High School Group Grooms New Year At Party, Worship

Miss Garnet Beach, who was home on vacation from the University of Washington, Seattle, entertained a group of 25 high school students at a watch party New Year's Eve at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beach.

The early part of the evening was spent in table games, and refreshments with Miss Beach's grandmother, Mrs. Tina Beach, assisting in serving.

At 11 p.m. a devotional program was presented with Miss Beach leading in a number of devotional songs and choruses, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. F. Sherwood Smith and the piano by Mrs. Beach. The boys' trio sang "I Will Arise and Go to My Father." The trio, composed of Craig Hickok, Larry Aldrich and Rex Beach, was accompanied by Mrs. Beach. Mrs. Smith sang "The Heavenly Vision," accompanying herself. Gordon Patten brought an inspirational message "Whose Year?" Nina Hinman and Mrs. Beach sang "What Shall I Give Thee Master?" accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

Just before midnight the group joined hands in a circle and watched the old year out and the new year in with all participating in prayers.

Mt. View HE Club To Meet Jan. 13

Mt. View Home Extension group will have its next meeting at 10 a.m. Friday, January 13, at the Dorena Grange hall. An extension agent will give the lesson on Family Business.

Anyone interested in the sewing machine cleaning clinic should contact either Mrs. Shreve at 272 or Mrs. Banton at 106713 between January 9 and 11.

Helen E. Haynes of Eugene spent the Christmas weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross.

White Elephant Party Entertaining

A white elephant party proved very entertaining for the Intermediate Boys and Girls and their teachers, Gerold Witherspoon and Mrs. Bob Beach, of the Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ Friday evening at the church. A prize was given for the funniest white elephant. Things were brought that only the imagination of an Intermediate would think of, it is reported. Games pertaining to elephants furnished the evening's entertainment, which was followed by a "trading post" where the 22 young people exchanged their white elephants. The evening closed with serving refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade.

Local Pair Married In Vancouver Rite

Miss Ada Mae Ketcherside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ketcherside, and Howard Frederick Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jenkins, both of Route 1, were married Wednesday, December 22, at Vancouver, Wash. Both young people are graduates of Cottage Grove High School. They are making their home in Cottage Grove.

LANE EXTENSION AGENT SPEAKS FOR ESA GROUP

Mrs. William Riley, Lane County Home Extension agent, spoke to members and guests of Beta Zeta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Wednesday evening, December 28, at the city library. She gave an interesting and informative talk on tables and accessories and gave out illustrated material.

Next meeting will be January 11 at the home of Mrs. Lester Gates.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Thum during the holidays were their children, granddaughter and great-grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wycoff, Roseburg; Mrs. Bonnie Jean Borthwick, U. of O., and her three children, and Jack Beager of Sweet Home.

Friends Celebrate Birthdays Together

Mrs. Lillian Gray Belknap and Mrs. A. C. Spriggs celebrated their birthdays together, as they have done for six years, Thursday, December 29. The two met for noon dinner at the D and M Cafe. Mrs. Belknap was observing her 85th birthday. Combined ages of the two local women total 152 years.

Joint observance of birthdays for those born December 29 was started six years ago by Viola De Haven. Each year the group has met for dinner. Although there have been five present some years, only Mrs. Belknap and Mrs. Spriggs attended this year.

Mrs. Belknap spent the afternoon with her son, Ronald Gray, and his family. She was presented with a corsage of red roses by her two grandsons, Michael and Robert Bruce Gray. At 5:30 p.m. Mrs. Ronald Gray served waffles and ham and a birthday cake was cut. Family gifts were presented. Many old neighbors and friends sent gifts and cards. Others were received from a niece in Tripoli, North Africa; a nephew in Washington, D. C. and from Nevada, Idaho and Washington.

Mrs. Belknap is permanently located in the Grove Court Motel in Apartment 12, where friends may visit her.

Those enjoying the day together were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller and family of Crabtree, Oreg., Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Miller and family of Lebanon, Lester Miller, San Carlos, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Derby, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith, parents of Sherwood Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Smith, daughters Sherry and Rhea.

BROWNIES PACK BASKET, SING CAROLS FOR SHUTINS
Brownie Troop 192 of Girl Scouts made a basket for a needy family for Christmas. Mrs. Francis Turner and Mrs. Dale McGuire are leaders.

In spite of the rain two Brownie Scout troops, 128 and 68, went caroling the evening of December 20. They entertained elderly people in rest homes and several shut-in friends. Butchie Langston accompanied on the accordion. Several mothers accompanied the girls, including Mrs. Clay Anlauf, Mrs. Lowell Malsbury, Mrs. George McAlpine, and Mrs. Richard Olson, and the following troop committee members: Mrs. Wilbur Hoopes, Mrs. Marion Younklin, Mrs. Fred Langston Jr., and Mrs. Norris Olson.

Everyone went to Mrs. McAlpine's home for hot chocolate following the caroling.

