

SOCIETY

Phone 555 or 556

Miss Doris Long Married in Seattle, Travels to New Home in Phoenix, Ariz.

By Mrs. Roy L. Stone
Miss Doris Long of Seattle, Wash., daughter of Mrs. John A. Long of Cottage Grove and the late Mr. Long, was married January 28 in University Presbyterian chapel, Seattle, to Carl E. Spencer Jr. The ceremony was performed by Dr. David L. Cowie, pastor of University Presbyterian church, at 7:30 p.m.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Spencer of Seattle.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert A. Long of Corvallis, the bride was dressed in white net and lace over satin. Her shoulder-length veil was caught in a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and hyacinths, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Joan A. Barker of Cottage Grove was matron attendant for her sister. Her gown was of California pink wine lace over taffeta; her flowers a nosegay made of shades of pink carnations. Mrs. Robert A. Long, bridesmaid, was dressed like the matron-of-honor and carried a similar bouquet.

David Moomaw served as best man. Fred Denny and Jack Kenner Jr. were ushers. All are of Seattle.

Chancel and aisle candelabra were trimmed with greens and white flowers. The altar piece was of pink and white carnations, stock and deep pink roses.

Mrs. Long wore a Dior blue crepe dress with rhinestone trim for the wedding. Her flowers were a corsage of pink baby orchids. The groom's mother wore a dress of toast brown lace and her corsage was of yellow and brown baby orchids.

At the reception in the church parlor, Mrs. Elizabeth Jensonson and Mrs. Anita Berger poured. Mrs. Robert Wraith and Mrs. Margaret Shepherd cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Edwin East presided at the guest book. The cake was in the shape of a malted cross, topped by bride and groom.

Leaving for their honeymoon the couple traveled to Phoenix, Ariz., where they have been at home since February 20. For traveling the bride wore a black and white silk tuxedo suit with flamingo accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Spencer is a graduate of Oregon State college, with a bachelor of science degree, and a member of Delta Gamma sorority. Mr. Spencer has a degree in industrial engineering from Portland University and is an industrial engineer with Boeing Aircraft.

'Discipleship' Topic At Guild Meeting

"Discipleship" was the topic for the devotion led by Mrs. Ethan Coston at the monthly meeting of the Methodist church Thursday night in the church parlor.

Hostesses for the evening serving a dessert course preceding the meeting were Mrs. Tom Gallo and Miss Della Gallo.

Bible study was continued on the Book of Ezekiel under the leadership of Mrs. Gallo. Members responded to roll call by telling something of interest about a Bible flower. Miss Marjorie Arnold, president, conducted the business meeting.

Present for the meeting were: Miss Arnold, Mrs. Coston, Mrs. Gallo, Miss Gallo, Mrs. Leah Jarvis, Mrs. Bert Land, Mrs. Mark Morgan, Mrs. Eva Miller, Mrs. Dan Olsen, Mrs. Lulu Perkins, Mrs. George Wickendoll and one guest, Mrs. William George.

Hostesses for the next meeting April 5 will be Mrs. Miller and Miss Arnold.

RESEARCH TO MEET

Research club will meet Tuesday, March 13, at the home of Mrs. Jess Hill. Harold Tryk will have the program.

MR. AND MRS. CARL E. SPENCER JR. (Doris Anne Long) were married recently in Seattle. Mrs. Spencer is the daughter of Mrs. John A. Long of Cottage Grove. The couple went to Phoenix, Ariz., to live.

FIVE GENERATIONS shown in this picture include a 94-year-old great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Ida Cleveland, Blachly, extreme right, and her seven-month-old great granddaughter, Renee Oakes, daughter of Arthur Oakes (left) of Renton, Wash. Seated in front of Arthur Oakes is his mother, Mrs. Albert Oakes, Salem, Mrs. Oscar Wheeler, Beaverton, formerly of Silk Creek, is seated at center. The picture was taken by Mrs. Arthur Oakes, mother of the baby, at the Ernest Darnell home on Silk Creek last Thanksgiving.

Winsome Class Holds Potluck Evening of Fun

The Winsome class (the young married couples) of Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ gathered at the church Friday evening for a potluck supper and evening of entertainment. Jim Hemenway is teacher of the class.

The potluck was followed by a short but challenging talk by George Crosby, Bible school superintendent. He brought out that they were the key to the future church and encouraged them to be friendly to all new comers—to mean it, show it, prove it and live it. Remainder of the evening was spent in games.

