

SOCIETY

Phone 555 or 556

Friends, Relatives Honor Kellys On 60th Wedding Anniversary

On December 4, 1895, Frank Kelly and Miss Jessie Garoutte were married at Cottage Grove. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with an open house at their home at 310 South 17th street. They have lived in or around Cottage Grove since childhood.

Numerous relatives and friends attended the reception sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Kelly's daughter, Mrs. Rita Stroh, and their son, Lawrence Kelly. Lawrence, district manager of J. C. Penney Co. in Portland, was unable to attend because of a managers meeting in New York City.

Among the guests who came from a distance to congratulate the Kellys were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Garoutte of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris and Mrs. Loretta Hastings of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hart of Portland.

Mrs. Hastings (Reta Kelly) and Mrs. Jones (Rena Kelly) sisters of Frank Kelly, poured coffee and served the cake at Sunday's anniversary event. Both were in attendance at their brother's wedding 60 years ago. Mrs. Hart, sister of Mrs. Frank Kelly, and Mr. Hart observed their 61st wedding anniversary last June. Officiating at the wedding in 1895 was the Reverend Mr. Walden, a Baptist minister.

Present at both the 50th and 60th anniversaries were Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Darrel Garoutte, Earl Garoutte, Mrs. Nona Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kime, Mrs. Clyde Youngblood, Mrs. Lydia Clydesdale, Mrs. Pauline Hiner, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Garoutte, Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Stroh, and Don Stacey.

NOW Have Annual Christmas Dinner

Neighbors of Woodcraft Christmas dinner Tuesday evening was attended by about 40 persons. Members did not exchange gifts but took canned goods for Christmas cheer baskets. Children present had an exchange of gifts.

Dinner tables were decorated with candles, holly and other greenery and candy canes marked each person's place. Four tables were placed at right angles to a small table on which the decorated Christmas tree stood. Mrs. Ralph Hawley had charge of the decorations.

Group singing before and after dinner furnished entertainment, of which Mrs. William J. Bartels was chairman. A business meeting presided over by Mrs. Lucella Thrush followed dinner.

There will be no social meeting in December but next meeting will be January 3 when Mrs. Hazel Morris and Mrs. Lorraine Miller will head the refreshment committee.

SOUTH LANE STAMP SOCIETY MEETS TONIGHT

South Lane Stamp Society meets in regular session December 8 (tonight), at 7:30 p.m. in the clubroom of the city library. Everyone is requested to take their duplicate stamps for a general trading session. The grab-box will also be auctioned at this meeting. All Cottage Grove area stamp collectors are invited to attend.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK KELLY, who were married here in 1895, observed their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday at an open house at their home. Friends and relatives, numbering 47, called. Two sisters of Mr. Kelly, who were at the wedding 60 years ago, attended the anniversary open house.

Newlyweds Reside Here, Wed in Boise

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lansbery announce the marriage of their daughter, Kay, to Don Heck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson. Both families live in Cottage Grove.

The couple was married at Boise, Idaho, October 28, at the home of E. A. Fulton, cousin of the bridegroom. Mr. Kenneth Beckman, minister of the Boise Church of Christ, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The couple was accompanied to Boise by their mothers. Attending the wedding besides Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Lansbery were Mr. and Mrs. Fulton, their daughter, Gail, and Otto Karlskint, the bridegroom's cousin.

The bride was attired in a two-piece knit poudre-blue suit, white accessories and wore a corsage of pink dwarf rosebuds.

Attending the couple as maid of honor and best man were Gail Fulton and E. A. Fulton. Miss Fulton wore a royal blue knit suit and corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Heck have returned to high school where he is a senior and she a sophomore. They are presently at the home of his parents. Heck is employed part time at the Cecil Beck Motor Co.

Christmas Bazaar All Day

Merchants Lunch at 11
Tea Room at 10:30

Methodist Church
Saturday, Dec. 10

Stardusters Plan Christmas Party

Stardusters square dance club is planning a Christmas party for the beginners class Wednesday, December 14, at VFW hall. The party will start at 7 p.m. with a potluck dinner. There will be an exchange of gifts later in the evening.

During November, four couples from the Eugene - Springfield area joined the Stardusters club. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nickson, Mr. and Mrs. Maury Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck McCoy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carson.

November 24 the following Stardusters attended the Cascade Callers dance at Springfield: Mr. and Mrs. "Dude" Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Westfall, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gates and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Sibley, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nickson and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gorman. "Dude" Sibley participated in the calling program, along with many other callers.

Out-of-town guests attended the Stardusters club dance December 2. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Norval Cockram, Mr. and Mrs. Al Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ex Messinger, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Witten, all members of the Boots and Calico club of Winston. Norval Cockram and Elsie Downs accepted invitations to call during the evening.

Regular third Friday night of the month for the Stardusters will be December 16. Dancing starts at 8 p.m. at the VFW hall. Club members are asked to take either sandwiches or dessert. All square dancers are invited to attend.

Shower Honors Recent Bride

The Fireside room of the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ was decorated with baskets of large white chrysanthemums last Wednesday afternoon when the women of the church entertained at a bridal shower for a recent bride, Mrs. Don Heck (Kay Lansbery).

