Mothers Club Plans Projects

CRESWELL — The Mothers club met Friday at the Creslaine school. Mrs. Floyd Babcock presided.

The project committee made several suggestions for the year: a Girl Scout campership of $25; $30 toward a movie projector; and $100 for the swimming program, to apply on transportation of children to Cottage Grove.

A discussion was held of the need for more schoolrooms and Mrs. John Westlake, Mrs. E. T. Grouseck and Mrs. G. H. Mowson were appointed to meet with the school directors.

Mrs. W. B. Nixon was appointed chairman of the nursery project during club meetings. The club voted to sponsor the seventh and eighth grade dances as a school activity.

The ways and means committee has planned a hobby show for January and an evening of one-act plays in April for benefits.

The annual benefit cafeteria dinner will be Friday, October 28, with Mrs. Nixon as kitchen chairman and Mrs. Mark Moore as chairman of the dining room service. The dinner will be at the Creslaine school with a menu including roast beef, salmon loaf, mashed potatoes, gravy, choice of salads and vegetables, pie, ice cream, punch and coffee.

The club also voted to sponsor again the census taking for this school district. Mrs. Fayne Taylor is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Everett Gressley, Mrs. William Homer and Mrs. Ray Comstock.

Because of the long business meetings, the program, which was to have featured Miss Mary Watts with an illustrated talk on her recent trip abroad, will be given at a later meeting.

A guest speaker will talk on child psychology at the November 5 meeting.

City Council Meets

CRESWELL — The postponed meeting of the city council was held Monday, October 10. A mayor and two councilmen will be elected in a city election November 8. Retiring officers are Mayor Carlyle Scarbrough and Councilmen H. N. Traxler and E. J. Greenwood. The same election board will serve and will be notified by the recorder.

A meeting of the Oregon Agriculture Chemical Company was announced for 10 a.m. October 14 at the Willamalane hall at Springfield. Weed control will be stressed. A representative from the council is to attend.

The League of Oregon Cities will meet in Portland October 23-25.

The audit of the city books for 1954-55 was received and referred to the finance committee.

Every man who is high up likes to think that he has done it all himself, and the wife smiles and lets it go as that.

—Sir James M. Barrie

Col. Norman G. Reynolds of Portland, son of Mrs. Vernon I. Kovar of Creswell, is attending a 10-month course at the Army War College at Carlisle, Pa. A veteran of 17 years of Army service, Colonel Reynolds has served in the European theatre. He holds the Silver Star, the Bronze Star medal and the Combat Infantryman badge. He received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Oregon in 1949.

Around Town

Regiland Redding of Seattle, Wash., twin brother of M. C. Redding and another brother, W. A. Redding, of Spencer, N. C., visited last week at the M. C. Redding home. They left Friday for Seattle, accompanied by M. C. and by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redding and son, Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hunt of Redmond were recent visitors at the Philip Holt home. Mrs. Hunt is Mrs. Holt's mother.

Bill Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomson, who left this fall to enter college in California, changed his plans and is now taking basic training at Parks AFB near Oakland. Pat Colborn, use of Creswell, is stationed at the same base.

Mrs. Cora M. Olson, former long-time resident of Creswell, suffered bruises and shock in a fall recently at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Aldrich, 616 S. Second st., Cottage Grove. She is now in a hospital chair.

Mrs. Kay Ledward, journalism teacher at the high school, and Carolee Bear, Rhoda Harris, Kay Eversen and Adair Graham, editors of the high school annual, attended a two-day workshop session in Eugene Friday and Saturday, sponsored by the Oregon Scholastic Press.

Officers for the new church year were elected at the October 5 meeting of the Martha Circle of the Presbyterian Women's Association at Fellowship hall. President is Mrs. James Martin; secretary, Mrs. Floyd McKnight; and treasurer, Mrs. Douglas Treiber. Plans were discussed for a baked good sale later in the month and for the annual bazaar November 11.