The 52 adults and children present included: Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Witherspoon, Leanne and Brent; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brickett, Judy and Caroline; Mr. and Mrs. Crosby; Mr. and Mrs. Don Vincent, Paul and Dale; Mr. and Mrs. McKin Tonole, JoAnn, Bobby, Tommy and Kenny; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Leathers, Marilyn and Marvin; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jordan, Deborah and Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. Delmer (Bud) Fisher, Melodie; Mrs. Bill Wolfard, Barbara and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Wiese, Ryan and Todd; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Neff, Martin and Suzanne; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Smith, Luther Beebe, Miss Jean Plaisted, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hemenway, David and Ruth.

Final Show Plans Being Made

South Lane Stamp society will hold a business meeting Thursday (today), at 8 p.m. in the clubhouse of the Cottage Grove city library. All members and friends are requested to attend this important meeting to outline the program of activities for the forthcoming Sunday, March 11, "Gold Cup" Exhibition.

Frames for stamps may be secured at this meeting, and all members are urged to take stamp lots for auction to this meeting and turn them over to Lance Naish, President. Ivan Hoyer has asked for the full cooperation of the entire society in completing and staging the 5th annual stamp show, which is the largest exhibition attempted for the public by the society.

GARDEN CLUB PLANS PLANT SALE FOR APRIL
PDG club planned a plant sale for a date in April at a meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Henry Arp. The group decided to sponsor a new garden club if there is sufficient interest. Those interested may call Mrs. Larry Brumfield at 33F3.

Alyce Hartgrave, Mr. Parsons Wed

Miss Alyce Hartgrave of Cottage Grove, daughter of Mrs. Wilson McLaine of Casper, Wyo., became the bride of Richard A. Parsons of Cottage Grove Sunday, March 4, at First Baptist church. Two white baskets of calla lilies, white snapdragons and greenery, together with lighted tapers in candelabra, decorated the church for the 3 p.m. ceremony. The Rev. Charles R. Harwood, Baptist minister from Eugene, officiated.

Mr. Parsons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Parsons of Eugene.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Wayne Monroe played organ music and the wedding march, Mrs. Ray Wallace sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Wilson McLaine. She wore a ballerina-length dress of lace over satin and a rhinestone and pearl headress held her fingertip veil. Her flowers were a white orchid arranged with streamers and fern and carried with a white Bible.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Elmer Wentworth of Eugene, matron-of-honor, and Miss Judy Barnard and Miss Darlene Paul, bridesmaids. Mrs. Wentworth was dressed in blue lace over satin and carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids, in pale green satin, carried yellow carnations. Flower girl was Vickie Parsons.

Elmer Wentworth was best man for Mr. Parsons and Eddie Meyers and Robert Raiser ushered.

The reception was at the VFW hall, Mrs. Eddie Meyers of Springfield served punch. Mrs. Doyle Paul of Springfield received the gifts and Miss Patricia Parsons of Eugene presented the guest book. Miss Darlene Paul assisted with the serving.

The couple will be at home in Cottage Grove following a wedding trip to San Francisco and through the Redwoods. For her going-away costume the bride chose a gray suit with which she wears navy accessories. The couple's home will be at the H. S. Mapes place on Route 5.

The bride finished high school at Casper. She is a member of the Rebekah lodge and was employed here at the Rainbow cafe. Mr. Parsons attended Cottage Grove High school, served in the Korean war and is employed with Bartels Packing Co.

MISS ANDREWS ELECTED TREASURER

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—Evelyn L. Andrews, Creswell freshman at Oregon State college, has been elected treasurer of her campus living group.

Miss Andrews lives at The Pines, one of four campus women's cooperative houses. In the cooperative houses, women students share household duties and activity planning.

Miss Andrews is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Andrews, Route 2, A 1955 graduate of Creswell high school, she is majoring in home economics at OSC.

OES Entertains Harrisburg, Drain, Albany Chapters

Members of the Order of Eastern Star chapters of Harrisburg, Albany and Drain were guests of the local chapter Thursday night in Masonic temple.

Mrs. Kenneth Hickok, grand committee member; Mrs. Littleton Lasater, grand representative; Margaret Morse, worthy matron of Thurston chapter of Harrisburg; Mary Tontius, worthy matron, and Corliss Nitcher, worthy patron of Barzillai chapter of Albany, were escorted to the East and welcomed. Later the visitors gave interesting talks.

Presiding over the meeting were Mrs. Percy Malcolm, worthy matron, and Taylor Young, worthy patron.

