Patsee Pynes Weds Mr. Hunter In Double-Ring Church Rite

Miss Patsee Pynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pynes, became the bride of Robin D. Hunter of Eugene in a double-ring ceremony Sunday, May 27, at Cottage Grove Presbyterian church. Mr. Hunter is the son of Mrs. Gerald Asbury of Cottage Grove.

Red and white flowers decorated the church for the 3 p.m. ceremony, at which the Rev. Stanley Baglow of Westminster House in Eugene officiated. Wedding music was by Miss Carol Roddy, who sang "Why Do I Love You" and by Miss Jean Ellen Sherrill, who sang "A Wedding Blessing." Mrs. Dale Huggins was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown she had designed and which her mother had made. Fashioned of lace and satin, the lace bodice was made with sweetheart neckline, stand-up collar and long sleeves. The full-length skirt of satin and lace insert was made with a train. The bride wore a fingertip veil which fell from a tiara of lace and rhinestones. This was made by the bride. She carried a bouquet of red roses on a white ribbon. She followed the tradition of "something old," her grandmother's brooch; "something new," a locket given her by the groom; "something borrowed," the white Bible she carried; "something blue," her blue garter.

Mrs. James Nicholas of Newport, the bride's cousin, was her only attendant. She wore a dress of red and white dotted nylon and a red flowered hat. Her flowers were a bouquet of red carnations. Candelights, dressed in choir robes, were Misses Sue Higdon, Marjorie Denney and Gail Forrester.

Michael R. Hunter of Spokane was best man for his brother and ushers were John D. Dugan Jr. and the groom's brother-in-law, and Fred Pynes, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother added white accessories and a yellow carnation corsage to the turquoise suit which she chose for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Asbury wore a gray suit with red accessories and red carnation corsage.

The unique color scheme of red and white was carried out also at the reception which followed in the church parlor. Red and white flowers flanked the tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with red roses. Serving the cake was Mrs. John Dugan Jr. and Mrs. James Shirley. Miss Kay Plunkett and Miss Mary Sue Pynes served punch and Miss Marjorie Eikelberger poured the coffee. Miss Sandra Winston had the guest book and Miss Phyllis Higdon had charge of gifts and assisted at the reception. Mmes. Earl Wilson, Kenneth Cravens, C. W. Cottrill, J. G. Denney and H. W. Wolfard assisted in arranging the wedding and reception.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a red and white sports outfit. The couple will make their home in Eugene where Mr. Hunter is on the Eugene police force. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were graduates from Cottage Grove High school. She attended Oregon State college and he attended Eugene Vocational school.

MR. AND MRS. ROBIN D. HUNTER (Patsee Pynes) are at home in Eugene following their May 27 wedding in Cottage Grove Presbyterian church. The groom is a member of the Eugene police force.

MR. AND MRS. A. EUGENE HOYT (Susan Simon) are at home at Cottage Grove following their wedding earlier in the spring in the Presbyterian church.

Cottage Grove Is Home of Newlyweds

Miss Susan Simon and A. Eugene Hoyt, both of Cottage Grove, were married recently in an afternoon ceremony in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Hoyt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Simon of Redmond, formerly of Eugene. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoyt of Gold Beach.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was wearing a white tulle-over-satin, made with lace bodice and lace around the bottom of the skirt. The bodice was made with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves of lace buttoned at the wrist. She carried a white Bible loaned to her by Mrs. Don Linquist and with it a white bridal orchid. "Something old" was the tulle wedding veil trimmed in lace to match the lace on the bridal gown. It fell from a crown of seed pearls, worn by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Joe Simon, at her wedding. Bridal attendants were Mrs. Joe Simon and Mrs. Wayne Simon. They were dressed in identical nylon dresses of pink and blue and carried nosegays of pink roses, buds and violets. Their headbands were of the same flowers.

Edna Martha Erickson, groom's niece was candlelighter and wore a dress of blue nylon and a wrist band of carnations. Flower girl, Jeannie Gartzke, was in pink nylon and carried a nosegay like those carried by the bride attendants. Ronnie Simon, bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Waylan Hoyt was best man for his brother and Wayne and Joe Simon, brothers of the bride, ushers.

