Miss Lillian Hageman, Wayne Woody Wed July 16 in Afternoon Ceremony

MRS. WAYNE WOODY (Lillian Hageman) was married to Wayne Woody Saturday, July 16, at the Assembly of God Church. The couple are now at home at 420 Quincy.

The Assembly of God Church was the scene for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Miss Lillian Hageman of 420 Quincy and Wayne W. Woody of Disston, Edgar White, pastor, officiated at the July 16 ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hageman of Woodland, Wash., and Woody is the son of Hosea Woody of Disston.

The bride wore a white satin gown with wide lace at the low neckline, cap sleeves and satin covered buttons down the front. The gown was floor length with a small train. The fingertip veil was made of white rayon and silk net with wide lace at the bottom. The veil hung from a dainty tiara with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations trimmed with light blue sparkling net and white ribbon.

A blue rhinestone necklace was the heirloom worn by the bride. For their honeymoon to the coast the bride wore a white, sheer, nylon dress with lavender accessories.

Three picnic tables were put together to form one long table. They were decorated with bouquets of blue hydrangeas, pink minorka, baby breath, pink taitman roses and Shasta daisies. The center table had two large cakes, one honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Carl Madison of Oakland, Mrs. Robert Gordiner of Curtin and Beverly's father, Joe Sarrett.

The third table held a large umbrella with pink and blue bows on it for the gifts.

Games were played with all prizes being given to Beverly. After the games, Beverly, assisted by her cousin, Betty Madison, of Oakland opened her gifts.

Following this, a potluck dinner was served.
