Arlene Lebow Weds Milo Kivett In Sunday Rite, Eugene Is Home

Baskets of pink snapdragons decorated First Baptist church for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Arlene Lebow to Kermitt Allen Kivett Sunday, April 15. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clifford Lebow of Route 1, Cottage Grove, the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kivett of Creswell.

The Rev. Ivan C. Cleveland performed the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Wedding music was by Mrs. Charles Minturn of Eugene, aunt of the groom, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Ann Chapman was the organist, playing accompaniments and the wedding marches.

Miss Lebow wore a gown of white nylon net made with lace bodice and rounded neckline. Her seed pearl crown held a veil of white net trimmed with wide white lace edging. She carried a white orchid arranged with streamers on a white Bible and a 60-year-old handkerchief belonging to her grandmother. Mr. Lebow gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Alice Effie Lebow was maid of honor for her sister, her formal-length dress in aqua. She carried a colonial-type nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Theodore L. Johnson and ushers were Ray Comstock and Kenneth Kivett.

The reception which followed was at the church, where the bride's table was decorated with pink candles in candelabra. Mrs. Ralph C. Huntington Jr., sister of the bride, served coffee. Miss Cleta Kivett, groom's sister, served punch and Miss Dolly Jakominek cut and served the cake. Mrs. Ray Comstock cared for the guest book.

The couple made their wedding trip through the Redwoods and home by way of the coast. The bride wore a beige duster over a spring print dress, a white hat and the orchid from her bouquet.

Mr. Kivett is installer and repairman for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Home of the couple will be at 111 Clinton drive, Eugene.

Out-of-county guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Huntington Jr. and children, Centralia, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Gale Lebow and children of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Deane Lebow and son of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bartman of Aurora. Gale and Deane Lebow are brothers of the bride. Mrs. Bartman is an aunt.

Clinic for Women Golfers Continues At CG Golf Club

The golf clinic underway at the Cottage Grove golf course will continue during April at 10 a.m. each Friday, followed by regular play.
