Walker Church Is Scene of Afternoon Wedding of Ruth Way, Delayne Hollis

Miss Ruth Olive Way, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Way, became the bride of Delayne Hollis in an afternoon ceremony September 1 at the Walker Union church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Augenstein. Both families are of Delight Valley.

The Rev. Fremont Paul, Methodist minister, officiated at 3:30 p.m. Baskets of vari-colored asters, yellow and pink dahlias and alysium decorated the small church. Mrs. Wayne Monroe played piano music and accompanied Mrs. Harrison Wyant, who sang "I Love You Truly." The two sang as a duet "O Perfect Love."

Mr. Way gave his daughter in marriage. She wore white nylon net over taffeta in ballerina style. It was made with rhinestone-studded embroidered Bertha collar with a large bow at the back of the neck. The chapel-length veil also was rhinestone-studded and trimmed with lily-of-the-valley. The bride carried a rubrum lily on a white Bible with rosebuds tied into the streamers.

Only bridal attendant was Miss Mary Carlisle, Mt. View. She was in pale green nylon over taffeta, ballerina style. Her accessories were white and she carried dark pink and white asters.

Candlelighters were the groom's sisters, Janet and Gweneth Augenstein, who wore pastel blue nylon dresses and carried light pink aster nosegays with pink candles.

Harold Hollis of Klamath Falls, groom's brother, was best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Robert Way, and Thomas Perkey, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Way wore a blue and brown print on a white background. The groom's mother wore a grey caladine dress.

Bronze Marigolds decorated the bride's table at the reception in the Delight Valley gym. A large cut glass punch bowl held orange punch, which was served by Mrs. Perkey, the groom's sister. Mrs. Orville Oleson, bride's aunt, poured coffee and Mrs. Harold Hollis cut the cake, which was baked by Mrs. Brayton Carlisle. Mrs. Carlisle and Mrs. Roy Stone assisted at the reception.

The bride's brothers, Nathan and Donald Way, served the groom's cake. Janet and Gweneth Augenstein presided at a children's table, with its own wedding cake.

The couple made a trip to the Oregon coast, the bride wearing a grey and white striped suit with white accessories for going-away. Since September 3 they have been at home at Sutherlin.

The bride was a student at Cottage Grove High school and will continue her studies at Sutherlin High school. The groom is a mechanic at the Ford garage at Sutherlin. He is a 1954 graduate of Cottage Grove High school and was graduated from OTI at Klamath Falls in 1956.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Oleson, Robert and Melvin, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hollis and Harold Jr., Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perkey and David, Oakridge; Mrs. Herman Fischer, Portland and Miss Linda Viking, Creswell.

Shirley Witters Bride in Salem Rite

Miss Shirley Witters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Witters of Cottage Grove, was married Saturday, September 8, in the First Methodist church, Salem, to Glen Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Murray of McMinnville.

White gladioli, white asters, ferns and tapers in candelabra decorated the church for the ceremony, which was performed at 8 p.m. by the Rev. Bruce McConnell, pastor of Amity (Oreg.) Methodist church. Three solos, "Wedding Prayer," "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love," were sung by Bob Jackman.

The bride wore a princess-style dress of white low luster satin made with applied lace flowers with seed pearls and sequins on the v-neck and points of the lace sleeves. The skirt had long, lace panels in the inverted pleats and a fringe. The fingertip illusion veil was bordered by applied lace flowers with pearls and sequins. The bride carried a white Bible and a white orchid with stephanotis caught in the streamers. Mr. Witters gave his daughter in marriage.

Attendants were Mrs. Charles Gierau, Cottage Grove, matron-of-honor. Her waist-length gown was of lavender taffeta covered with the same shade of nylon organza. In princess-style, with two inverted pleats at front and back, it was made with v-neck and two purple velvet bows in the back. Her headpiece was a band of purple velvet with lavender organza ruffle, and she carried lavender asters tied with purple velvet cord streamers.

Three bridesmaids, Misses Joan Lawson, Spokane, Wash.; Diane McIntosh, Portland; Arlys Bamke, Haina, Hawaii; and Renae Seger, Medford, were gowned like the honor attendant. The small flower girls were Michelle Murray, Portland, groom's niece, and Penny Carter, Portland, cousin of the bride. The ring-bearer was P. K. Egli of Molalla, groom's nephew.

Miss Marcia Humphrey and Miss Beverlee Filton, both of Salem, lighted candles. O. L. Murray Jr., Portland, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Pete Egli, Oscar Murray, Don Blensly, and Phillip Schreiber.

Mrs. Witters wore a street-length dress of rose lace and a white orchid for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother was in navy blue and white with a white orchid.

The reception was in Carrier Room, the church parlor, which was decorated with lavender flowers, white gladioli and the silver-and-white wedding cake. Mrs. Arlo Carter and Mrs. Pete Egli cut the cake. Mrs. O. L. Murray Jr. poured. Miss Hermi Herring presided at the punch bowl. The guest book was in the charge of Miss Barbara Goodier and Miss Pat Ahrens had the gift table. Assisting in the reception rooms were Misses Margaret Getty, Karen Boone, Paula Preuss, and Sandy McAllister. Greeters were Mrs. Oscar Murray and Mrs. Lloyd Aldrich.

The couple made their wedding journey to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., where they spent a week. For going-away the bride wore a light blue coat lined with the same material as her traveling dress of light blue with red and black polka dots. With it she wore black patent pumps and purse and black velvet hat trimmed with white feathers.

After September 16 the couple will be at home at 660 1/2 Marion street, Salem. The bride is a graduate of Willamette university, where she majored in philosophy. She plans to continue her studies there to obtain her master's degree in religious education. The groom is a religion major at Willamette and will go from there to seminary next year for ministerial training.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson and son Douglas of Bremerton, Wash., visited two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Reede Fox. Mrs. Thompson is a niece of Mr. Fox.

REFLECTIONS

A Dividend Is Waiting

Happiness is a dividend. Two of my friends have the greatest fun at a picnic, away from everyone. Another friend has the most fun reading Detective stories. A father chooses to have fun with his boys; they go for a hike, investigate a blade of grass, a dainty flower, rock, stream tumbling to the sea. Grandma Moses paints scenes for Christmas. A snowy haired lady bakes cookies and two loaves of bread; her greatest happiness is in giving them away. Fun has so many facets that the whole spectrum is always present; Helen Keller is supremely happy when she can inspire another blind person to be self-sufficient.

Seek fun as a dividend to living.
