henry Isaacs, vice regent; Mrs. Arnold Gates, prophetess; Mrs. Robert Gierau, financial secretary; Mrs. Bernard Bushand, historian; Mrs. Wilbur Heath, treasurer; Mrs. Vincent Keating, monitor; Mrs. Joseph Barta, sentinel; Mrs. Gus Nowak, lecturer; Mrs. Frank Gierau, organist; Mrs. Russell Smith and Mrs. Lawrence Buetner, trustees.

June 4 was selected as the date for the next dance. Mrs. Arnold Gates was appointed chairman. There will be a state Catholic Daughters conference held at McMinnville on May 21 and 22. Members who plan to attend this conference are Mrs. R. L. Sedgwick, state monitor, Mrs. Russell Smith, Mrs. Charles Moss and Mrs. Gil Gardner.

DISSTON—Mrs. W. B. Layng served coffee and cakes Wednesday afternoon in the school cafeteria. She was assisted by Mrs. Mmes. Frank Cron, Amos Wright Jr., Raymond Arthur, James Northcutt, Harry McCormack, Barrett Coughlan, J. W. Middleton, Alton Chittester, Boyd Chittester, Alfred Johnson, Lawrence Carr, John Carr Jr., John Carr Sr., Claude Carr, Porter Ballinger and Mr. Pinkston.

Mrs. Layng has been teaching the first and second graders but is leaving the faculty this spring.

'The Hidden Heart' Film Shown Guild Members Thursday

The film "The Hidden Heart" was shown last Thursday night to members of the Nathalie Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church by Wayne Monroe preceding the regular meeting. A dessert course was served by Miss Marjorie Arnold and Mrs. Mark Morgan.

Mrs. Albert Adkins led the worship service on "Be Ye Doers of the Word," from the study book "Except the Lord Keep the City." Mrs. Daniel Olsen presented the program assisted by other members. Guests were Mrs. Eva Miller, Mrs. Sydney Gaither and Miss Harriett Oie.

It was announced that the newly elected officers would be installed at the regular morning worship service on May 22. The next meeting will be June 2.

Mmes. Herbig, Drynan Visit Episcopal Guild

Guests of St. Andrew's Episcopal Guild at its monthly meeting May 4 at the home of Mrs. John Finneran were two members of the Woman's Auxiliary (Diocesan), Mrs. P. L. Herbig of St. Mary's Eugene, the newly elected president of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, and Mrs. Tom Drynan of St. Peter's, Albany, a vice president of the auxiliary. The guests were introduced by Father Young.

Mrs. Herbig spoke on her own work during the past 10 years in the Auxiliary of the Church. Mrs. Drynan told the group that all confirmed women of the church automatically become members of the Woman's Auxiliary with no dues attached.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. David Morris. During the business meeting, a rummage sale was suggested, and Father Young asked that the members plan for a luncheon in the parish house following the Ascension Day, Holy Communion Service, at which the newly confirmed candidates will make their first communion. He also asked that refreshments be served following the confirmation service on Sunday, May 15, when Bishop Benjamin Dagwell will be present.

The box of small children's clothing, St. Andrew's assignment of supply work for this year, which is ready for shipment to Alaska, was examined by the Guild members present.

Row River Troop No. 13 To Hold Court of Honor

Row River Boy Scout Troop 13 is scheduling an investiture ceremony and a Court of Honor to be held in the Community hall at Dorena, Monday, May 16, at 6 p.m.

Five boys, Robert Fogarty, Stanley Sloan, Raymond Huffman, Ronald Huffman and Terry Trujillo, will be welcomed into the troop at the investiture ceremony. Robert Cartwright and Carl Cartwright both will be advanced to second class Scouts at the following Court of Honor. A merit badge in first aid is also to be awarded to Terry Knouse in the evening's program.

The Scout activity will follow a potluck supper. All parents and interested Scouts are invited to attend and the general public is invited to witness the Court of Honor.

SDA School Presents Mother's Day Program

A special Mother's Day program was presented Thursday by the children of the Seventh-day Adventist school on River Road.

The program began with two numbers by the rhythm band of the lower grade children under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Frank Doelman. A reading was given by Patty Pershall and Joan Pattee, representing the upper grades. Marsha Oberg read a poem on Mothers, and she and Cynthia Oberg sang "Open up Your Heart and Let the Sunshine In." Raymond VanBlaricom, Tommy Wilson, Max Vaughn and Stanton Oberg Jr. gave a playlet showing how they would help Mother.

To conclude the program, Carol Tonple, Virginia Bullock, Sandra Pershall, Linda Pershall, Wally Castle, Robbie Bullock and Marsha Oberg elected a queen Mother by giving all mothers present a corsage. Punch and cookies were served by the Home and School.

MOTHER'S DAY REUNION

Mrs. Lavina (Mom) Rearrick had the pleasure of having all her children and their families with her for Mother's Day.

Spending the day with her were Bessie and husband of London; Chester, wife and children, Glenda and Charles of Walden; Lester, wife and children, Allen and Judy of Mosby Creek; Delmar, wife and daughter, Christeen of North Bend. The Delmar Rearrick family came Saturday and returned home Sunday. "Mom" received several nice Mother's Day gifts.

DeMolays Present Mother's Day Degree at OES

At the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star last Thursday night in the Masonic temple, the DeMolay boys put on the Mother's Day degree which was well done and enjoyed. All mothers present were presented red carnations. This degree followed the opening ceremony of the chapter with Genevieve Nelson, worthy matron, and Ray Nelson, worthy patron, presiding.

After the DeMolays had their part on the evening's agenda, chapter resumed and Shirley Smith, worthy matron, and James Jacobs, worthy patron, of Thurston chapter, were introduced, escorted to the East and given a hearty welcome. Later they gave interesting talks.

The hall was beautifully decorated with red and white carnations and fruit blossoms.

Invitations were read inviting chapter members to a meeting of Euclid chapter at Jefferson on May 10 and to Cascade chapter, Springfield, on May 17. Anyone wishing transportation, call 420Y or 34F11.

The next meeting will be May 19 and will be past matrons and past patrons night.

Constellation club was announced for Thursday, May 12, with Mrs. William Githens, 337 North Ninth. A 1:30 dessert will be served. All Eastern Star members are invited to attend. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the committee: Mr. and Mrs. Damon Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Art Schaefer, Mrs. Lillian Norris and Mrs. Harry Held.

MISS EDWARDS APPEARS IN DRAMATICS, MUSIC

Peggy Edwards, freshman from Cottage Grove, is making public appearances on the Maryhurst college campus in both dramatics and musical affairs during May. She was cast as Snout the Under in a performance by the Maryhurst College Players of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream," May 6 to 9, and played the ludicrous role with vivacity. On May 17 she will be on the program of the annual Spring Concert as a member of the College Chorus. The Chorus has recently performed in Longview, Wash., and in Portland.

ZULEIMA CLUB MEETS 18TH

The Zuleima Nile club will meet for its regular meeting May 18 at the home of Mrs. Richard Thwing with Mrs. George Gates and Mrs. Wayne Gates as cohostesses. An eight o'clock dessert will precede the business meeting.
