Jerrie Culvey Bride of Kenneth Perini In Double Ring Ceremony Sunday

By Mrs. Charles Denzer
The First Presbyterian church was decorated with baskets of pink and yellow daisies and a long planter of the same flowers Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Jerrie Culvey and Kenneth Perini. The mid-afternoon double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James C. Jack of Lochwinnoch, Scotland.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Culvey, Dorena, and Mr. and Mrs. William Perini, Cottage Grove. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore an ankle-length dress of white net over taffeta lace yoke with high collar and with lace inserts on the skirt, long sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls. She carried white carnations and pink rosebuds on a white Bible borrowed from Mrs. Claude Hensley, sister of the bridegroom. For "something old," she carried a handkerchief over 100 years old which was loaned to her by Mrs. Frank McFarland. Her "something blue" was a garter.

Sisters of the bride were her attendants, Mrs. Don Pyeatt as matron of honor and Mrs. Richard (Dick) Kelley, bridesmaid. Both wore ballerina-length dresses. Mrs. Pyeatt wore white lace over orchid taffeta and carried a nosegay of orchid carnations, while Mrs. Kelley was dressed in light green and carried a nosegay of green and white flowers.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue linen suit, white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Perini chose a turquoise silk dress with corsage of pink carnations and rosebuds.

Best man for the bridegroom was Keith Russum, Usher, wearing a white tuxedo and a white boutonniere. The reception followed in the church parlor which was decorated with lighted tapers and spring flowers. Mrs. Melvin Tye served the wedding cake and Mrs. R. L. Jones and Mrs. Carmine Homes poured punch. Mrs. Claude Hensley passed the guest book.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Perini were graduated from the local high school. They will reside on Mosby creek as soon as their new home is completed.

MR. AND MRS. EVERETT GREENLEY (Mary Ellen McCoy) are shown following their marriage June 9 at Roseburg. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elmer McCoy of Cottage Grove. The couple's home will be at Roseburg.

Miss Ann Chapman played the wedding music and accompanied soloist Bob Kelley, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The morning hours were taken up with an executive meeting and a prayer service led by Mrs. J. E. Compton. Luncheon was served to 21, including the Rev. and Mrs. Faul as guests. Hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth Zumwalt, Mrs. Harley Williams and Mrs. Blanche Saunders.

Mrs. Harold Sparks had charge of devotions and program at the afternoon session, the theme being "How About the World." Assisting her were Archie Ashensen, Earl Puderbaugh and Francis Ryel. Mrs. Puderbaugh, secretary of promotion, reported on the Sugar Bowl Banks, a method to raise money for the Methodist Home in Salem.

Mrs. Ray Puckett, secretary of missionary education and service, told of the 1956 school of missions to be held at Ashland July 23-27 and at Camp Magruder July 15-20.

The WSCS received two honors, one as being an honor society for completion of goals as set forth by the Oregon Conference, and the other recognition for completion of the study course, "Introduction to the Five Spiritual Classics."

Annual picnic of the society will be in the city park at 12 o'clock noon, July 11. This will take the place of the next regular meeting. The executive committee will be hostesses.

A food sale will be held July 14 by all circles, the place to be announced later.

Stamp Society Sets Picnic Date 28th

More than 20 members of the South Lane Stamp society participated in Thursday evening's "Crazy Stamp Party." A series of games, comprising the central theme for the evening's activity, were under the direction of Mrs. Ivan C. Hoyer, secretary.

The annual summer picnic has been scheduled for June 28 at 6 p.m. at the Wilson creek recreation area. Mrs. Harry Wilson and Mrs. Hoyer were appointed coordinators for the picnic and will contact all members concerning the details.

The society will attempt to organize a Junior stamp program, provided local youth interest warrants the project. It will be set up with the intent to instruct the boys and girls in the basic rudiments of stamp collecting, and also will provide inexpensive stamp materials and supplies for those participating in the program. Instructions in how to avoid poor business dealings with stamp auctions and dealers will also be incorporated in the program.

Parents expressing interest in the project for their youngsters are invited to call Mrs. Hoyer, 568J, and secure additional information.

DINNER CLUB ENTERTAINED
Mrs. Karl K. Mills entertained dinner club Monday evening at her home. Additional guests were Capt. and Mrs. James H. Mills Jr. of San Diego.

Family Reunion Is First in 15 Years

A family reunion at the Jacob Stalder home Sunday was the first in 15 years that all the children could be at home at one time to honor the father on his day.

Children and grandchildren at home were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stalder, Bonnie, Posie, and Janette of San Antonio, Texas; John R. Stalder and Gary of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Axel Westberg, Beverly, Cheryl and Steven of Bennett Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stalder, Barbara, Darla and David, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hales and Lynn, Cottage Grove; also Mr. and Mrs. John Demanowski of Portland and Joe Demosker of Eugene, brothers and sister-in-law of Mrs. Stalder; Mrs. Stella Miller, sister of Mrs. Jacob Stalder and Mr. and Mrs. H. Walenczak of Eugene, parents of Mrs. Albert Stalder.

Delphiniums and Stock Deck Church, Minister from Scotland Hears Vows

By Mrs. Charles Denzer

Blue delphiniums and white stock decorated First Presbyterian church Saturday June 16, for the marriage of Miss Sharon Laveta Estabrook of Eugene to Edward Paul Estabrook of Port Orford. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maurice Estabrook of Eugene, formerly of Cottage Grove, and the late Mr. Estabrook. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Estabrook of Port Orford.

The Rev. James C. Jack of the Church of Scotland, who arrived only three days earlier from Lochwinnoch, Scotland, officiated at the 2:30 p.m. ceremony. It was the first he performed since arriving in Cottage Grove. Soloist was Robert Kelly, cousin of the bride, who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of white tulle and taffeta. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls, sequins and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, pink nylon net and white satin ribbons. Later she wore the corsage which formed the center of the bouquet on her going-away suit.

She carried a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, which had been carried by the grandmother at her own wedding and by all her granddaughters.

Mrs. Kenneth Bush, matron attendant, was in frosted rose crystaline and carried a bouquet of gladiolus. The small flower girl, Jeanie Hart, wore a dress of aqua crystaline and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Ring bearer was Leo Hart Jr.

Lee Estabrook, groom's brother, was best man and Harry Kelly and Leo Hart ushered.

The reception was in the church parlors, where the decorations were of delphinium, moss roses and pink peonies. The cake was cut by Mrs. Wilbur Pitcher and Mrs. Hattie Spahr, grandmother of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Henry Kelly, bride's aunt, and Mrs. Leo Sydney, Debbie, cousin of the bride, had the guest book.

The couple made their wedding trip along the Oregon coast, the bride's traveling attire a blue and white suit of baby cord rayon. After June 24 they will make their home at Port Orford.

The bride is a 1956 graduate of Eugene High school. The groom is employed as a plywood grader. He served in the Naval Reserve.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Elsie Rohlfen of Santa Barbara, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ahorn, hamson, David and Elaine of Battle Ground, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Webb and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Estabrook of Coos Bay.
