

SENTINEL FARM and GARDEN

W. M. Bumpus to Show Polled Hereford Bulls In Redmond March 2-3

W. M. Bumpus of the Fir Ridge Ranch, Cottage Grove, is consigning three bulls to the 6th annual Oregon Polled Hereford Association show and sale to be held in Redmond, Oregon, March 2 and 3, 1956, according to word received from Gordon Dunham, Corvallis, secretary of the Oregon Polled Hereford Association.

According to Dunham, the sale committee of the association has just completed a three-day trip to inspect consignments to the spring sale.

Those persons desiring any further information regarding this event may contact Mr. Bumpus or write to the secretary of the Oregon Polled Hereford Association, P. O. Box 831, Corvallis, Oregon.

LORANE GRANGE PLANS

By Mrs. R. G. Conner

LORANE GRANGE — Plans for the potluck supper and birthday celebration were made at the last grange meeting. Members whose birthdays fall in October, November and December will be honored December 27.

The silver drill for the last two meetings to be presented to the Eugene Crippled Childrens Hospital School.

A big bundle of Yuletide happiness is our wish for all our friends and neighbors! May Santa supply all your hearts' desires!

Knickerbocker's

of Course

Largest Variety of Toys in the Valley

5c & 10c & $1.00

It's Our Pleasure To Extend Season's Greetings

to our friends, our employees, our patrons and to the community.

Friends can not be acquired by lavish generosity or careless bestowal of favor, for friendship is developed solely through sharing with another that confidence and understanding which prompts this Christmas greeting to you.

W. A. Woodard Lumber Co.

Wonderful Gifts

at wonderful prices!

Here's your chance Mother — to get dad the ideal Gift... Get him an ELECTRIC RAZOR — we have a fine selection to choose from.

Remington—
Schick—
Sunbeam—Ronson—Norelco—

Also ladies we have an electric razor for you, too! Remington and Sunbeam.

See these at

Stokes Jewelers

816 Main

Ph. 709

Dorena Grange Christmas Dinner, Program Held 16th

By Mrs. Ralph Plaisted

DORENA GRANGE — A large crowd attended the grange Christmas dinner and the Christmas program which followed December 16.

The next grange meeting will be the evening of January 6, 1956, and the first and second degrees will be put on for new candidates for membership. A cordial invitation is extended to other granges to bring their candidates to receive the degree work that night.

The grange secretary would like to remind members that dues are now payable and to please pay as soon as possible. Dues are $3 per year and may be mailed to Mrs. Walter Downes, Route 1, Box 274, Cottage Grove. She will be at the meeting early on January 6 to accept the payments.

Due to the holiday season the next square dancing lesson will be postponed and the next lesson will come on the following regular lesson date, January 14, at 8 p.m. Cookies or sandwiches should be taken for refreshments.

All Ages Take Part In Hebron Event

By Mrs. Gale Roby

HEBRON GRANGE — The Christmas program at Hebron Grange December 17, was presented by the lecturer, Marvin Miller. Opening the program was the singing by all of "Joy to the World," led by Mrs. Hugh Trunnell, who also accompanied on the piano. Mr. Trunnell accompanied on the melophone.

Five-year-old Fonda Miller gave a recitation; Mrs. J. L. Godard gave a reading, "The Week Before Christmas"; Jolene and Karen Roby sang, "White Christmas," a skit, "Christmas Eve," was given by Jack Godard, "Gramps," Clare Chapman, Marion Chapman, Alice, Dennis Chapman, and Leslie Chapman, putting up the family Christmas tree. Mrs. Marvin Miller read the script.

