YOUR MERCHANT MARINE

An American Ship of the future. A version of the atomic merchant ship released by the American Merchant Marine Institute. The view, conceived by Bethlehem Steel Company engineers, depicts a 600-foot American-flag passenger-cargo ship capable of swiftly transporting 500 passengers in comfort and safety to the farthest reaches of the globe. The American maritime industry is eager to take fullest advantage of all such developments to insure an adequate merchant marine, vital as an instrument of commerce in peace and indispensable as the fourth arm of our national defense.