Eleven members were present. Mrs. C. H. Harrold and Mrs. John Donnelly entertained at the October 5 meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association at Fellowship hall October 5. Materials for the next study course on the American Indian were distributed. Plans were discussed for the annual dinner and bazaar at the November 2 meeting at the home of Mrs. Elton Rider, with Mrs. Mitchell as co-hostess.

Homecoming, November 2, was planned at the October 5 meeting of the Glee Club. IOOF films and other entertainment are planned. Members of Honor Rebekah Lodge will be guests, M. G. Miller and L. J. Quigley were appointed to arrange program numbers for Boy Scouts charter night, October 13, at Creslaine school. Bert Thompson and J. R. Miller will serve refreshments at the October 19 meeting.

The EZ club of Honor Rebekah Lodge met October 4 at the home of Mrs. J. R. Miller. A potluck dinner was served at noon. Mrs. Margaret Holt was a visitor. A report was made on the final payment on an electric range for the IOOF hall, to be installed as soon as possible. Mrs. Holt showed a cuckoo clock she had just received from her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Smith, who is in Germany, where her husband is stationed.

Henry Melhorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Melhorn, suffered bruises and a broken finger in a fall from the family car Saturday west of town. He had lost his hat and in trying to catch it, had opened the door.

The H. I. Dersham family made a hunting trip to eastern Oregon last week. While tracking a deer they encountered a large mother bear and her cub. They killed the bear in self defense and brought the cub to Creswell. It is in a yard at the Dersham home.

Mrs. Margaret Holt assisted with the Elmira grange Booster Night program Saturday night. She attended a Spanish American War Veterans Auxiliary meeting at Cervallis on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Walker were guests of their son, Warren, on the Willamette university campus at Salem for Students weekend activities last weekend.

Mrs. F. B. Good received word the first of the week of the birth of a new granddaughter, Kathy Joyce, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Good of Nelson, Nebr. There are two other girls in the family. Mrs. Good visited her son and family this summer.

Ival S. Wilson, supervisor of the Creswell Ground Observer Corps, met Monday evening with the chief observers to discuss activating the local program. More help is needed for the three-hour shifts between noon and midnight.

The Earl Smith family of Eugene visited Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith. Smith, an employee of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company for several years, has been transferred to a Portland office and is moving there.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reich Jr. of Springfield spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris, and attended fellowship night activities at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart Knudsen of Seattle, Wash., called Saturday on her mother, Mrs. Margaret Holt, and friends about town. They were returning from a meeting of the American Association of Advertisers at Coronado, Mexico. Knudsen, who was graduated in journalism from the University of Oregon, went into the advertising business in Portland a few years ago, and later moved to Seattle. Mrs. Knudsen spent her childhood in Creswell but had not visited here recently.

Set. L. C. Walter Adams and family visited last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Adams. They have made their home at Medford but are moving to Ford Ord, Calif., where he will be stationed.

Mrs. Olive Parlin, who has been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson near Saginaw for several weeks following a month's hospitalization at Cottage Grove, left last week with her granddaughter, Mrs. Jack Wager, and husband for Nampa, Idaho. She will stay with the Wagers at Nampa and with her daughter, Mrs. Macrella Gorslein, at Mesa, until she is strong enough to return to her home here.

Mrs. Viola Carlson of Sacramento, Calif., visited Monday with her brother, H. N. Traxler, and Mrs. Traxler. Her mother, Mrs. Clara Traxler, and sister, Miss Lois Traxler, of Eugene accompanied her.

Mrs. W. M. Harris, Mrs. Grace Tendick and Mrs. Russel Tendick entertained the Dorcas Circle of the Methodist church at the Harris home October 5. Mrs. Blanche Petty was a guest. Mrs. Blanche Gwyther led the devotions, with the theme from Psalm 105. The group voted to appoint a member each month to co-operate with one from the Miriam Circle in caring for the children on WSCS day. The ways and means committee announced that Christmas cards will be on sale and that plans will be announced for a benefit program. Hostesses for the November 2 meeting are Mrs. E. E.
