By Mrs. Dale McCoy
Baskets of pink and white gladioli and yellow carnations and candelabra were placed beside the altar of the First Baptist church in Eugene August 12 for the wedding of Miss Myrna Joan Mattheyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Mattheyer, and William Solon (Bill) Dellinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dellinger. Both families are of Springfield.

Dr. Vance Webster performed the double-ring ceremony at 3 p.m. Bob Reid sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "At Dawnin'" before the ceremony, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Charles Roffe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white lace and nylon net over slipper satin. The fitted bodice was designed with long sleeves and a scalloped neckline and the full skirt was in tiers of nylon net and lace. Her fingertip veil of white net was held in place by a small white lace cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of garnet roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the groom. She carried a 70-year-old white linen and lace handkerchief borrowed from Mrs. C. Preppernau of Springfield.

The bride chose as her matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Krasnoski, who wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon chiffon over aqua crystal with a white satin ribbon belt. Her accessories were white and she wore a headband of white carnations. Her nosegay was of pink Elie roses and stephanotis.

Other attendants were Miss Pat Ardinger, Mrs. Floyd Burright and Mrs. Jack Heacock. Their gowns were like that of the matron attendant but with underdress of yellow-gold. They wore headbands of yellow carnations and carried nosegays of yellow and pink carnations.

Pamela Morgan, Grants Pass, young niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore a yellow nylon net gown over yellow taffeta. Her headband was of yellow, pink and white carnations and she carried a basket of flower petals.

Candlelighters were Miss Patsy Williams and Mrs. Kenneth Climer.

Best man was Don Edmunds of California and ushers were Joe Risher of Coquille, Jim Bailey, Bob Reid and Gordon Dahlquist of Springfield.

A buffet dinner was held at the bride's home after rehearsal Saturday evening for the wedding party, Mrs. Leslie Godard and Mrs. Claire Parks, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Pauline Parks, a cousin, served.
