COTTAGE GROVE, LAKE COUNTY, OREGON

THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1956

NUMBER 34

LANE COUNTY VOITURE 80, 40 et 8, won the Coen trophy for 1955 for its outstanding work in the 40 et 8 nurses' training program. Myrl B. Garnett, Eugene, chairman of the nurses scholarship, is seen handing a check for a scholarship to Gylene Fitzpatrick, assistant instructor at Sacred Heart school of nursing. Student nurses, left to right, are Rose Ryan, who has just received her cap and cape; Elaine Anderson and Lora Sharkey. Members of Voiture 80, left to right, are: Roy A. Roe, chef de gare, Chester Van Denburg, Robert Bruce, Jack Finley, Jack Larson, Oregon Department Commander of the American Legion, Carl Holgren, and Charles Whips, Grand Aumonier and member of the scholarship committee. Two student nurses sponsored by Voiture 80 who have graduated and now are registered nurses, are Betty Passmore, who works at Sacred Heart hospital, and Rosemary Sweeney (Mrs. Charles) Gieran, who is working in a hospital in Waco, Texas. Voiture 80 gives a $300 scholarship each year. The Lane county voiture was the first in the state to start a nurses' training program. Now there are eight or nine in Oregon and the program is a national 40 et 8 project. The 40 et 8 now has more than 4,500 student nurses in training in the United States.

Curtin Party Fetes Mr., Mrs. Lawrence

By Mrs. Ruby Meacham

CURTIN—A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence Saturday evening, March 24. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence were married recently so some of their friends took cakes and sandwiches and called to surprise them. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Black and family, Mrs. Jess Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderer, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boohar and family, Albert Goins, Mr. and Mrs. George Karow, Mrs. J. R. Sowles, Mr. and Mrs. Iolo Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfer, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Watkins of Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barney of Eugene, Tom Clark, Clifford Clark, and the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence.

Pass Creek Home Extension club met at the grange hall Wednesday, March 28, at 10:30 a.m. for a lesson in "Care of the Hair" with Mrs. Thomas Morris and Mrs. Donald Davis doing the demonstration.

After an interesting lesson the members enjoyed a potluck luncheon. A business meeting was held after lunch. Members are urged to bring their silverware coupons for Azalea House for the next few meetings. All members made plans to attend the festival at the Roseburg Methodist church April 18.

Next meeting will be on "Business and Family Law" at the grange hall at 10:30 a.m. April 25, with Miss Helen Chandler, agent, in charge. Potluck luncheon will be at noon, with Mrs. James Nelson as hostess. Everyone is invited to attend, especially new people in the neighborhood.

Money in Raising Poultry Explained At Meet April 9th

Believe it or not, but there is supposed to be real money in raising poultry and if you want to hear the details, you can attend a meeting to be held at the Dorena grange hall, April 9, beginning at 8 p.m. At this time R. L. (Stub) Quimby will review the program of Nichols Northwest Inc. A movie will also be shown. Refreshments will be served.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Cottage Grove Feed and Produce Co. See the announcement appearing elsewhere in this issue for details.

Former Teacher Visits at Lorane

By Mrs. Walter N. Dowens

MOUNT VIEW — Mrs. Butte Mooney of Springfield visited this past week with Mrs. George Layman and other relatives. She is a former resident of the Cottage Grove area.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Dowens were Easter Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Dailey.

Mrs. Marian Edwards and Miss Peggy Edwards of Portland spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards.

Mrs. Donald Hands and baby are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hands while waiting to join her husband overseas.

Mrs. Edwin Voss is recuperating at her home from a severe cold. She has spent most of the week in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Suiter and family spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. Suiter's brother, Earl Payne, and family.

The Lowell Drullinger family went to Monmouth to spend Easter with Mrs. Drullinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Riley.

Easter Sunday guests at the Jack Terrell home were their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Dean G. Cook and two children of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Richardson and daughter of Myrtle Creek. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cook of Elkton and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Cook and daughter and a friend from Drain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore have returned from spending the past two months in the Southwest. Most of their time was spent at Truth or Consequences, N. M., but they also visited in California with relatives and took side trips to Arizona and Texas. They report a most enjoyable vacation.

Frank and Opal Moore of Bend spent the weekend with their brother, W. T. Moore, and Mrs. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pettibone of Eugene spent the Easter weekend with Mrs. Ella Day.

Many Easter Visitors At Lynx Hollow Homes

By Mrs. Roy Stalder

LYNX HOLLOW — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whaley entertained Mr. and Mrs. Pete Goodell and family Sunday evening for Mr. Goodell's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Leathers, Greg and Jeff of Creswell and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schacht, Steven, Mary and Marcia of Dorena visited at the Roy Stalder home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stalder received a telephone call from Mr. and Mrs. Dean Addington, Suzy and Judy of Cayucas, Calif. They called to say they'd be home in three months. Mr. Addington is a brother of Mrs. Roy Stalder.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bivens, Helen and Roscoe spent Easter at Springfield with Mr. Bivens' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer McGuire. Also there were Mrs. McElroy and children, Mrs. D. W. Bivens and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Bivens and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Addington of Creswell had dinner Sunday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stalder. Callers at the Stalder home later in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Owen and family of Cottage Grove.

Lorane Rebekahs Choose Delegates

By Mrs. R. G. Conner

Phone 140M

LORANE — Lorane Rebekah lodge elected delegates to Rebekah Assembly at Tillamook beginning May 22. Mrs. Chester Purdy and Mrs. Everett Malcolm were elected delegates and Mrs. Russell Alford and Mrs. Bridgie Maley are alternates. Mrs. Malcolm also was recommended for District Deputy President.

The group voted to provide a one-half scholarship for a 4-H club member for summer camp.

A work day was planned for April 10 to paint the woodwork in the hall. All members who can help are to take a sack luncheon and a paint brush. Work is to start at 10 a.m.

A cookie party is planned for the April 16 meeting. Each member is to take a plate of cookies and the recipe used to make them. Also they are to take all proof of purchase certificates from Fisher Mills products.