Pink and white snapdragons in baskets decorated the church for the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. D. Hugh Peniston. Mrs. Warren Ness sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Always."

Serving at a reception in the church social hall were Mrs. Evelyn Linquist and Mrs. Don Linquist, who cut the cake and Mrs. Harland Laiole of Eugene and Mrs. Harry Erickson of Gold Beach were in charge of serving punch and coffee. Mrs. Carlton Fick and Miss Diana Gartzke received the gifts and Mrs. Reginald Land presented the guest book.

For traveling on a wedding trip to the Oregon coast Mrs. Hoyt chose a purple tweed suit with which she wore pink and white accessories and her wedding orchid. The couple is at home at Cottage Grove. Mrs. Hoyt is employed by Woodward Lumber company and Mr. Hoyt is with Martin Brothers Sign company of Eugene. She is a graduate of Eugene High school, he of Onalaska (Wash.) High school.

Hostesses Honor Mrs. Joe Brown

Mrs. John Gay and Mrs. Gardner King were co-hostesses for a farewell party for Mrs. Joe Brown recently at the Alto King home. Mrs. Brown is leaving soon for San Diego, Calif., where her husband is stationed in the navy. She was presented with a tablecloth.

Those attending were Mmes. Earnest Mathews, Kenneth Harlow, J. C. Hobbs, Fritz Guggisberg, Peter Felters, H. Stout, Oval Powell, Tom Aisher, Alto King, Nona Kelly and the hostesses. Those invited but not able to attend were: Mmes. A. W. Thomas, Gus Nowak, Harley Gates and Dale Harris.

BPW Installs New Set Officers

New officers of Business and Professional Women's club were installed Monday evening in ceremonies in the Presbyterian church social hall. Two of the officers: Mrs. Gertrude Elliott, president, and Mrs. Bruce Bush, treasurer, were installed by proxy. Mrs. Elliott is still in Germany where she has been teaching but will return in time to take over for the new club year.

Other new officers installed by Mrs. Floyd Hilliker, past president, were: Mrs. Eleanor Zeller, first vice president; Mrs. L. J. Simonsen, second vice president; Mrs. Emery Bailey, recording secretary; Mrs. Oscar Lee, corresponding secretary.

Guests for the evening included a large number of members from Eugene and Willama clubs in Eugene and from the Junction City club. In addition two new state officers were present: Miss Dorothy Randall, Eugene state education and vocational chairman, and Mrs. Bess Harnden, also of Eugene, chairman of the state nominating committee.

Mrs. Robert McCreery of station KOMB played piano numbers and the Tunesettes, a girls' vocal trio from Creswell, also entertained. Refreshments were served by the Women's Association of the church before the installation ceremony.

Next meeting of the club will be June 18 at the home of Mrs. Zeller.

Zuleima Temple To Meet June 16 10 Grove, Creswell

Zuleima Temple 13, daughter of the Nile, will hold a regular stated meeting at Grants Pass Saturday, June 16. The club presidents will be honored and reports heard from the Supreme Session in Omaha, Neb.

The Temple dancers are serving a salad luncheon at 12 o'clock noon. Anyone planning to attend should call Mrs. Lloyd Griggs at 78 for reservations for the luncheon before Wednesday, June 13.

MUSIC DEGREE RECEIVED Mrs. Sherwood Smith received her degree in music Tuesday night from Northwest Christian college, Eugene.

REFLECTIONS SCHOOL'S OUT

Children are at home—a few here in the street. It is those children who will dash in front of our car—on impulse. That child has no desire to be injured any more than you want to hurt him; however, he expects, anticipate his actions and protect him in spite of his actions. Where there are children at play, please drive cautiously.

When we see a Play Ground Marker make it a driving habit to slow down, ready to make a quick stop. Don't be involved in an accident that might recur as a vivid mental picture over and over again, during the rest of our lives. We're never in such a hurry that a minute will make the least difference.

Slow down! Your future peace of mind is at stake. P.S. Drive carefully. Drive as if each child you see is one of your own.
