'Just Ducky' 3-Act Comedy Coming to Lorane April 20

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
Phone 140M

LORANE — "Just Ducky" a three-act comedy written by Donald Payton and directed by Mrs. Alice Reamer will be presented by the Junior and Senior classes of Lorane high school in the gymnasium at 8 p.m. Friday, April 20.

The action takes place in the home of a family - it could be most any family with teen-agers - on the day Papa Maxwell is chosen to head the citizen's committee because of his fine upstanding family and his teen-age daughter and her best friend decide to send a letter to the editor of the local paper. From then on the action is fast and funny.

Papa Maxwell is played by Arlin Rothauge and Mrs. Maxwell by Margaret Hayes. Their daughter Betty Lou and her pal Bernadine are Jo Ann Nease and Darlene Malcolm.

Others in the cast are: Wilber, Frank Diess; Hercules, Gary Mitchell; Connie, Peggy Jenkins; Craig, Charles Drullinger; Mr. Moore, Boyd Mitchell; Del Marshall, Albert Armitage; Aunt Mary, Alonza Brown; and Miss Blayne, Catherine Tev.

Edward Thompson is stage manager. The stage crew is Bill Alford, Dale Simpson, and Charley Briggs. Ellen Newby is prompter and Elaine Michael in charge of properties.

The annual Parent-Teacher club Amateur Hour, home talent show is scheduled for the April 23 P-T-C meeting.

James Kotre and Mrs. Oren Jacobson are co-chairman of the event and will welcome entrants. The event will be divided into three sections, first through fourth grades, fifth through eighth and high school and adults. Prizes will be offered for first, second and third places. Admission will be charged to raise funds for 4-H scholarships. No refreshments will be served following this meeting.

Pupils Honored

Lorane Grange honored the members of the high school volleyball and basketball teams with a banquet in the grange hall Friday evening. The entire high school student body were invited guests as well as all grange members and their families.

The Sportsmanship Trophy which the basketball team won recently was used as the centerpiece for the table with the school colors of blue and white carried out in napkins and small megaphones which were used as place cards.

Coaches Mr. and Mrs. John Coe-field introduced their teams and short talks were given by several local people.

Following the banquet games were played by the students.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Holland and family attended a birthday dinner party in honor of their niece, Lonnie, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holland in the Bailey Hill neighborhood Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Briggs and grandson Billy Avants who were visiting Lonnie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Torricella, in Eugene were also guests at the birthday celebration. Lonnie was three years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Myers and family of Brownsville spent Sunday with Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Purdy and children moved to their new home at Alfalfa Sunday. Mrs. Chester Purdy helped them move and returned home Monday.

School will be dismissed Thursday and Friday so the teachers of both grade and high school may attend the two sessions of teachers institute. On Thursday they will go to Eugene for the County Institute and on Friday to McKenzie school to attend the Lane County "B" Schools Institute.

Mapleton will come to Lorane for the first home baseball game of the season Wednesday afternoon.

Three probationary members of National Honor Society have been chosen at Lorane schools. They are Dale Simpson, Gary Mitchell and Floyd Diess. Arlin Rothauge is the only other member of the Honor Society left although there are two probationary members from last year.

Lorane won two games from Crow last week at Crow. The boys won in baseball and the girls softball team also won.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lee and son Mikey took Scott and Charles Boulderback back to Selah, Wash., where they are students at the Central Washington College of the Bible. They had spent two weeks at Lorane assisting Mr. Lee with his evangelistic services.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Moothart and children of Toledo spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mitchell. The Mootharts had brought a group of Boy Scouts to Eugene for the Scout Circus. Both were former teachers at Lorane.

Claudette and Richard Payne, students of Oregon State college spent the weekend at home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Payne had dinner in Corvallis Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teifke of Jefferson.

Mrs. Dora Allen is spending the week in Cottage Grove with Mrs. Bert Scott. Mrs. Scott is convalescing from a recent illness.

The Homebuilders class of Lorane Christian Sunday School are having a potluck supper at 6:15 in the church kitchen Friday evening. A work night will follow when the group will fill cracks and get ready to paint the young peoples department of the church.

A work day was held at the IOOF hall Tuesday when members of the Rebekah Lodge met and painted the woodwork in the hall and ante room.

Accident Victims Showing Progress

By Mrs. Edith Kenady

DIVIDE—Faye Herendeen and son Vern and Mrs. Sherman Maples and Rusty are all recovering nicely following their recent automobile accident. Vern was able to return home from a Eugene hospital Monday and Faye is expected home later this week. Mrs. Maples and Rusty went by plane to Eureka, Calif. Monday and will enter a hospital there. Mrs. Ella Harp, mother of Mrs. Herendeen and Mrs. Maples, is here from Oklahoma City. Mrs. Herendeen is grateful to her many friends who have shown them so many kindnesses since the accident.

Chester Nance Jr. came home Monday from Condon to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Leshley have had a well drilled recently. They also have torn down the old garage which had been used for a dwelling for several years.

Move From Roseburg

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nance and children have moved here from Roseburg and are living at South Lane Auto Court. He is a brother of Chester Nance.

Jack Barlow went to Portland Monday morning to take his physical examination for the air force.

Little Judy Barlow spent two days last week in the local hospital.

Sandra Lu Hill, Sharon Roberts and Sharon Dutton spent part of their Easter vacation at Mt. Vernon, Wash., at the Dutton home. They also went on a short sightseeing trip into Canada while there. Easter Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hill, Sandra Lee and Leonard and Bobby Carlson attended church services in Eugene.

The girls returned Monday evening to Canyonville Bible academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Swearingen and children of Drain spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. Elmo.

The sun, the moon and the stars would have disappeared long ago, had they happened to be within reach of predatory human hands.

"Sure" he feels good...

he's got money
bank!"

Yes, there's a good feeling that goes with having money in the bank. Like the majority of Oregon savers, this cheerful fellow makes regular deposits to his First National savings account. He likes the convenience of a checking account at First National, too. It's the only statewide bank that prints your name and address on all your regular checks... FREE!
