CRESWELL'S OWN NEWSPAPER PAGE

Methodist Church Is Scene of Wedding Of Miss Willa Harris, Fred Reich, Jr.

CRESWELL—A double ring arrangement made of pink and white flowers by the bride's mother with baskets of gladioli, pink roses and ferns formed the background at the wedding of Miss Willa Mignon Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Harris, of Creswell, and Fred E. Reich Jr., of Springfield at the First Methodist Church Saturday, July 16. Rev. Kenneth J. Mitchell officiated.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Reich Sr., of Camp White, Ore.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace nylon over satin with a bodice buttoned to the waist at the back, a Peter Pan collar and long pointed sleeves. Two overskirts of nylon tulle formed a bell-shaped skirt which fell into a cathedral train. A bandeau of seed pearls held the finger-tip veil of illusion net. Her flowers were a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Martha Black of Creswell was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of pink nylon over satin with a lace bolero. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink roses.

Bridesmaids Enid Johnston in blue, Nancy Greenwood in green, Shirley Baker and Ethel DeBerry in yellow, wore dresses similar to that of the maid of honor with like nosegays.

Flower girls were Karen Eusted and Patty Wheeler in pink dresses of dotted Swiss over satin. Junior bridesmaid in blue net over satin was Becky Selig of Winlock, Wash., cousin of the bride. Donnie Quigley Jr., was ring bearer for the double ring ceremony.

Frank Reich of Modford, Ore., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Philip, Leonard and Howard Harris, brothers of the bride, and Dean Workman and Howard Doane, friends of the groom.

Candlelighters were Doris Parks and Penny Wallace, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. George W. Ross played the wedding music and also accompanied Sherry Johnson, Carla Good and Lois Quigley, who sang "Because," Arlene Graven and Donna Stevenson, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "Wedding Blessing" and Arlene Graven with "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed in Friendship hall. Mrs. T. P. Harris, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Helena Anderson served the wedding cake.

Former Resident Dies in Colorado

CRESWELL—Creswell friends have received word of the death of a former Creswell resident, Mrs. Nedra Woolman Neish, July 16, at Aurora, Colo., near Denver. A cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of her death.

The Woolmans came to Creswell six years ago and bought the Variety Store. Mr. Woolman passed away in 1953. Mrs. Woolman remarried March 30 of this year. She leaves her husband, her mother, Mrs. Berta Zilbauer, of Aurora, Colo.; an aunt, Mrs. Nona Bodefelt, Denver; three children: Andrew, with the armed forces; Patsy and Baxter at home; and one brother.

Interment was in the Fairmount Cemetery, Denver. The younger children are with the grandmother.
