Mrs. Lough Elected New Lecturer At Hebron Grange

By Mrs. Gale Roby

HEBRON GRANGE — Resignation of Mrs. Roy Geer as lecturer of Hebron Grange was accepted at the June 18 meeting. A new lecturer, Mrs. Don Lough, (Gladys Berg), was elected to the office installed by master Roy Geer and took over her new office. First program of the new lecturer was a roll call of members on vacation ideas. Mrs. Fred Harris and three-year-old grandson demonstrated auto recognition from pictures as to name and make.

An agriculture report was read by Mrs. Clare Chapman from a committee report at State Grange last week. Mr. Chapman read "Good News of the Coyote" that told of unsatisfactory results from trying to poison the wary animal, and instead killed unintentionally many other small animals.

A State Grange report by Evelyn Roby, alternate delegate at the June 6-10 session at Klamath Falls, was read by secretary Gladys Hudson and a 100% dues paid pennant was presented the Hebron Grange.

The grange voted to sign the contract for an entry space for a fair booth at Eugene county fair.

The agriculture committee who is in charge will welcome ideas for display. Mr. Chapman reported for the legislative committee on letters received from State Senator Ellsworth concerning recent grange resolutions, who replied there was no money for a weed control project and on reducing wheat prices on surplus stored grain had to be sold at 105% of parity according to law or change the law.

Float Planned
Chairman, Mrs. Hugh Trunnell, was given the go-ahead for the Centennial grange float committee. Individual suggestions and help were asked. Especially horses available. Jack Godard asked for help for building a shelter house at Blue Mountain park with materials available.

A request was granted by the grange for use of the grange hall for a community celebration, sponsored by Hebron Church, July 3, with invitation to Hebron and London granges to attend.

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pasco were honored with a wedding cake, bearing the bride and groom decorations and a gift of sheet and pillow cases were presented from the HEC.

An autographed birthday card from members was sent to Elsie Chilson who is home from the hospital. A thank-you was read from Ellen Sherrill who is also home from the hospital.

An HEC report reminded of the Pomona picnic at Skinner Butte Park, June 27. Hebron HEC meeting June 28 is to be a picnic at Shortridge Park. Bring own table service. The Hudsons will serve.

Mrs. Fred Harris, chairman, announced new bulletins available.

A watermelon feed will be held at the July 2 grange meeting. Serving and cleaning committee for July includes the Chapmans, Bill Aspellin and Earl Murry. Cup sales and coffee will also be served.

Fall Fair Plans Begin to Hum

By Mrs. R. G. Cenner

LORENA GRANGE — H. H. Taylor, chairman of the fair booth committee, appointed members to collect grains and grasses during the summer. From Eugene route, Insley Seales will collect them; Eldon Thompson will handle the area south of Lorane, and Leslie Ashley down the river.

On June 28, in the fireplace room of the 4-H building at Pioneer Park at 8 p.m., a meeting of both chairmen and masters will be held to select numbers for this fall's fair booths. Refreshments will be served.

Installation services were held for the new secretary and treasurer, W. T. Moore and Leslie Ashley.

Herbert Miller reported on a demonstration tour on grass silage, green hay preservatives and farm ponds.

Mrs. Lincoln Diess announced the last meeting in June will be the three month birthday event, celebrating birthdays of members who were born in April, May and June. A potluck supper will be held at 7 p.m., with Mrs. W. T. Moore in charge of arrangements.

It was announced that Mrs. Ned Pasco received second place on her kitchen curtains and third place on her man's sport shirt at State Grange.

Lorane Grange will have a food concession at the Calapooya Roundup at Crawfordville on July 2, 3 and 4.

At the June 4 meeting of Hebron Grange Mrs. Gladys Berg Lough was voted to membership on demit from London Grange.

Clare Chapman was appointed youth chairman. Jack and Lois Lund and young Stevie were welcomed back from two years in the Army. Mr. Lund promised to show colored pictures of his travels in Alaska and Colorado. A visitor, Michael Sweeney, talked on insurance. A report was made of a Grange - Hawaiian tour to be held in September. Mrs. Baker was reported ill.

O. M. Patten talked on soil conservation district and promised an office was to be opened in Cottage Grove June 15.

Mrs. Robert St. Elmo was sent a card for illness.

HEC meeting will be held June 28 at Shortridge Park with the Hudsons serving. Bring own table service. An HEC Pomona picnic is dated for 1 p.m., June 27, in Eugene at Skinner Butte park, near the shelter house.

Grange - Church Sunday was observed June 12, with a basket dinner at the Hebron Grange hall for grangers and guests. It is reported all tables were filled, including the ping-pong table set up in the main hall.

Rev. Shelly of Hebron Church attended the picnic dinner, but was unable to remain because of the illness of his wife. An afternoon program, arranged by grange chaplain, Mrs. Jack Godard, included recitations by Barbara Geer and Mable Kief, music on accordion and piano by Mrs. Fred Harris and Mrs. Lyle Montgomery; a short skit and group singing; also a song fest by all. Rev. Sydney Gaither of the Methodist Church of Cottage Grove attended, accompanied by Mrs. Gaither and three children, and gave a patriotic talk.

Word from Mrs. Ben Chilson was that she is doing as well as possible from injuries received in a recent car accident. She expected to return home from Cottage Grove hospital this week.

Two Hebron Grange resolutions were passed by State Grange at the 82nd convention held last week at Klamath Falls. One resolution was on noxious weeds and one on wheat price release. Mrs. Gale Roby attended the convention as Hebron Grange alternate delegate.