Karen Roby recited, "Other Children"; Mike Berken, recitation; George MacKenzie played "Holy Night" on his harmonica; Jack Hudson gave a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Trunnell; Mrs. Fred Harris gave two readings; a candle-lighting ceremony was accompanied by a chorus singing Christmas carols, as candle bearers. Jolene Roby, Kay McCoy and Wanda Heinrich, marched slowly to the altar, to give their light to the world and render their message on Joy, Peace and Good Will. In pantomime on the stage were angels, Ellen Harris, Beverly Heinrich, Karen Roby. The singing of "Jingle Bells" by the chorus, was joined in by adults in the audience and the children, as a lively Santa danced creating much merriment. He greeted individuals in an impromptu journey through the audience, before hearing what they wanted for Christmas as the children lined up to sit on Santa's lap. Candy, popcorn balls and oranges were presented to all.

Visitors included Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heinrich and a daughter, Wanda and Beverly.

Square dancing filled the evening, with music and calls by Dale Harris. Refreshments of cookies and cup cakes, coffee and colada were served.

HEC Prepares Treats

Home Economics club met December 15 to prepare grange Christmas party treats. Decorated tables were set in the main hall for a potluck noon meal. Hostesses were Mrs. Inez Kramer, Mrs. Seldon Powell. Twenty-eight adults and 14 young children attended. Mrs. Thomas Stockman of Eugene demonstrated an instant coffee product and heating urn.

Mrs. Fred Harris, chairman, was able to attend and conduct the afternoon meeting. It was announced the HEC county conference was to be January 14 at Santa Clara. Regular Hebron HEC meeting, January 23, will be a no-hostess meeting at the hall, and will be a work-planning day. It was voted to send flowers to HEC officers who are hospitalized. A collection was taken to buy cards for the card committee for all members. A gift will be sent to the new baby of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harris.

The several million blueprints used in the construction of the Navy aircraft carrier USS FORRESTAL would form a pathway 30 inches wide extending for 2-100 miles.

So They Say

until he promised to get their radio fixed at Ed's. After the fine job we did on their TV set, he knows their radio will be in good hands.

Cottage Grove Farm Bureau Meeting Tells of Many Events in Early 1956

By Mrs. John Woolcott

THE Cottage Grove Farm Bureau Center met Tuesday, December 13, at the home of Mrs. O. M. Patten conducted the business meeting at which time it was voted to table the OPS-OFB Health Protection Program until another meeting.

Announcement was made of the membership drive to be held January 9-10. If any farmer and his wife are interested in joining they should contact the Membership Chairman O. A. Downie, phone 1666R2.

Read A. Hemenway reported that the Dairy Commodity committee will hold a meeting Wednesday, December 21, (yesterday) at 2 p.m. at the courthouse in Eugene to declare Lane County an accredited county Bangs-free area. He also explained the resolutions voted upon at the committee's last meeting.

Dr. H. A. Hagen sent a message asking the local Farm Bureau

Center to sponsor the Educational Meetings this year. The group voted to do this and a committee consisting of John W. Woolcott, chairman, Read A. Hemenway, and Chris Moss was chosen to decide when and where the meetings would be held and to plan a program of speakers.

David Moss announced that the Poultry Commodity Committee under the sponsorship of the Lane County Extension Service will hold a series of meetings at 8 p.m. January 30, February 6-13-20-27 at Pioneer Park, Eugene. These meetings should be of interest to all poultry farmers in the area.

O. M. Patten told of the Soil Conservation annual meeting to be held in the evening February 20 at the Hebron Grange hall.

David Moss showed colored slides and gave a very interesting talk on his trip to the FFA convention in Kansas City.

Refreshments were served by

Mrs. Chris Moss and Mrs. Lee Kruse.

MARINE POSTS FOR WOMEN

Women Marine officers are assigned many duties performed by male officers including, but not limited to, aerology, communications, disbursing, instruction, personnel administration and classification, public information and special services.

COMING SOON AT THE ARCADE THEATRE

Just popped in with a bright 'n cheerful Yuletide message for you. We hope you enjoy a holiday season that's really jolly.

RANDALL AND WOOLCOTT

Building

41 So. 6th

Service

Ph. 41

As we approach the threshold of another year our thoughts turn gratefully to those whose courtesy, good will and loyalty have helped make our progress possible.

In this spirit we extend to you the Season's Greetings

Floyd Githens and All Employees

COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON