

Gladiolus Decorate Church for Rite

Miss Agnes Plaisted and Dean Snauer were married here August 11 in an evening ceremony in the Methodist church, which was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladiolus. Both young people are residents of Cottage Grove. Route 1, the bride the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Plaisted, the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Snauer.

The Rev. Fremont Paul officiated at 8 p.m. in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. Mrs. Boyd Allen played the wedding march and other numbers, and accompanied Robert Kelly who sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Plaisted gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white ballerina-length dress of tiers of gathered lace on net over tulle. Over it she wore a short net-lined jacket made with short sleeves. Her lace-edged net veil fell to fingertip veil from a white tiara. The veil was borrowed from Mrs. Ernie Cairns and the bride wore the traditional blue garter for "something blue." She carried pink rosebuds on a white ribbon. Her "something old" was a gold bracelet which had been a wedding gift to her grandmother.

Miss Jean Plaisted attended her sister wearing a light blue ballerina-length dress made with gathered skirt of net and lace over taffeta. She carried a white carnation bouquet and wore a light blue tiara.

Caroline and Marilyn Lake, six-year-old twin nieces of the bride, wore flower girls. They carried baskets of pastel sweet peas.

John Snauer, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Philip Lake, brother-in-law of the bride, and George Layng, groom's cousin.

Mrs. Plaisted wore a light blue street-length dress and yellow carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a blue and white print afternoon dress and a corsage of yellow carnations.

At the reception in Friendship hall of the church, Mrs. Claude Arne and Mrs. George Duerst cut the cake. Mrs. Waldo B. Layng poured and Mrs. Walter Newton served punch. Mrs. Louis Layng and Mrs. Ted Hudson assisted with serving. Miss Kathy Ross of Redding, Calif., cousin of the groom, was in charge of the guest list and Mrs. Philip Lake, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Don Ecklund, a

Larry Anderson Weds in Texas

A Cottage Grove man, Lieut. Harold Larry Anderson of Cottage Grove, was married Saturday, August 11, at Cleburne, Texas, to Miss Shirley Jo Watson of the Texas city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Drinkard of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Drinkard and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Fanny Cabel of Springfield, attended the ceremony. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Harold Watson of Cleburne.

The couple will be at home at Fort Riley, Kan., after August 28 following a California and Oregon honeymoon.

The double-ring rite was read by the Rev. C. D. Wooten at 7:30 p.m. in the presence of 50 friends and relatives. The wedding party stood before a background of greenery, branched candelabra holding pink tapers and arrangements of pink gladiolus.

Mrs. Maurice Norman played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Kenneth Augenbright of Dallas as she sang "At Dawning."

The bride wore a white peau de sole dress made with fitted waist, short sleeves and ballerina-length bouffant skirt. The square neckline was outlined with seed pearls and the short bridal veil was attached to a pearlized tiara. She carried a bridal bouquet of French-ed carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Nina Baechtel attended her sister as matron attendant. She wore an embroidered pink cotton sheath with cummerbund and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Cathy and Connie Baechtel were flower girls in pink crystal-ino dresses and carried pink carnation bouquets.

Don Watson, bride's brother, lighted candles and Maurice Norman was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Hurricane lamps lighted the walk and guests were met by Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey.

The bride's table was laid with a pink linen cloth trimmed with pink Irish lace and centered with an epergne filled with pink carnations and flanked with silver candelabra holding pink tapers.

The bride is a graduate of Cleburne High school and the groom a graduate of Oregon State college where he was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He attended Cottage Grove High school.

Many out-of-town guests attended the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Herman Roberts and the late Reginald B. Heyl. Her stepfather, Mr. Roberts, escorted her to the altar. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Ruth Quigley of Fall City, Neb., and Howard Quigley of North Hollywood, Calif.

Special music was by Mrs. Marilyn Sizemore, sister of the bride, who sang "Lord, Who at Cana's Wedding Feast" and "Panis Angelicus." Miss Ruth Voegelé was the organist.

Miss Heyl wore a ballerina-length gown, the yoke of tulle outlined with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a white satin band trimmed with pearls. She carried a nosegay of American Beauty roses. Her pearl choker was a gift of the groom. The gown and veil worn by the bride also had been worn by her sisters, Mrs. Tracy Arnold and Mrs. Sizemore.

Mrs. Arnold was matron-of-honor for her sister, wearing pastel blue dotted swiss organza, also ballerina-length. Her nosegay was of blue Matisse daisies and she wore a garland of the same flowers in her hair.

Miss Jennie Brown of Walker and Miss Marie Friehtel, bridesmaids, were gownned like Mrs. Arnold, the former in orchid, the latter in pastel pink. Their flowers matched the honor attendant's.

Best man was Roger Eickoff; Merlyn Sizemore, bride's brother-in-law, and Jesse Campbell, brother-in-law of the groom, ushered.

Mrs. Roberts wore a street-length dress of Enka sheer in the open blue for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were white and her corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed in Our Lady of Perpetual Help school hall. The bride's table was decorated with pastel pink early