The bride was showered with many lovely gifts which were opened at a table covered with a lace cloth. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Bruce Lansbery Jr., and her husband's mother, Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Entertainment was appropriate games with Mrs. Darrell Eastman in charge. Refreshments of brightly decorated cookies and punch were served at the close of the afternoon.

Guests present were: Mmes. Winfred West, George White, Bruce Lansbery Sr., Delbert Owens, Sandy Wiese, Frona Caton, W. J. Miller, Bessie Smith, Ed Finnerty, Marvin Shaw, F. H. Robertson, Frank VanNortwick, Ivan Abene, Bruce Lansbery Jr., Ray Derby, Arthur Nerlie, Zelma Carr, James Hiemenway, Glenn Bricker, Gerold Witherspoon, Lula Babb, Darrell Eastman, Robert Anderson, Mary Johnson, Tina Beach, Ray Thies and Johnson. Several children also attended.

The wedding gifts but unable to attend were: Mmes. Eva Aubrey, Pete Tonole, H. A. Mason, Ralph Aubrey, Pat Kerr, W. D. Hubbell, and Miss Goldie Hayes.

Nathalie Guild To Aid Memorial

Nathalie Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church will send a memorial contribution in honor of Louise Bunch to be used in building the new wing at the Methodist Home in Portland. The wing will be named in honor of Louise Bunch, an outstanding church worker from Oregon, who was killed in the recent plane crash at Longmont, Colo., on her way home from a church meeting in the middle west.

Plans to help with the memorial and for a bazaar December 10 were made at an evening meeting of the guild December 1 in the church parlor. Miss Marjorie Arnold, president, presided at the business session.

A worship table was prepared by Miss Melissa Clark. Mrs. Dan Olson had charge of devotions and Mrs. Tom Gallo led the Bible study.

Next meeting will be January 3 at the church parlor with Mrs. Mark Morgan and Mrs. George Wickendoll as hostesses.

All Church Dinner, Pictures Attract Crowd at Church

Approximately 160 persons, including members, their families and a few friends gathered last Thursday night at the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ for an all-church potluck dinner and fellowship, which was sponsored by the Builders class.

The committee in charge included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perkins, Minister F. Sherwood Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Dills and Mr. and Mrs. George Crosby. The reception committee was composed of the Elders of the church and their wives.

Members of the different Sunday school classes served on various committees.

During the meal, the Red Tie quartet entertained with a vocal number. Members of the quartet were Rex Beach, Larry Aldrich, Craig Hickok, and Don Heck. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bob Beach.

After dinner the group met in the auditorium for singing of choruses led by Sherwood Smith and to view the interesting colored slides taken in Japan, Korea and Hawaiian Islands by Gordon Patten while in the service of the Army. He received his eight weeks of advanced training in Japan, and while there took many graphic pictures. Of special interest to the congregation were the pictures of Korean orphans receiving gifts last Christmas, which had been sent by members of the local church, and the Christian work being accomplished in Korea. Patten served most of his time at Seoul.

Another picture of special interest was that of five-year-old Israel Parades, a motherless Mexican boy, who is being supported by the royal Womans' club. This picture was sent to Mrs. Ed Finnerty by Miss Mary Rodd Mm; nerty by Missionary Rodney Northrup.

Square Dancers Face Busy Season

Boots and Sandals square dance club will have a cooked food sale December 10 at the Coast to Coast store.

Upcoming events at Roseburg in the coming weekend will draw local square dancers. One is a dance Saturday starting at 8:30 p.m. and the other a jamboree Sunday from 1 to 3 p.m. Howard Barnard will be calling at both.

A Mistletoe Party for all classes and members is planned for December 20 at 7:30 p.m. in VFW hall. Everyone is to take a 50-cent gift marked for a man or woman.

Last weekend, concrete was poured at the new barn and general cleaning was done. Working Saturday Sunday were Les Coimer, Carl Rich, Nathan and Lawrence Maddox, Dale Baker, Bud and Ronnie Landers, Buck Ritter, Buck Hubbard, Basil Kyle, Bill Olson, Cecil Caldwell, Don Black, Virgil Shepherd, Red Bridwell, Bud Swensen, Claude and Marvin Abene, Addison Heath, Art Kuhl, Harry Nord, and Howard Barnard.

Coffee and cookies were served the weekend crew of workmen by Maxine Swensen, Harry Hubbard, Dot Heath, Kathy Leving, and Vangie Landers.

Thursday evening, December 1, a large crowd was present at a potluck dinner, which was followed by dancing. Out-of-town guests were Harold and Lillian Allison, Bill and Polly Pollock, Bill and Betty Forest, Jim and Lulabelle Potter, Orville and Alma Singer, Sid and Nettie Walling, Leigh and Nancy Randall, Marzella and Bruce Anawalt, Frank and Hazel Rayfield of Eugene Dancho Circle 8 club.

