LYNX HOLLOW—A meeting was held October 10 for the bond election. Voting was 31 for, 6 no. The money, $5,500, will be for restrooms and a covered walkway to the lunchroom. Construction will be started in several weeks. All school board members were present.

The Lynx Hollow club met October 7. Nine members were present. Mrs. Glen Bricker is a new member. New officers elected are, president, Mrs. Kenneth VanNortwick; vice president, Mrs. Orville Lamb; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Lawrence Fisher. The club will meet at 1 p.m. at the school lunchroom the first and third Fridays of each month.

The school children had a home-made candy sale October 7. The $4 profit will go toward the purchase of a new record player.

Mrs. Orville Lamb left recently on a four-week vacation. She will be visiting relatives at Fresno, Calif., and Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hansen and sons left for Minnesota Friday. They will be gone the rest of this month. Mrs. Charles Bivens will take care of their place.

The Lynx Hollow grocery is closed. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Price, owners, have purchased a store on Dillard Road.

Jimmy Lewis Matthews was absent from school all last week due to illness.

The deer reported killed so far were gotten by Elmer Korpela, Glen Bricker, Roy Stalder, Charles Bivens, Clyde Cox, Norman Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, Paul, Ben and Dave Macauley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bivens, Helen and Luther were dinner guests at the Robert Gambill home at Marcola Sunday.

Mrs. Stalder is the new Sentinel correspondent for Lynx Hollow. Residents of the community may call her with news items for the paper.

SEALS PROTECTED

In 1891, a special detachment of marines, in addition to those on the several vessels of the Pacific Squadron, assisted in an effort to put a stop to the wholesale destruction of seals in the Bering Sea.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY AMES stopped in Cottage Grove last Thursday on their way to Portland from their home in Fullerton, Calif., to look for a long-lost step-brother, Ames, who lived here for a while at the turn of the century but left in 1900 when he was 22, is searching for Blaine Jackson, the relative, with whom he lost contact many years ago. Ames is now retired after serving as a mechanical engineer in a creamery for many years. The couple's address is 102 Marian Blvd., Fullerton.
