The fourth annual Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ Camp will close Friday after having spent four weeks at the Grove Christian Service Camp. This camp has far surpassed camps of previous years in attendance and spiritual fellowship with very outstanding speakers.

Annual School Held By Church of God

The Church of God Vacation Church School will begin August 8 and continue for two weeks, closing Friday, August 19, with an evening program.

This year the school will be open to three and four-year-olds. The nursery class will be under the direction of Mrs. John Palmer. The kindergarten department will be directed by Mrs. Ruby Heilinger and Miss Arlene Westlake. Primary grades will be taught by Mrs. Delbert Slag and the junior department will be directed by Mrs. Lucille Minton.

The theme for the kindergarten and nursery is "We Thank God." "With Joy We Worship" will be the text for the primary class. The juniors will be working with the theme, "When God is Near." The church invites your children to attend.

Special crafts will be offered as well as the handwork in individual classes.

Culp Creek Church Has New Minister

Rev. W. A. McBride of Salem, his wife and son have established their home in the church parsonage at Culp Creek. He succeeds Rev. Kenneth Brightwell in his pastorate of the Culp Creek Assembly of God Church.

Rev. McBride has lived in Salem for the past year where he was engaged as Director of Visitation with the Evangelistic Temple of that city. Previous to this time, he was pastor in Vernonia for five years. He came to Oregon from California.

Mr. and Mrs. McBride's son is 11 years old. He is a sixth grade student and plays the piano and organ.

Hark, hark! the lark at heaven's gate sings. And Phoebus 'gins arise. —Shakespeare

When the sun shines let foolish gnats make sport. But creep in crannies when he hides his beams. —Shakespeare

God shall judge the righteous and the wicked. —(Ecclesiastes 3, 17.)

Those who, by constant striving and prayer, live in righteousness, are rewarded—daily, hourly—with peace of soul and mind, through God's judgment. Those who deny God in their thoughts and acts cannot be lastingly happy, for in the deep of their hearts they can not know peace.

YES SIR!