Saturday evening dancing was at Walker gym. Guests of the evening were Francis and Flois Walling, Sam and Nellie Jordan, Margaret and Dee Doolittle of Walter, ville and Gertie and Virgil Shepherd of Blue River. White elephants were taken to the affair and door prizes went to William Norris and Geneva Ballew.

GOWDYVILLE CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY DEC. 14 The Gowdyville club Christmas party will be the afternoon of December 14 at the home of Mrs. Cox at Knox Hill. A gift exchange will be held.

Our special gift is helping you look your loveliest. Hair style, shampoo and set.

Modern Beauty Shop
Evenings by Appointment.
3 Operators to Serve You.
Jean Griffin, Prop.
622 Whiteaker Phone 880

Mrs. Marie Malcolm New Worthy Matron Order of Eastern Star

Mrs. Marie Malcolm was elected worthy matron of Cottage Grove chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at the annual election of officers December 1. Taylor Young will serve with her as installation will be at an open meeting at the Masonic Temple at 8 p.m. December 18.

Other new officers are: Mrs. Dolores Porter, associate matron; Lawrence Porter, associate patron; Miss Eunice Vandenberg, secretary; Mrs. Barbara Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Edith Long, conductor; Mrs. Vesta Wheeler, associate conductor. Other officers will be appointed by the new worthy matron.

Initiation was conducted for Mr. and Mrs. George F. Snyder, Genevieve Nelson, worthy matron, and Ray Nelson, worthy patron, presided at the meeting.

Refreshments were served by the committee. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hansen, Mrs. Myra Macready, Mrs. Earl Ballew, and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. King.

Next meeting will be December 13. Constellation club will have a covered dish dinner Thursday (tonight) and a Christmas tree with gift exchange. All Eastern Star members are invited and to take a 50-cent gift and a salad or dessert. Turkey is provided by the Masons.

Those who have not yet given their canned fruit for the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove are asked to take it to the temple Thursday.

Reception to Fete Goldenwed Pair

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bowser Sunday, December 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bowser, 1610 South Ninth street, will honor the former couple on their golden wedding anniversary. The L. A. Bowsters arrived recently from their home at Eureka Springs, Ark., to visit their children. Friends are invited to the reception.

When the destination is desirable, expectation speeds our progress.—Mary Baker Eddy

Bazaar to Feature Gift Items, Lunch

Sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, a bazaar will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. December 10 at the church.

In the booths will be dish towels and fancy work, toys and baby items, aprons, white elephants, cooked food and harvest foods, Christmas decorations, gifts, and candy. A tea room will be open all day for pie, cake and coffee.

A merchant's lunch will be served from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

GS NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING DECEMBER 15 Girl Scout neighborhood meeting will be December 15 at 9:30 a.m. at the Presbyterian church. (Continued on Page 7)

WSCS Meeting To Be All Day

Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will have an all-day meeting December 14. Executive committee will meet at 10:30 a.m., the prayer group at 11:30 a.m.

A sack luncheon will be served at noon, dessert being served at 12:30 p.m. by the hostesses, Mrs. Robert Moody, Mrs. Floyd Way and Mrs. Charles Wert.

The business meeting will start at 1 p.m. with Mrs. John Long as program leader and Mrs. C. N. Land leading devotions.

This is the way Our Stock will probably look by Christmas

This is the way it looks now. Understand what we mean? Shop now while selection is best.

Velma's SMART SHOP

Next to the Old Bank Bldg.

the season's best from Penney's

This Christmas Give Her LOVELY LINGERIE

EVERYTHING FROM BRIEFS TO GOWNS AND SLIPS. SHEER NYLONS TO COLOR INSPIRED RAYONS. TRULY EXCEPTIONAL AT THESE LOW PRICES!

Beautifully styled in nylon tricot knit in full length styles. Varied detail and sleeve treatments. She will love one of these.

$3.98

$2.98

Here's An Excellent Gift

NYLON "BABY DOLL" GOWNS

New "baby doll" gowns with matching ruffled pantie. Sharp festive colors in easy-to-care-for nylon tricot.

$3.98

Here's a Money Saver Just in Time for Christmas

Simulated Leather Moccasins

Hand beaded, richly fur trimmed. They are warmly lined, have split leather padded soles. Red or Blue. Women's sizes 4 to 9.

$1.77

Give Your Budget a Holiday!

NYLON TRICOT GOWNS

Lovely, long lasting 30-denier tricot, they're in your pet styles—classic V-necks, square or scoop necks—all daintily-decked with trim. Sizes 32 to 40.

$2.99

COTTAGE GROVE PHARMACY

for

BETTER GIFTS

We have the following Nationally Advertised lines to choose from besides hundreds of other gifts...

Old Spice—Yardley—Du Barry—Chen Yu—Evening in Paris
Jergens—Woodbury—Courtley—Max Factor—Seaforth
Kings Men—Sheaffer Pens and Pencils

CHOCOLATES

Whitman — Brown and Haley — Canterbury

We have a large selection of TOYS and GAMES now on display.

Shop now for Christmas for a better selection.

Use Our Lay-Away Plan

COTTAGE GROVE PHARMACY

We Give Saving Stamps

632 Main St.

Cottage Grove