

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. Joe Young has returned to Cottage Grove from a trip to Pasco, Wash., where she visited with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gilles, and their children, Larry and Jill.

Tommy Lee Ross, Eugene, visited all last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross. Mrs. Hazel Ross of Eugene was also a visitor Saturday, coming for Tommy and taking him home with her.

Mrs. Bertha Golding and her two sons and grandson of Portland visited with Mrs. S. K. Adams last week on their return from Crescent City. The visitors are cousins of Mrs. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Polette of Portland were guests at the Ralph Spain home last week. Mr. Polette and Mrs. Spain are brother and sister.

Gerald Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Miller, was home for Father's Day weekend. He is a student at University of Oregon, employed in Eugene for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson and family left Monday for Newport where they will make their future home. They have purchased the Tradewinds motel there and will operate the motel.

Mrs. Joe McKibben returned home Wednesday from Portland after visiting her sister, Mrs. A. P. Keppel, for several weeks, and attending the Rose Festival Mrs. McKibben and sister spent the weekend at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Safley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. Elmo and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hatch attended the reception at IOOF hall in Eugene for R. P. Stolsig, grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Oregon, and C. G. Draper, grand marshal of the Grand Encampment of Oregon. They report a large crowd in attendance from all parts of the state.

Miss Dorene Hall, daughter of the Harley B. Halls, left for Sacramento Wednesday of last week. She accompanied her sister, Mrs. Leland Hufford, and family of Eugene. In Sacramento they will visit another sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Powers. Mr. Powers is with the department of the interior as a geologist. They plan to be gone about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Blackmore spent the weekend at Forest Grove with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Blackmore.

The Rev. and Mrs. Carl Mason, son Mark and daughter Mary, will be houseguests this weekend at the home of the Rev. Sydney Gaither and his family. Rev. Mason is pastor of Sunnyside Methodist Church in Portland and will be speaking Sunday at the local First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lavina Rearick spent last weekend at North Bend with her son, Delmar, and his family. Mrs. Rearick said they spent Sunday at the beach and the weather was wonderful.

Edna Polette left Thursday for Everett, Wash., where she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kent recently spent a week in Los Angeles with a daughter, Mrs. Alice Lewis. They were accompanied by their granddaughter, Pat, who was graduated from the local high school in 1954. Miss Kent has been employed in Portland but has returned to Cottage Grove and now is employed in the office of Lovegren and Husted. She will be at home with her grandparents.

Competition for the customers' money weeds out inefficient businesses, and forces others to become more efficient. This in turn brings about lower prices, better quality and service, and the development of new and improved products.

Navy Inaugurates Training Program

The U. S. Navy has inaugurated a special enlistment program for Junior College graduates according to an announcement by the local Navy Recruiting Station in Eugene.

Under the new program, junior college graduates applying for enlistment in the Navy will be guaranteed the opportunity of attending one of the Navy's top technical training schools.

Selection of the particular school for each enlistee will be determined by testing, counseling, interviewing and the individual's preference coupled with his academic training.

All Navy Recruiting Stations are authorized to accept applications under this new program.