Recent visitors at Disneyland in Southern California were Mr. and Mrs. Verl Thompson, daughter Barbara and twin sons, Larry and Jerry. The Thompsons, who live on Black Butte route, Cottage Grove, also were guests at Disneyland Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Stanley, who are stationed at Alameda, Calif., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Stanley, for the holidays. He was on a 10-day leave from the Navy. The visitors got in just ahead of the floods. Earl Stanley is dam tender at Dorena Dam.

Disston Miss Tells Engagement News

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wiscarson of Disston announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Louise, to A. C. Alvin L. Woodruff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Red Woodruff of Mosby Creek. Definite plans for the wedding have not yet been announced.

Mr. Woodruff is stationed at Chanute Air Force base at Chanute, Ill. He has two years more to serve.

Lorane Teacher Married at Tiller

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
LORANE—Miss Martha Ann Gosnell of Tiller became the bride of David Turnbull of Lorane at a candlelight ceremony December 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the South Umpqua Community Church at Tiller. Miss Gosnell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Gosnell of Tiller and he is the son of Mrs. H. E. Turnbull of Nevada, Mo.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of lace over satin with a net veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses held on a white Bible.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. John Newman of Medford. She wore a red floor-length dress and a corsage of white roses.

Best man was the groom's brother-in-law, Dr. Jack Shepherd, of Burlington, Calif.

Twin baskets of tall red poinsettias were placed on each side of the altar.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Tiller high school gymnasium. This was followed by a wedding supper for relatives and close friends at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Turnbull is teacher of shop and science at Lorane High School. The couple is at home in Eugene.

Rebekah, IOOF Lodges to Install In Joint Ceremony

Cottage Grove Rebekah and IOOF lodges will have joint installation Saturday January 14, at 8 p.m. at the IOOF hall. All elective and appointive officers for the coming year and all installing officers will meet at the hall for practice this Sunday, January 8, at 1:30 p.m.

At the recent meeting of Rebekahs, Mrs. Gladys Hatch, Mrs. Mildred Teich and Mrs. Mac Maloney were appointed on the by-laws committee. Mrs. Hatch gave a report on the recent district convention.

Cheer baskets were sent to shut-in members during the holidays and two baskets were given to needy families.

Mrs. Lena McFarland was welcomed as a new member by transfer. On behalf of Mrs. Leita Stewart, who was unable to be present, Mrs. Florence Walker presented a gift to the Noble Grand. Next meeting will be January 11 when potluck refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Trobeck and son, Leland, San Francisco, came to spend the holidays with Mrs. Trobeck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marden. They also visited Mrs. Trobeck's two sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hanks.

Patricia Pynes Tells Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pynes announce the engagement of their daughter Patricia Yvonne, to Robert Dennis Hunter, son of Mrs. Gerald Asbury. No date for the wedding is set.

Both young people are graduates of Cottage Grove High School. Miss Pynes in 1955, her fiancé in 1950. Mr. Hunter is on the Eugene police force and attends Eugene Vocational School. Miss Pynes is attending Oregon State College.

Vines, Foundation Plantings Studied

Cottage Grove Home Gardeners had their first meeting of the new year January 3 at the home of Mrs. Charles Wood. Luncheon was served at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Merlin Johnson was the hostess assisted by Mrs. Alta King.

Mrs. King gave an interesting talk on vines which could be used to advantage to screen unsightly views, along fences, trellises, and as shade screens. Foundation and shade screen plantings, considered more as a frame for the house and be in proportion to the type of house, were discussed by Mrs. Norman Richards. A timely resume of what to do in gardens this month was given by Mrs. Alvin Dugan.

Next meeting will be at Mrs. Vernon Thorsen's home February 7.

TELEPHONE ALMANACS NOW AVAILABLE

The 1956 Telephone Almanac published by the Bell System now is available and copies can be obtained at the Cottage Grove business office, according to C. W. Hawkins, manager for Pacific Telephone.

Typical of almanacs, the booklet contains valuable information for farmers, businessmen, housewives, students and other telephone users, as well as many historical facts and dates. It also has a four-page color insert on new telephone features.

Pakistan Student Visits Grove Home

A guest last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hoyer was R. U. Kadri, a recent arrival from Karachi, Pakistan. Mr. Kadri now is enrolled for winter term as a student in the sociology department at University of Oregon, Eugene.

A mutual friend, Mohammed A. Chaudhri, former student at University of Oregon, who has returned to Pakistan, made arrangements for the new student to get in touch with the Hoyers upon his arrival for help in getting located in Eugene. While visiting here, before entering the university, Mr. Kadri was also a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sudrow, Mrs. Hoyer's parents. Monday the younger Hoyers and their guest were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer for luncheon and to watch the Rose Bowl game. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bush and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Hoyer.

Leaving Karachi November 8, the new UO student traveled by train to London and Southampton, on the Queen Elizabeth from Southampton to New York and by bus from New York to British Columbia and thence to Eugene. He made the trip by way of British Columbia to visit a brother, who was ill there.
