Winsome Class Entertain Many, Skit Nite Program

The Winsome class of the G.W.S. Avenue Church of Christ entertained a large group of church members and friends Friday night in the church basement at a skit night program and refreshments of pie, coffee and cocoa.

The program started with the group singing snappy choruses led by Mr. Sherwood Smith, minister. A skit entitled "Wish Machine" was presented by the following: Don Vincent as Professor Bunk; Mrs. William Wolfard, old lady; Susie Neff, little girl; Richard Thies, bum; Sandy Wiese, millionaire; Mrs. Don Vincent, mop woman; Mrs. Gary Leathers, lady of leisure; Mrs. Gerold Witherspoon, glamour girl; Mrs. Frank Spencer, married woman; Walter Graham, husband; children of parents of the Winsome class; Mrs. Joyce Wheeler, typical girl; Mrs. Jim Hemenway, old fashioned girl; and Gerold Witherspoon, baldheaded man.

Several children whose parents are members of the class sang a song, led by Mrs. Gary Leathers and accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Lower, skit "Operation" Reuben Schlauger, doctor; Mrs. Walter Graham, nurse; Martin Neff, boy, and Mrs. Glen Bricker, mother. William Wolfard entertained with a reading, which was followed by another skit, "Fishing." Participating were: Mrs. Joyce Wheeler, Mrs. Sandy Wiese, Mrs. Jerry Jordan, and Miss Jean Plaisted. A duet was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Witherspoon and devotions were given by Jim Hemenway, teacher of the class. Prayer by Mr. Smith closed the program.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening to the large group—easier to count pies (50) than noses.

The committee planning skit night included Mrs. Jerry Jordan, Mrs. Joyce Wheeler, Miss Jean Plaisted, Mrs. Sandy Wiese and Mrs. Ervin Neff. Assisting behind the scenes were Ervin Neff, Glen Bricker and Walter Graham.

SILK CREEK WOMAN GIVEN BABY SHOWER
By Mrs. Dale McCoy

SILK CREEK—Mrs. J. H. Sherouse was guest of honor at a baby shower Friday at the home of Mrs. Archie Richardson of Mosby Creek. Going from Silk Creek for the party, besides Mrs. Sherouse, were Mrs. Frank Richardson and Mrs. Gordon Bailey. Ten women and several children attended.

MRS. JIM DOWNS models jewelry from Stokes Jewelers and shoes from Hoover's Shoe Store in the Spring Style Show that attracted more than 500 interested persons.

JOYCE CARPENTER models a yellow nylon net dress over taffeta for Norris Dress Shop in the gala Spring Style Show held during the Spring Opening at the armory last week. The Easter lilies and other flowers that decorate the stage were from Jessie's Flower Shop.

Orlo Bagley Tells BPW About Radio Station Operation

A combined radio and television program and initiation were on the program for the March meeting of Business and Professional Women at the Presbyterian church. Orlo Bagley, owner of station KOMB, had as his subject the Cottage Grove radio and his experiences as owner. Betty Holmes, Sue Williams and Lois Puderbaugh sang two trio numbers and a solo each. Their accompanist was Ann Chapman.

Other clubs represented at the meeting were Springfield, Eugene, Yoncalla, and Willama. State officers present were Mrs. Glen S. Pirtle, president; Mrs. Natalie Burns, junior past president; Mrs. Elsie Downing, treasurer; Mrs. Loren Norton, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. W. C. Nicholson, Cascade District chairman. Mrs. Iola Hall of Myrtle Creek, Mrs. Charles Rosecrans and Mrs. Tod Tennant were guests.

The Emblem ceremony was conducted by Miss Della Gallo, chairman, and Mmes. Floyd Hilliker, R. C. Gleason, Glen Arne, O. R. Hankins, George Krauss, Bruce Bush, Francis Stearns, Philip Bukowski, and Alice Stuart. New members initiated were Miss Joy Dersham, Mrs. Covall Rosenthal, Mrs. Robert McCrory, Mrs. George Wickendoll, and Mrs. S. G. Oberg.

Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Hile, Mrs. Krauss and Mrs. Hankins.

Mrs. Pirtle spoke briefly on the national building fund of BPW, which has reached $300,000. The national headquarters will be this month from New York City to Washington, D. C. All members were reminded to plan to attend

Group Will Make Children's Pajamas

Current philanthropic project of Beta Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is the making of children's pajamas for the local hospital. They will make 10 or more pair. This is the second year the local group has undertaken this project.

Plans were made at a meeting Wednesday evening, March 28, in the home of Mrs. Jack Stahl for the Ritual of Jewels and pledge ceremony which Beta Beta chapter will conduct April 11 for Beta Chi chapter of Creswell. The ceremony will be in the home of Mrs. Howard Gilbert. Mrs. George Drury gave the program on "People" at the Wednesday evening meeting.