After chapter closed officers of the local group presented an address on "Friendship," honoring their guests. Each person was given a green paper shamrock which was numbered and bearing part of an Irish song and supper partners were found by matching shamrocks.

It was announced that the Constellation club will have a clean up day at the hall Thursday, March 17. Members are to take a sack lunch and be prepared to work. The club also will have a rummage sale, the date to be announced later.

March 8 (today) at 8 p.m. the Willamette Valley Matrons and Patrons association will hold a meeting in the local Masonic temple, with Meridian chapter of Eugene and Creswell Star chapter as cohostesses.

The OES children's party has been set for 2 p.m. Saturday, March 17, and the next regular meeting of the chapter will be March 15.

Refreshments were served by the committee: Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bottorff, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dillon, Mrs. Philip Higdon, and Mrs. E. G. Hoover.

Easter Display Planned by Women

Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid society met March 1 at the church with Mrs. Ray Darden and Mrs. Howard Fishell as hostesses and with 12 members present. The meeting was opened by the singing of a hymn and the Rev. Robert E. Kunz offering prayer.

A committee was appointed to arrange an Easter display in the windows of Cannon's Furniture store. Members are Mrs. Harold Brandness, Mrs. Carl Brandness and Mrs. Carlton Woodard.

The group voted to sponsor one or two Walther leaguers of the church to a Walther League leadership school this spring. They also voted to send $5 to the Lutheran Hour to aid the gospel here and in foreign lands. The women are planning a spring cleaning at the church March 17 and have asked the men to help.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD A. PARSONS (Alyce Hartgrave) are on a wedding trip to San Francisco following their marriage Sunday at First Baptist church. They will be at home on Route 5 on their return.

Mt. View HE Unit To Learn Mending Tips

Mt. View Home Extension unit will meet Friday, March 9, at 10 a.m. at Dorena Grange. All members are requested to take a white elephant gift. A prize will be given following the gift exchange.

Mending Tips is the lesson subject with Mrs. Lyle Shreve and Mrs. Harold Burge as project leaders. Each person should take the following materials: Old pair of overalls or jeans, patch at least 12 inches square, a garment of loosely woven wool, white pencil or chalk, measuring gauge, ruler or tape measure, needle, pins, thimble, scissors, thread, crochet hook number 6 or 7, and a scrap of figured cotton. A few portable sewing machines also are needed.

UO MOTHERS TO MEET THURSDAY WITH MRS. HILL

Cottage Grove Branch of University of Oregon Mothers will meet Thursday (today) at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jess Hill, 349 South Sixth street. All UO mothers in the area are welcome.

Women Golfers Plan Guest Event

Twenty-one members and a guest attended the March luncheon meeting of the women golfers Friday at the golf course. Plans were discussed for the April guest luncheon.

A free golf clinic will begin at 10 a.m. Friday, April 6, and will continue each Friday during that month. Any women who would be interested in learning to play golf or review golf techniques are urged to attend.

Members who have guests attending the April luncheon should contact Mrs. Ralph Delamott, membership chairman, at 243Y by March 19. Everyone is to wear an original hat for the fashion parade, according to Mrs. Wilbur Heath, social chairman.

The group has accepted an invitation to enter in the Play Day at Laurelvood Golf course Wednesday, May 9. Mrs. Howard Gilbert won the gift for the day.

Oregon Flowers and Gifts

WATCH FOR OUR

GRAND OPENING

Friday March 23rd. 26 No. 6th. St.

PHONE 1482

- ★ FLORAL Arrangements for all occasions
- ★ Exclusive Assortment of Candy
- ★ A Delightful and Beautiful Line of Gifts

Remember 1482 Means Flowers to You

KEN MOOTS, Mgr.
MRS. W. L. WORKMAN, Asst.

Established 1912
Mills Mortuary
Washington at Seventh
Phone 202
Cottage Grove, Oregon

trim rigging

in White Stag
AIR-CONDITIONED
SAILCLOTH

Action-fashioned, designed for your fun and freedom. Gay new Sailcloth, accented with color-coordinated cotton knit trim. Sanforized.

Bosun's Mate—
Sizes S-M-L...$5.95
Sea Legs—
Sizes 10-16...$6.95

Colors: Sea Iris,
Bosun Red and Marine Blue

There's a whole new collection of White Stag fun tags at

Petersen's Dept. Store

We Give and Redeem
SAH Green Stamps

615 Main St. Cottage Grove
Where You Can Shop Till 9 on Friday Nights.