

Couple Married June 16 In Seattle To Teach in Cottage Grove in Fall

MRS. LAWRENCE JOHN O'CONNELL, the former Dolores Marino of Seattle, was married in that city June 16. Both she and Mr. O'Connell will teach in Cottage Grove schools next year. He has been a science teacher at Jefferson school for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence John O'Connell (Dolores Louise Marino), who were married June 16 in St. James Cathedral Catholic church in Seattle, will make their home in Cottage Grove. Both are to teach in local schools. Their wedding trip was to Harrison Hot Springs, B. C.

White and pink gladioli decorated the church for the Saturday morning ceremony. The Rev. James McEachron performed the double-ring ceremony with a Nuptial Mass. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell of Oakridge.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Louis Marino of Seattle, wore a white point d'esprit nylon tulle gown with square neckline and, short

Lorane Church Is Scene of Ceremony Uniting Frances Owen, Henry Nelson

By Mrs. R. G. Conner
LORANE — In an afternoon ceremony June 24 at Lorane Christian church, Miss Frances Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Owen of Lorane, became the bride of Henry Lee Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Nelson of Dexter. The Rev. Martin Lee read the double-ring ceremony with M. B. Clatterbuck, superintendent of the School for the Deaf at Salem, interpreting the ceremony in the deaf sign language as both young people are deaf.

The ceremony was performed before an ivy-twined lattice with tall baskets of pink roses and white calla lilies at either side. Mrs. Roger Owen, sister-in-law of the bride sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Webber at the piano, who also provided the traditional bridal march. After the ceremony Mrs. Owen sang "Whither Thou Goest."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length white satin gown with a slight train. The bouquet skirt ended in a ruffled back train. Her elbow veil was caught to a crown of illusion leaves and pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis.

Mrs. Arthur Peters of Portland, matron attendant and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Chris Nizie, Portland and Mrs. Will Cunningham and Miss Catherine McNamara, both of Seattle, wore frosty pink ballerina dresses with crowns to match.

Mrs. O'Connell was best man and ushers were Frank O'Connell, Fred Marino and Gottlieb Baer. Ring bearer was Joseph Barrett, former pupil of the bride.

Assisting at the luncheon reception in the New Washington hotel were Mrs. Charles Tucker of Portland, sister of the groom, Mrs. Thomas O'Connell, Eugene and Mrs. Frank O'Connell, Klamath Falls.

The bride's going-away costume was a gray and charcoal suit with charcoal and white accessories.

Mrs. O'Connell is a graduate of Holy Names academy and Marylhurst college. The groom is a graduate of University of Portland and took graduate work at University of Oregon.

train. Over it she wore an embroidered taffeta jacket whose sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and peplum were outlined with pearls. Her shoulder-length veil of nylon illusion was held in place by a lace-edged cap. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Wallace Koehler was her sister's matron-of-honor. She wore a ballet-length dress of orchid embroidered sheer nylon with matching flower hat and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations on a white Bible.

Other attendants were Mrs. Lee Anderson, sister of the groom, in a similar dress of pale blue nylon and Miss Wanda Reeh, in pink. Both wore matching flower hats and carried carnation bouquets like that of the maid of honor.

Little Christine Malcolm in a bouffant pink and blue nylon sheer dress scattered pink rose petals from a white basket. She was accompanied by Andrew Nelson, small brother of the groom, who carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Roger Owen, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Wallace Koehler and Lee Anderson.

A reception followed in the church annex. After the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake the rest was served by Mrs. Robert G. Knapp of Springfield. Mrs. Everett Malcolm poured coffee and Mrs. Jack Terrell served punch. The wedding cake was baked by the bride's mother and decorated by a neighbor, Mrs. Everett Cooper.

Miss Nancy Nelson was in charge of the guest book and Miss Peggy Jenkins and Miss Alzona Brown received the gifts.

For going to her new home at Dexter, Mrs. Nelson wore a yellow princess dress with white accessories. No wedding trip is planned until later.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Oregon School for the Deaf at Salem. The groom is working as an interior decorator.

Among the out-of-town guests were six classmates from the Salem school. They were Miss Beulah Wofford, Cottage Grove; George Ellis and Samuel Stutzman, Portland; Judy Forster, Albany; Robert Schler, Forest Grove; and Jerry Ebensteiner, Lake Grove. Other out-of-town