At an earlier business meeting March 21 at the home of Mrs. Drury, Mrs. Gilbert gave the program on "Self Estimates." Mrs. Murland Johnson was a guest. Recently six members of Beta Beta chapter attended a spring style show sponsored by the Creswell chapter. Beta Chi chapter was organized by the Cottage Grove group.

Grove Nile Club Women Take Part In Temple Rite

Several members of Cottage Grove Zuleima Nile club attended the installation of Queen Leona Bryant of Zuleima Temple 13 in the Coquille community building Saturday evening, March 24. Among those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bottorff, Mrs. Don McLanahan, Mrs. Sterling Macready, Mrs. H. B. McMillan, Mrs. George Macready, Mrs. George Witters, Mrs. Clara Abene, Mrs. Lloyd Griggs, and Mrs. Warren Hansen.

Mrs. Bottorff, president of Cottage Grove Zuleima club, was installed as Princess Zuleima. Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. George Macready, who were attendants for last year's queen, this year served as installing attendants.

An entertainment feature was the dancing of the Temple dancers, who are directed by Mrs. George Witters, Mrs. Abene, Mrs. Griggs and Mrs. Hansen were among the dancers.

Past Queen Harriet (Mrs. George) Guldager of Eugene was installing marshal. Eugene women among the new officers included: Mrs. James Morehouse, installed as one of the queen's attendants and Mrs. Gordon Corum, Princess Badoora. Mrs. Irene Selin of Springfield is the new Princess Zora.

The large community hall at Coquille was decorated with camellia bushes loaded with blooms. Masses of daffodils above white lattice work and greenery decorated the front of the stage, on which were tall baskets filled with branches of pink flowering plum.

After the installation a reception honored the new queen and her officers, each of whom received a gift of a white leather Bible engraved with their names from Mrs. Bryant. In her message the queen told of the convalescent relief fund to help buy braces and artificial limbs for children who have been released from Shrine hospitals and who must return from time to time for adjustments and fitting of new braces and limbs. They may return again and again to the free clinic until they are 16 years old. Daughters of the Nile earn money to pay for these limbs and braces for crippled children.

COURTESY GIRLS TAKE STAR POINT CHAIRS

Courtesy girls were in the chairs of the star points and the chaplain for the March 15 meeting of Cottage Grove chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. The hall was decorated with bunnies and Easter eggs. After a short business meeting reports were given on visitations to other chapters and a potato race was held. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ray Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Maloney and Mrs. Robert Anderson. Mrs. Percy Malcolm and Taylor Young, worthy matron and patron, presided.

Next chapter meeting will be April 5.

'One for Every 7' Goal of WSCS

The plan for gaining members for Woman's Society of Christian Service was explained by Mrs. George Binkhorn, conference secretary of promotion, at the Lane Sub-district spring meeting at Springfield Thursday, March 22. "One for every seven" is the goal set.

The meeting was in Ebbert Memorial Methodist church. Ten societies in the district were represented. Opening worship was conducted by Trinity church of Eugene.

Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton of Roseburg, secretary of missionary personnel, Western Jurisdiction, spoke on the subject, "The Christian's Obligation in a Changing World."

Mrs. John Radmore played organ music after luncheon, and accompanied Mrs. Paul Peterson of Wesley church, who sang two numbers.

An interesting account of Ewha college, Seoul, Korea, was given by Mrs. Yung T. Lin. Mrs. Lin was a student at Ewha before coming to Oregon State college on a Crusade scholarship. She is now a resident of Springfield.

Miss Kathleen Clancy, woman's division's missionary who is attending Portland State college, told of her experiences as a teacher in Penang, Malaya.

The installation of officers and closing worship was by Mrs. Dale Helickson, Oakridge. New officers are: Mrs. Neil Christensen, Junction City, president; Mrs. Harold Shellhart, Springfield, vice president and Mrs. Royal Carpenter, Fall Creek, secretary-treasurer.

REFLECTIONS

GOOD MORNING!

That greeting is saturated with goodwill. It is as welcome over the back fence, in the office of high finance, in the Corner Grocery as it is when two friends meet. In a crowded bus—that reminds me of Happy Carl!

The nemesis of Bus Operators was the early 7 A.M. run. Passengers were sleepy, surly, cross and pushed, shoved, elbowed their way inside. Operators reflected their attitudes, shoved back, scolded. Complaints poured in. Men were discharged or resigned. Operators offered their condolences when Carl was assigned to the 7 A.M. run. As usual, as he opened the door, he sang out, "Good Morning." Passengers smirked, then smiled. Growls changed to grins. All the way in Carl greeted his passengers as he would neighbors. Letters of commendation came in bundles. Carl left the run—to be a Supervisor. His "Good Morning" was the recommendation.

P.S. "Good Morning, neighbor."
