

Thornton Corners Girl Goes on Trip To San Francisco

By Mrs. J. W. Fisher Phone 33F5

THORNTON CORNERS—Miss Donna Hemenway of the Hill and Dale Ranchers 4-H club accompanied a group sponsored by Eugene Farmers' Creamery on a trip to San Francisco over last weekend. The 33 members taking the trip and their chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wolske, Mrs. Geneva Kesey, all of Eugene, and the 4-H agent of Drain made the trip on the Snasta Daylight.

They were taken to Golden Gate Park, Oriental Gardens, the Museum and many other interesting places in San Francisco and had dinner Sunday evening at Fisherman's Wharf. The group returned home Monday.

Mrs. Frank LaBlue and daughter, Mrs. Howard Raymond, of Row River attended the wedding Friday evening of Miss Nancy Smith, niece of Mrs. LaBlue, at the Applegate community church in Southern Oregon. The bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Surran, will make their home at Medford. Mrs. Surran formerly lived in the Row River area. Mrs. LaBlue and Mrs. Raymond accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Garoutte of Dorena to the wedding. Capt. Foster visits parents.

Capt. Byron Foster, his wife and their three children of Mountain Home, Idaho, were guests all of last week at the home of Capt. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Foster.

At 4-H Summer School Eddie Hemenway left last week to attend the annual 4-H summer school for 10 days at Oregon State college, Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Simpson of Coquille were visitors over the weekend at the homes of Simpson's sisters, Mrs. Arleigh Kenyon and Mrs. Jim Merwin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wheeler were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son, Loyd, at Creswell.

Mrs. Grace Blankenship of Eugene and her mother, Mrs. Harriet Mayhew, of Minot, N. D., were dinner guests Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. David LaBlue and baby of Lebanon were overnight visitors Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaBlue and were dinner guests Sunday at the LaBlue home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tonole of Cottage Grove were guests at supper Tuesday at the Joe Premazzi home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Castle and Mrs. Berta McGuire and sons of Mosby Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pruitt and son Robbie were guests Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Foster at a family get-together, honoring the Byron Foster family, who were visiting here from Mountain Home, Idaho. The group was entertained with colored slides of family and friends and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wheeler visited Thursday at the home of Mr. Wheeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wheeler, at Trent.

Mrs. R. B. Dixon visited three days of last week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Jett, in Roseburg, who PORTLAND (Special) Lovely Jo Madison with "Alice" is the leading lady of the 1956 Al Kader Shrine Circus billed for Multnomah Stadium Ballpark July 5, 7 and 8. Miss Madison is the trainer for a herd of performing Siamese Elephants who will do their stuff at the big outdoor circus. Billed as "too big for the big top" the circus is produced by Tom Pack, who is rated the biggest producer of outdoor circuses in America. Other acts include highwire, death-defying trapeze acts, animal acts and clowns. Tickets are on sale at J. K. Gill Company in Portland.

Holladay Bowl Season Opens

Exciting musical comedy fare is offered in the coming season of "Musicals Under the Stars" at Holladay Bowl, Portland's increasingly popular outdoor theater. Outstanding talent of the area is now in rehearsal for the first production, "Rio Rita" which opens July 5. Victor Herbert's "Eileen" follows July 19, Leonard Bernstein's "On the Town" August 2, and the musically lush "Lady from Paris" August 16.

Holladay Bowl was founded in 1952 by the Portland Symphonic Choir and has gained a noteworthy reputation for its standards of artistic performance, its scholarship program and its quick rise in popularity. Four seasons of performances have attracted over 100,000 in attendance.

Season tickets are now available, offering subscribers 20% discount over single performance prices. For information and mail order forms, write Holladay Bowl, 1002 Terminal Sales Bldg., Portland 5, Oregon.

TWO DRAIN MEN SUFFER BURNS AT ROCK CRUSHER
Two Drain men, who were burned Thursday while working in a garage at the Whipple Logging Co. rock crusher, are reported in fine condition at Cottage Grove hospital Saturday.

Personnel there said Don Cain and Lee Criter were recovering from minor leg burns, and would be released to go home soon.

The men were burned when gasoline spilled on their clothing and ignited.

Rodeo is the only sport in the nation that gives a national high school championship. Lots of youngsters will take part in Cottage Grove Riding club's rodeo July 7 and 8.
