Program, Reception To Climax DVBS

A program of music, a religious film, reception and display of the children's classroom work at 7:30 p.m. Friday night at Gibbs Avenue Church of Christ will climax the two weeks of Daily Vacation Bible School now in its second week.

The supervised musical program will be under the direction of Mrs. Bob Beach and Mrs. Marvin Shaw with the children of the DVBS participating. The musical program will be followed by a religious film, "Dust or Destiny," testimony to scientific facts which testify to the existence of a Creator. It presents the marvelous mechanisms of the human eye, ear and heart; bats flying by their own radar; fish laying eggs on dry land; the unerring flight of birds in migration as well as other phenomena of this universe in which we live.

The teachers of DVBS will be in charge of the reception and refreshments downstairs for parents and friends of the children, while the teachers' helpers will have a reception for the children in another part of the church. Each class will have a display of classroom work accomplished during the two weeks, including Bible study work and handicraft.

As of Monday, 189 children had enrolled in the DVBS. In addition, there are 36 teachers, helpers and directors, plus nursery attendants, play-ground helpers and those assisting in the refreshment room.

A certificate of award will be given each child at the close of the Friday morning class.

Ultra Modern And Mobile, Too

The contemporary influence is apparent in the decorative motif of this 1956 mobile home. There's no lack of drawer space in the bedroom. Built-in drawers and cabinets, broken only by a wide mirror, cover one wall. A wash basin is set in wall at left. More than 100,000 mobile homes were sold in the United States last year, according to industry reports from the Mobile Homes Manufacturers Association which has opened a West Coast office at Long Beach, Calif.

Revival Meetings Start at Culp Cr.

Special revival meetings were started Tuesday evening at the Culp Creek Assembly of God by Evangelist James Nicholson of Springfield, Mo. The Rev. Mr. Nicholson is said to have been very successful as an evangelist in the States and as a missionary in Cuba. He has with him his Hammond organ, which he plays nightly. He is an accomplished accordionist, as well as a singer. The Rev. and Mrs. Nicholson will sing vocal duets each evening, and he also will conduct divine healing services. These meetings, to which the public is invited, began at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Old Schoolmates Picnic Date Aug. 4

By Mrs. Esther Trunnell Phone 17F11

LATHAM - People planning summer vacations and other activities have inquired the date of the Old Schoolmates picnic. It will be the first Saturday in August, which this year falls on August 4, and will be in the city park.

Mrs. Vinton Goff, whose husband operated a shoe store in Cottage Grove for many years, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Jennie Arne and with friends in Cottage Grove this week. She makes her home with a son Kenneth in Bushnell, Ill., where he is a surgical dentist. Another son, who also lived here when he was young, is the Rev. Victor Goff, who lives at Rockford, Ill. Mrs. Goff will be in Oregon about six weeks. From here she will go to Milwaukee where she will spend some time with her husband's sister-in-law, Mrs. Everett Goff. Everett Goff assisted his brother in the shoe shop here for a while.

Mrs. Donald Cain and five children of Leona visited at the J. A. Mackey home Friday afternoon. She had been to Cottage Grove hospital with her husband who had been burned on the leg when gasoline exploded. Mrs. Cain formerly lived in a Mackey cabin here.

Charles Wilson has started construction of a new home on Nicholson Lane on a tract of land recently purchased from Murray Trunnell.

Among people who formerly lived here attending the wedding of Rose Marie Hudson and Richard Phillips Sunday was Jerry Hayes. He arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Leon Godard, in Springfield last Friday. Since his discharge from four years in the Navy four months ago he has been working for his brother Dick in San Jose, Calif. His father "Hap" Hayes and Mrs. Hayes live there also.

Ernest L. Anderson of Cut Bank, Mont., who is one of Cottage Grove's old-timers, recently flew to Dallas, Texas, with a close friend, the Governor of Montana, to attend a business meeting. They went in an army plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hull and son Lowell and another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Hull, came from Vancouver, Wash., Thursday evening. Friday they took Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Plaster to the Strawberry Festival at Lebanon. They had dinner while there with Mr. Plaster's sister, Mrs. Bessie Guy, and Mrs. Ethel Scott.

BOB TANK GETS DRAMA AWARD - Robert Tank, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Tank, 1029 East Adams, Cottage Grove, was among nearly 100 students at Linfield college receiving awards for their work in forensics, music, drama and student government during the 1955-56 college year.

The awards were in the form of certificates and pins with the outstanding recipients receiving trophies or having their names engraved on plaques.

Tank received a third year drama award.

In 1955 there were nearly three thousand individual members of the Rodeo Cowboys' Association, Inc. See CG Riding club's rodeo, July 7 and 8, starting with the big parade downtown at 10 a.m., July 7.

Help Yourself to Happiness

This column is one of the series on marriage and family problems which appear weekly in this paper. It presents problems of everyday living and will attempt to bring you the most expert opinion in this area. By combining clinical experience, you are invited to present their individual cases and should be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope, directed to Mary Harris Everett, M. A., Department of Education, American Institute of Family Relations, 5247 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles 27, California.

Are You Worth Loving? "Jim sprints for home every evening as if he were jet-propelled," says Bill. "Why the great rush?"

"Haven't you seen Jim's wife?" asks Dick. "She's the best and the most, any way you look at her. She treats Jim like a real HEAD MAN - she's worth coming home to!"

Are you worth coming home to? Are you worth loving? Are you the kind of person others like to be with? Do you make your mate happy that you are YOU, and that you are married to him for better, not worse?

A successful marriage doesn't just happen. It isn't a joy-ride on a matrimonial roller-coaster, with a thrill a minute guaranteed or your money back. It isn't all sunshine, nor all shadow. It is a trip-for-two, carefully planned, with baggage, experiences, inconveniences, and fun to be shared by both travellers on one ticket. Like many long trips, it sometimes includes difficulties and unforeseen problems, but you enjoy it anyway - because there are two of you - TOGETHER.

Greta Millikan, wife of the late Dr. Robert A. Millikan of cosmic ray fame, once said, "It is easy to get married. It is far more difficult to STAY married, happily. A woman's job at being a success begins the day of her wedding and continues with increasing need through the years: She must be WORTH loving to make her marriage worthwhile."

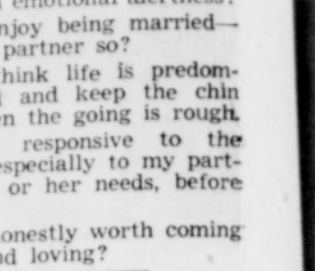

Successful marriage is based upon the will to cooperate, to live on future hopes rather than past antagonisms, to feel with and for the well-being of the partner. A good marriage is founded upon both sex and friendship.

Here at the AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF FAMILY RELATIONS, we urge the many who come to us for counseling to ask themselves:

1. Do I do all I can to increase my partner's power and sense of worth?

2. Do I complement his strength and compensate his weakness?
